From Aug.t 27.th [illegible] Sept.r 27.th [illegible] occupied [illegible] Commencement, in reviewing the orations o candidates o degrees, in preparing [illegible] attending to [illegible] generally, My health [illegible] very imperfect, I had much [illegible] o giddiness, But blessed be that God who has never forsaken me & in whom I humbly confide that he never will I have been mercifully helped & carried through the whole. I was able to prepare & to deliver on the sabbath before my the longest sermon that I believe I ever preached — about an hour & a quarter in length — And I hope it was one calculated to do good. The members of the class who heard it have requested a copy for publication at their expense & I have agreed to give it. I was able to preside at commencement as well as usual to attend on all my previous duties in the Board of trustees — After every was over & I had dined with the Board I delivered my resignation of the Presidency to the Govr. as President of the Board — I immediately retired to my study & I hope was enabled fervently to commit the whole concern to God. The trustees the following day returned me a letter of thanks for my services; but although my particular friends in the Board urged the propriety & justice of making me some pecuniary compensation for pecuniary sacrifices which I had certainly sustained their representations were in this respect without success — Not a single cent was given — Upon the whole I can sincerely say that I am disappointed; & I can truly say that having committed the whole to the divine disposal & regarding this event in the light of a providential dispensation I prefer it to any other. When I believe I have done wrong & that wrong I hope I truly forgive & pray that it may not be laid to their charge while from the hand of my Heavenly Father I accept the order

as that which I would choose & prefer in confidence that it will be overruled for my good. It is impossible for me not to think that the Board of trustees have treated both me & my son not only ungenerously but unjustly — Abler services they may have from others more faithful ones they will I think never have from any of our predecessors. But let me not forget & I hope that my son will not forget that it is a christian duty of an exalted character, from the heart to forgive injuries & enemies, & to return good for evil. It is most grievous to me that in my best judgement after long experience & observation the measures adopted by the trustees in regard to the college are calculated to injure & not to promote its prosperity. It embarrasses me to know how to act. I cannot in conscience approve much less publickly justify their measures & yet I may injure the institution if I speak my sentiments. I might preserve silence & I propose to do it as far as I can — but even this will be construed & know to the disadvantage of the college — The man whom they have chosen as my successor in office is one whom I sincerely respect & one towards whom I feel a cordial & fraternal affection.

And if he shall accept the office I live to see him in it I will give him every evidence of a disposition to screen him & spare him in his arduous & responsible station. Yet I cannot but regard it as quite providential that without knowing that it would ever be a matter in which he would have a personal concern I a few weeks since explained to him pretty fully the difficulties I had with the board in consequence of which he decisively advised me to resign. (Sept. 27th 1822)

I have set apart this day as a day of special prayer in consequence of the new situation in life in which I am placed by the resignation of my office as President of the college. I think it my duty —

1. To offer my humble & warmest thanks to God for his unspeakable undeserved goodness to me in sustaining me under my official duties & cares, under my personal & family afflictions, in blessing my poor labours, so far as they have been blessed, for the good of the college — especially that once during my administration he has most graciously poured out his Holy Spirit on the institution so as to produce in it the most remarkable re-revival of religion that I ever witnessed — the beneficial effects of which will long be felt in preparing no inconsiderable number of my pupils for eminent usefulness in life, some in the gospel ministry & some in other callings ~~will long be felt~~ — And also that at other times he has blessed what I have said to the students, especially at their bible recitations, to their saving conversion, I trust, in some instances; & in others so as to produce impressions which I hope will be lasting useful & eventually saving — For these mercies I think I have never been half as thankful as I ought to have been —

2. To humble myself before God in recollection of ~~the~~ my sins & short comings in duty throughout my official life. I desire humbly to thank God that I have obtained ~~grace~~ mercy of him to be faithful in the general discharge of my duty. I do not recollect an instance in which I have injured a pupil or a parent or a brother officer so as to burden my conscience in the view of my last account. My attachment to the college & its interests has been not only great & sincere but I fear idolatrous too — I have not only loved it enough but too much — And my devotion to its interests has been unreserved & my labours for its good uninterrupted – Never till the time when the Secrets of all hearts shall be revealed will it be known what anxieties & almost agonies I have felt in the straits & difficulties & embarrassments which I have experienced since I have been president of the college. In these I have looked to God & He has always & sometimes most remarkably helped me. But what I have to lament is the want of spiritual mindedness too much of a worldly spirit – remissness in many duties, or at least the want of as much vigilance as I ought to have exercised – the want of a suitable gravity of motives even when the outward action has been right – the want of an weighty a sense of the value of the souls committed to my care as I ought to have constantly felt – the want of a christian temper at [redacted] times under the trials I have met with especially in the hard measure I have often received from parents whose children I have done all I could to benefit & above all from the Board of trustees who ought to have encouraged me & lightened my burdens instead of planting new thorns in a bed of thorns & increasing a burden that was already too heavy – the neglect too of seizing all opportunities to speak to my pupils personally & individually on on the concerns of their souls — in this last particular the zeal & fidelity of some of the tutors I fear I think less greater than my own — For all these sins of omission & commission as well as for all the pollutions of my heart & of my life which have been such that I may well wonder that God has borne with me I would desire this day to lie down in the very dust of humility before God — to repent in dust & ashes — & to fly afresh to the blood of cleansing & desire to be clothed with my Saviour's righteousness & to be sanctified & sanctified by his Holy Spirit. & I humbly hope that I have this day been enabled with some sensibility to mourn my sins & to flee to my Saviour as my all in all.

3. To commit the future lot of life to God & earnestly to implore him to order it in mercy. At the age of sixty I am as it were beginning the world anew. I am in a state of very infirm health producing at times great depression of spirits & other nervous feelings & affections. I need the special care & guidance & protection of God—Oh let me endeavour to be constantly sensible of my dependance on God constantly look to him for grace & assistance that I may never dishonour his name & cause—never bring a blot on the ministerial character—& never live a useless & unemployed life—Oh to be useful to the last—I think I have this day felt a confidence in God that he will not cast me off in time of old age—that he will continue to provide for me & to protect me—that he will guide me till I die & afterward I humbly hope receive me to the rest which remaineth for his people—My days on earth cannot now be many—Oh to be found watching & waiting for the appearance of my Lord.

In regard to my resignation of the presidency of the college I can truly say that I did not act hastily. I thought much, prayed much, & took the counsel of my best & most judicious friends—I set apart a season for special prayer & I think I had an earnest desire to be guided in duty & to be kept from wrong motives & wrong conduct.
Alas! all that I did is wretchedly imperfect & sinful

I have done in this concern is so. But I think I have taken the directions I have given to others to ascertain duty in an important concern ~~that is doa~~ where duty is doubtful. I ~~trust~~ that I have been directed & have done right. It did seem to me that I could not longer sustain the weight & cares & anxieties of office; nor do the good I desired if I should continue: & therefore that it was best both for me & the college to resign. My successor may have it in his power to do what it was impracticable for me to effect — May the Lord bless & prosper his endeavours.

Sept. 27th. [illegible]

During the remainder of this month & the following months of October & Novr. I did not keep a regular diary. I wish I had for the occurrences which took place were not unimportant. But went to Philada. at this time & printed my commencement sermon. I did not attend presbytery — I however attended Synod which sat at Elizabeth Town N. J. I engaged a Theological student Mr. to travel with me in my Eng. I first visited my friends at Hanover, where I preached twice or thrice, At Synod I lodged with Col. Ogden & dined with Dr. McDowell & Mrs. Nipsowitch, I took a pretty active part in the business of Synod & thought I was treated with rather more cordiality than usual by my brethren. On my return I was employed in making arrangements for some days to remove to Philada. But my son Jacob with the assistance of the other members of the family took the trouble off my hands of packing up my books & furniture. The day before I left Princeton for Philada. which was October had in the evening a very solemn & affecting time in my study with Mr. Steward & my coloured woman Betsy Stockton who were to set out the next day for Boston — being appointed as missionaries to the Sandwich Islands. I counselled & encouraged & prayed with them & charged them to remember me in their prayers — especially that I may never in the close of life dishonour my christian & ministerial character. The next day they went East & I West — probably to meet no more on earth — On my arrival in Philada. I lodged at ~~with~~ Mrs. McCulloh's. I was successful the next day in engaging a good house in Pine street — rent $300 per ann — I remained at Mrs. McCulloh's till Novr. when my goods having arrived ~~and~~ & some of them arranged I went with my family — consisting of my sons Jacob & Ashbel, my sister in law Margaret & my nephew Saml. McCulloh — to our new dwelling — It has given me pain to find that aunt Sally is disobliged & some of her family too that she does not continue with my family — But the thing was utterly impracticable without incessant inconvenience not only to me but I think to her also. I hope that this will ultimately be seen. In coming to my new house & new establishment I endeavoured to embrace the blessing & protection of God but did not set apart a day of prayer specially on the occasion. James from Princeton paid us a short visit while we were getting our furniture into the new house. The month of November was employed in getting my study prepared, in putting my boys to school with Mr. Rose with making arrangements for the Christian Advocate (which I wrote & sent to the introduction) & for my catechetical lectures (which I wrote a part of the first lecture this evening) during & preaching — I preach every week once & generally & think twice a week — once in the Presbyterian church for Dr. Wilson in his absence. My religious exercises during this period have been very [illegible] — [illegible] — [illegible] —

Augt. 1 — 6. Spent this week till Wednesday in preparing the Agt. No. of the Ct. Adt. for publication — On Wednesday I went with Ashbel to Princeton where we staid three weeks. During the most of this time the weather was extremely warm. I kept the house the most of the time. Visited no where but at Mr. Vermilye's, where I dined once, & once called at Dr. Miller, & twice at Dr. Alexander's. The most of the time I spent in writing a very long sermon, afterwards printed, on "The Christian duty of Christian women". This sermon I delivered in the church at Princeton, on Tuesday the 23d of the month, & ~~afterwards~~ in the afternoon of the same day met the society at their request, at Dr. Alexander's — I attended public worship in the college Hall & in the way in the church while on the visit & kept up the Thursday evening lecture.

On Saturday the 6th of the month, my son James on his way to the Hemington court, was thrown from his Salky, & injured his left arm in a very serious manner — [illegible] Ashbel, On the 24th [illegible] Ashbel [illegible] Sept. Dear Sir, Charleston December 24th 1784.

My last by Capt Allibone communicated the unwelcome intelligence of the decease of my dearest Fanny. The interesting subject still dwells on my mind. Thought no affliction could have been greater I broke it has not been altogether useless. I feel that I defened the stroke and even more if any thing could have wounded me more sensibly. Worldly prosperity was flowing in upon me. Wealth Independence honors & distinction were all within my grasp. Blest with a partner whose good sense & sprightliness enlivened domestic society & whose delicate taste gratified her for sharing with me the gifts of fortune with dignity & grace I was tempted to feel myself happy independent of religion. In a moment my towering schemes of futurity ambition are tumbled to the dust. Thus do they deserve to suffer who place their happiness in any thing distinct from the supreme good. May my my affections be recalled and fixed on their pro= per object never to wander any more.

My dear little infant lives & enjoys good health; but so uncertain are all human comforts that I dare not allow myself to build any expectations even on this promi= =sing source of enjoyment. It gives me pleasure to think that in every event may helpd him he was devoted to God in the solemn ordinance of baptism by one of the last acts of his pious mo= =ther. "The promise is to you and your seed after you" I cannot but hope that one so solemnly devoted to God by an expiring parent "who had remembered her creator in the days of her youth" will be helped of heaven. Grant merciful father that he may live not to dis= =onor the God of his mother but to pro= =mote the cause of religion the glory of his maker & the happiness of his fell= =ow creatures. He is provided by a care= =ful white woman from Amsterdam who though she has a child of her own a month old has milk sufficient for both. She lives in my house neither eats nor drinks any thing but what I direct. Few such persons are to be procured in this country. She is so much to my mind that I do not wish to exchange her for any other. She is sober temperate cleanly & careful. I allow her generous wages & wish to attach her to the infant by the tie of gratitude.

Mr Laurens is not yet arrived your letter by Mr Gibbes in which you mention that Mr Laurens wished to converse with me before the publication of my history was not delivered till nine weeks after the arrival of Mr Gibbes. I wish to hear from you what is done with my history & if not too late I wish that the second & third & fourth chapters might not be printed till you hear from me which shall be immediately after the arrival of Col Laurens. My most tender affects are presented to Mrs Witherspoon Mrs Montgomerie and all your family. I am yours by every tender tie Daniel Ramsay

August 1. 1861 Princeton ... Ashbel ... Dr. Alexander ... Dr. Alexander ... Dr. Miller ... Dr. Alexander ... Dr. Miller ... Dr. Alexander ... Dr. Miller

Jacob went to Princeton on the 17th. of April 1820— I wrote to him there on the 18th. of the month, as appears from my letter-book, but my diary says I wrote on the 17th.— In this letter I informed him that Dr. Beatty had returned his note— See the letter—

On the 24th. of April my diary states that Jacob went to Washington & ~~on the~~ that he returned on the 13th. of May.

The ~~reason that~~ cause of difference between my letter & my diary I cannot account for, otherwise than by supposing that I did, as I sometimes do, permit my diary to run in arrear for several days, & ~~then~~ instead of the 18th. of the month: Or else I might mistake ~~the date~~ when I wrote the letter, & date it on the 18th. when it should have been the 17th. of the month.

~~Dr. Beatty did not call on me~~ As my son, I well remember, was at some distance from home when Dr. Beatty called, & as I am satisfied he was not at any distance from home after his return from Princeton till he went to Washington, I conclude that the call of Dr. Beatty on me was made between the 24th. of April & the 13th. of May: My mind rests in this conclusion— but I cannot attest it on oath, as my diary is silent on the subject & I cannot recollect to ascertain the time from memory. The reason I conclude that Dr. Beatty called between the 24th of April & the 13th. of May is that I know it was on a return home after an absence of some days that I told my son of the call of Dr. Beatty, & I am satisfied ~~[illegible]~~ absence did not intervene between the two dates specified— And sometime after his return from Washington he went to Cannonsburg from which he did not return till the end of Sept.—

I have stated already that my diary is occasionally permitted to run for several days sometimes indeed for some weeks in arrear & I then write from memory. In this way I presume I omitted to mention the day when Dr. Beatty called which I think I certainly should have noted if I had written in my diary on the morning of that day.

What I distinctly remember of the interview I had with Dr. Beatty is, that it took place in my study between him & myself without the presence of any third person. I do not recollect what was the length of time he remained with me, but from circumstances I think it did not vary much from half an hour. I pretend not to remember any of the words that he made use of. But he gave me to understand very soon after he came in that he had called to apologize for the ~~latter~~ impropriety of his conduct in returning that note which my son had addressed to him. I am not confident whether he came to my house expecting to find my son at home, but think he did. His apology was certainly a very humiliating one; & to my apprehension at the time & my belief at present was attended with tears. He read he then prompted to do what he did by some one who was [illegible] when my sons note was delivered, & to whom he [illegible] known its contents. I gave Dr. Beatty to understand that I could not undertake to answer positively for what my son would or would not do but intimated that the apology he had made was in my apprehension entirely sufficient for his offence: And so I told my son on his return. I repeat that I do not recollect the words which Dr. Beatty made use of. But have stated to the best of my recollection & belief the ideas he communicated to my mind.

5. How uncertain & often how delusive are all earthly prospects

I was called up between 2 & 3 o'clock in the morning by my son, under the apprehension that his infant child was dying. He languished however till about half after 7 clock & then expired without a struggle, or apparent suffering of any kind. I endeavoured in a short prayer with the family to commit his departing spirit to that Saviour to whom he had been dedicated, & who said "suffer little children to come unto me & forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of God". I made another short prayer, immediately after the child expired. The parents have suffered a sore bereavement in this dispensation & I have myself felt much more than I thought I should. Oh! may God sanctify this stroke of his holy hand to my dear mourning children, & to myself, [illegible] — How is living temple, [illegible] The deceased infant was born on the 14th of January 1836, was baptized by Dr. Cuyler when about six weeks old & was called Alexander Anderson after his great grandfather by the mother's side.

11. This morning Dr. Cuyler [illegible] informed me of the death of Mr. Robt Ralston. He expired this morning about 4 oclock. Between this dear man & myself the most delightful friendship & intimacy has existed without any interruption or alloy for nearly half a century. Out of the circle of my nearest kindred he has been the best, most valued & most valuable friend that I have ever had in my long life. His piety was eminent & ardent, & yet of the humblest kind that I have ever known; & his liberality in contributing to every pious charitable & benevolent design has probably (taking his whole life into view) been greater than that of any other man in this city. He has sometimes been called the Thornton of America. But besides his donations in money his active personal exertions in promoting all charitable benevolent & pious undertakings & enterprizes have been most extraordinary & incessant—probably of more value than all his pecuniary contributions. Take him for all in all I have often thought & said that he was the best man I ~~[illegible]~~ ever ever knew. There was no marked defect in his character in any of the numerous relations he sustained as a husband, a father a friend, a ruling Elder in the church, a merchant, a citizen, he was alike most exemplary in all. He doubtless was not perfect & no one ever mourned his imperfections more than he. But he approached nearer to perfection than is the common lot even of eminent christians. He has gone to his rest & his reward, in the 75th year of his age: and his family, his friends, the church, the poor, the city & the whole religious community have met with a loss which will not easily be supplied. Dr. Cuyler earnestly wished that I should preach his funeral sermon which my present debility from my late illness forbids me to attempt; but I have agreed to make an address if I am able, at his interment, on the afternoon of the day after to morrow. The funeral sermon will I expect be preached by Dr. Cuyler the sabbath after next. After writing as above I began to write an address to be delivered at the funeral of my friend.

15. 3 1 ᶜᵒ 16, 3 4 7 Mr. Colla — ad 4 Dr. Miller, Dr. Blythe, Dr. Wilson — Mr. Davis,

From the last date above to the 11th of June I did not keep a regular diary. The Convention & Genl. Assembly sat till June 8th & although I was not a member of the Convention I daily & punctually attended its Sessions; & afterwards as a member of the Assembly I was so occupied with its concerns both early & late that I had neither time nor strength to write in my diary. The Convention held several evening sessions to which as a member of the Assembly I was invited both to speak & vote as other members were. Our Conventional Sessions at first & during the sitting of the Assembly were with open doors but toward the last we had several sessions from which all were excluded except the known friends of the measures & views which ~~it was known that~~ the Convention favoured. I commonly went to bed very late & completely exhausted with the scenes & business of the preceeding days. Yet I rose in the morning with renovated strength. Once I had one of the worst turns of my head complaint that I ever experienced. It was in the morning before breakfast, & for some time I could not rise from my Sofa, even to call for help. But in a most marvellous & merciful manner it so soon subsided that I was able to read the scriptures & pray with my family as usual & had no return of a symptom of my complaint during that day in which one of the most important & decisive measures of the Assembly was debated & carried. At the rising of the Assembly I was in better health than when it began. This calls for my warmest gratitude to the God of my life & the hope of my soul.

It was very doubtful when the Assembly was formed whether the Old or the New School party would have the majority. It was generally thought that the parties were nearly equal, & great anxiety existed on both sides when the test votes on the choice of a a Moderator & the Clerks of the House were about to be taken. In the choice of a Moderator it appeared that the Old School party had a majority of 31 votes — For the Clerks also the vote was decisive for the Old School candidates — The Stated Clerk, Dr. John McDowell chosen last year remained in office of course — After the Assembly adjourned the Convention immediately met, & their first act was (on the motion of Robert Breckinridge) to return thanks to God for the auspicious order of his providence in giving to the friends of reform the decisive majority of the Assembly which was just manifested by the votes which had passed in the organization of that body. The Convention presented their Memorial to the Assembly, which was drawn up by Mr. Breckinridge & signed by Dr. Baxter & Dr. Euler the President & Vice President of the body, & by Mr. Baird of Pittsburgh & Mr. Pratt of Gunnies Clock. The Memorial was printed & copies were distributed among the members of the Assembly. Beside the annual routine business of the House, the various subjects of this memorial occupied nearly the whole time of the Assembly during the longest session ever held by that deliberative except that of last year — three weeks & half a day. All the important parts & suggestions of the Memorial were ultimately past; but the New Schoolmen contested every inch of ground that was carried against them with great tenacity & with no inconsiderable talent — They felt that the cause fleet was for existence, & seemed determined to die here. Their chief speakers were Beman, Peters, McAuley, Cleaveland, Elliott, Wheeler & Jessup. Of the Old School Baxter, Breckinridge, Plummer, & Anderson spoke at the greatest length — But they were powerfully aided by Alexander, Euler, Witherspoon, Junkin, & Ewing. Others also gave occasional aid as was likewise the case on the other side. For myself my speeches were all short — Twice I spoke for about ten or twelve minutes, at other times scarcely more than five or six minutes. I think that the Old School party did not fail ultimately to carry every motion that was made, except one or two for the previous question, which they called prematurely but carried ~~ultimately~~ afterwards. I do not recollect that the New School party ever called the previous question — their aim & policy was to protract debate as much as possible that time might not be afforded to their opponents to get through with all their measures before the Assembly would be compelled to adjourn. Yet on all important questions full time was allowed them to exhaust all their arguments — On one important point the debate was continued for more than two days. The Majority of the Old School on questions of moment varied considerably but was always decisive — Once it rose to between thirty & forty, & once it fell to six. Generally it was between 25 and thirty — The yeas & nays were called on almost every point of importance; & more Protests & answers of Protests will appear on the minutes of the Assembly for the present year than ever before — As the minutes will be published I shall not mention the particulars of the great reform which has been effected, & for which I, with many others, feel that we cannot be sufficiently thankful to God, who has at length heard our prayers & in mercy, as we hope, begun to deliver our beloved church from the evils which for many years have afflicted, corrupted, & dishonoured it, & at the Gl. Assembly of last year appeared to threaten its very existence. We ought still to be very humble, watchful & prayerful that we do not, by mismanagement or an improper spirit, look the advantages which we have obtained.

I was generally able to walk to & from the Assembly — Once I employed a Hack both to take me to & bring me from the house. I dined twice with my friend Brown, & twice with brother Mr. Colla — The latter had at, different times, all the professors, I believe, of the Princeton Seminary, except Mr. Hodge, to dine with him — Dr. Miller & Dr. Alexander were at different times, a part of the company when I dined with him. I also dined once with Mr. McKean.

During the sitting of the Convention I heard on the sabbath

17. The Genl. Assembly met this day. Dr. Elliot opened it with an excellent sermon, As soon as he had finished the constituting prayer Dr. Pellor of New York, as the mouth piece of the New School corps who had come

[illegible]

[illegible] the house in a body from their Convention which they had been holding [illegible] Monday — addressed the Moderator & requested to read a paper. The Moderator told him he could not be permitted to do it, but he persisted for some time in his request, but at length yielded & the roll of the Assembly which had been prepared by the stated & permanent Clerks was read. Then Ex-[illegible] Mason attempted to read the same paper that Dr. Ostler had failed in his attempt to read. Mason however after persisting for some time was at length silenced by the Moderator. Then a Mr. Cleaveland from Michigan took the paper & in defiance of the moderator & amidst a good deal of noise & confusion read the paper through; but no body ~~could~~ ~~[illegible]~~ where I sat could hear what he said. There was a stamping at one time while he was reading which I afterwards learned was done with a view to put him down; & that it was stopped by the interference of brother Latta. When Cleaveland had finished his paper the party professed amidst noise & confusion of the most boisterous & disgraceful kind to form the Genl. Assembly by choosing a Moderator & Clerks — They then, or somebody for them, cried out that the Genl. Assembly of the Presbyterian church would meet in the first presbyterian church — Mr. Barnes' church — somebody added — And the whole corps rushed out of the house. When the vote was called in the choice of the moderator, the sreaking & sreaming of aye, or yea, was more like an Indian yell than any thing else. It seemed to me that there were female voices not a few that joined in it — The questions were not reversed — no question that I heard was asked who opposed the vote. Such another disorderly & disgraceful scene I never before witnessed & hope I never may never witness another. During the whole of this scene and confusion the members of the Assembly kept their seats & not a word was spoken to the visitors by any orthodox man except the Moderator who was perfectly self possessed & did nothing but declare that the attempt to read the protest was out of order & could not be permitted. At length he also was silent & let the visitors finish their business in their own way. There could not be a more perfect contrast than that which appeared between the calm silent & dignified behaviour of the old school & the boisterous disorderly behaviour & conduct of the New School men. After the latter left the House we went on with our business with as much order & calmness as if nothing had happened. A committee was appointed to draw up a statement of this extraordinary occurrence appointed to furnish information to the legal counsel to be employed to defend the church in the suits of law commenced against it by the New Schoolmen — Found Robt. Breckinridge there & we had a meeting at Dr. Miller's & talked over our business. Wrote to Dr.

Phillips of N. York to attend at Princeton in the following week which he did — Mr. Engles also attended from Philada. — R. Breckinridge had returned to Baltimore — The Comee. met & distributed to the several members the several parts or portions of the information deemed necessary. My allotment was the history of the church particularly as connected with the causes of the existing controversy & pending suits. The comee. consisted of Dr. Phillips of N. Y. Dr. Miller & Mr.
Maclean of Princeton, Mr. Engles, Mr. Boardman & myself of Phila-lada. & Mr. R. Breckinridge of Baltimore. After a stay of about a week at Princeton returned to the city, & after remaining here a few days went with my son on my way to Bedford to spend some time with my nephew Jacob Green — My son in the mean time had located his wife nurse & child at Amboy — We took them in on our passage to N. York where we all remained at the Atlantic Hotel till the next morning then at an early hour my son accompanied me in a Hack to the Boat & by Boat to Horse Neck whence he returned to N. York & I went on by stage to Bedford — Arrived there about noon on ~~the 4th~~ Saturday the last day of June. On the following day — the Sabbath — I preached for my nephew in the morning ~~[illegible]~~

While at Bedford I read through a volume of some size entitled "Hall & Valley" & also 130 a Mr. Haynes a man whose mother was a black woman & his father a white man, He was a minister of the gospel, self taught, but of considerable learning, eminent piety & great usefulness. I also read a good deal in my own Ct. Advocate & made a manuscript table of contents of each of the numbers which I have selected for the use of our legal counsel in defending the presbyterian Church in the suits at law which the New Schoolmen have brought against us. I also read a sermon & some other publications of A. G. Fairchild. I preached every sabbath — seven in succession — that I spent at Bedford & in several instances attended the prayer meeting in the afternoon & took part in the exercises — Once, in the absence of my nephew, I conducted the exercises & made an address of considerable length. Once on a secular day I went with my nephew to Salem, 9 miles, & preached a missionary sermon for brother Frame & returned in the evening — This day the Thermometer was at 93 degrees — but I received no injury. The heat was unusually great almost all the time I was at Bedford & I felt its effects in producing feebleness, listlessness & a kind of stupor. But on the whole the six weeks & two days that I spent with my nephew were spent much to my satisfaction & I had better health than I have usually had in the Summer & by far a better state of my bowels than I have usually had at this season of the year. I had every accommodation that I could desire & by my nephew & his wife I was treated with a degree of kindness & attention through the whole time I was with them that [illegible] for my grateful acknowledgement to them & to God who put into their hearts to show me such regard. May he reward them for their kindness. I took occasion to speak to the young people in the family on the concerns of their souls once in private. My own religious exercise while here [illegible], I visited at Judge Jays, at Mr. Clarks, Mr. Bates, Mr. Lyons, Mr. Holmes & Mr. Harts.

On the 11th of August Ashbel came with his family to Bedford & on the 13th we all left it on our return. A part of Mr. Jays family joined us on our way to N. We stopped at the Atlantic Hotel & after dinner my son's wife nurse & child on to Amboy. My son & myself remained at the tavern till next morning, & I dined that our landlord, by the name of Anderson, had once been my parishioners. He treated me marked attention. The next morning we took the steam boat called at the wharf at Amboy saw no body whom we knew. Mr. Jones of the 8th church joined us & I had much conversation with him on the way. We dined on board of the steam boat & arrived in Philada. today 2 & 3 o'clock. I found that the whole of Mrs. McCulloh's family were from home except Mrs. Brown assistant in the school kept of Mrs. McCulloh's. By her I was treated very courteously & took my meals for 3 days in the family, lodging with my son in my own house. During these days I got my Mos. of the Advocate containing information for our legal counsel bound & ordered them placed in the hands of Mr. Chas. Chauncey whom I & with whom I conversed on the state of our law suits. He lost me Jays life. After 3 days I took up my lodging with my son Jacob with whom I had my lodging for ly a week. During this time I attended the meeting of our presbytery at Wanbay the installation of brother Blythe with whom I dined. We also took order for an inquiry into the state of the 4th church Philada. & appointed a committee of 5 of which I was the chairman to make inquiry & report to the Presbytery that was adjourned to meet 3 days after the meeting of the Comee. I was treated with great kindness & attention by him & his wife while I lodged with them. I read Cuvier's life & a part of Pope's works with life by Johnson. On the sabbath I attended Mr. Boardman's church. He was from Dr. Miller supplied his pulpit, from whom I heard two excellent discourses. After remaining nearly a week with Jacob, Ashbel brought his family from Amboy & we resumed our family state. During the remainder of the month of August I read through the life of Jay, 2 Vols. Octavo, & the remainder of the life of Cuvier & the papers that were sent me during my absence.

The Lord has been very merciful to me & mine in preserving us during our dispersion from sickness & dangerous accidents & in bringing us together again in health peace & safety. O to be thankful & to devote our spared lives renewedly to the [illegible] & glory of God our preserver 1830. January 1st. Lord's day. Preached forenoon & afternoon from 2 Peter 1. 10. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall: 11. For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Rev. 2. 4. Nevertheless I have something against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. 5. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. The first text suggested that when a christian, in his permanent religious state is highly animated by love to his Saviour, then he was at some past period of this life, he has reason to be alarmed, & pray & strive for quickening grace, increased love & devotion to God his Saviour.

Newton's [illegible] Scotts,

Feb. 1. This morning shortly after breakfast Ann McCulloh called to tell me of the death of my son Jacob who died suddenly this morning about 7 o'clock. He attended church yesterday three times ~~[illegible]~~ in the afternoon subsequently to his leaving the church in which he steadily worshipped, he called at Mrs. McCulloh's ~~[illegible]~~ in health & spirits. He attended Mr. Boardman's church in the evening & went to bed about eleven o'clock with no complaint except a little wheezing in his breath to which he has lately been accustomed & of which he made no account. About 6 o'clock he told his wife that he was suffering greatly from a difficult respiration which he thought ~~might~~ proceeded from phlem & might be relieved by an emetic. Tartar emetic was in the house & his wife immediately administered some dissolved in water. It was returned almost immediately & as he found no relief two physicians, Drs. Dunglisson & Harris were sent for. His suffocation ~~[illegible]~~ rapidly increased — He had only time to utter the words "breath, breath — I am gone" & expired. Dr. Harris entered the house at the moment, & opened a vein in his arm which bled but little. Dr. Danglisson came in a few minutes after but my son was a corpse. It was less than an hour from the time he spoke to his wife till he expired. Ashbel met Ann McCulloh at the door of our house & immediately hastened to his brother's dwelling. He remained a considerable time & took charge of all the next door arrangements for his brother's funeral. It rained hard all day but in the afternoon I went in a cab with Ashbel to the mourning family. I conversed & prayed with his wife who is deeply affected & yet manifests more fortitude & composure than I was afraid she would be able to to possess & exhibit. From her I received the statement I have here made although I had heard the most of it before I saw her. She wept plentifully but was perfectly recollected & among other things spoke of the kindness of Ashbel's attentions. I said what I could to comfort her; but indeed the death of the departed has shocked us all, so that the comforters need comfort themselves. Five brethren came to prayer meeting this morning & their sympathy & prayers were to me consoling. Oh what an example have we had of the uncertainty of life & the importance of constant & actual preparation for the stroke of death. Sanctify this dispensation of thy holy & righteous providence, O most merciful God, to all the relatives of the deceased — to me & my two remaining sons especially, as well as to the deeply afflicted wife of him whom thou has so suddenly called to his final account. Blessed be God, that although the stroke was sudden I am not without hope in his death. He has been a professor of religion for about eighteen years & has not dishonoured that profession but in some measure has adorned it. Yet I could wish his piety had been more vivid & more active. This day at noon a post mortem examination took place with a view to ascertain the cause of the sudden death of my son. The report of Ashbel is received I suppose from the medical men who made the examination that the heart was found enlarged to more than twice its natural size, & covered with a coat of fat exceeding what is usual in a healthy state of that organ. The veins of the heart were also become cartilaginous; some of them were for a short distance converted into real bone. Of course it was a case that admitted of no relief. It is wonderful seems to be that he lived as long as he did. His activity seems to have kept him alive by increasing the action of the heart. He attended church three times the day before he died which was the sabbath. I believe he has not missed delivering a single lecture this winter till the day of his death.

the whole city is in mourning in consequence of the death of President Harrison 13. Snowed quite fast all day. Rec'd a letter from Rich'd McCulloh, Esq. of Baltimore, inviting me to a Diplomatic dinner. Snowed a little this morning but the clouds soon dispersed, the sun shone brightly & before night the most of the snow that fell yesterday had disappeared although the weather was not as warm as it often is in April. I gave a man this morning the sum of a dollar for shoveling the snow off our pavement & I think he earned his money.

14. Snowed again last night & this morning, & although a considerable quantity of snow fell it all disappeared in the course of the day, but the air is still chilly. Mr. Williams, Mr. Peter Force, Mr. Webster, Mr. Stubbs, Mr. Attlee, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Abbot, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Huntington, Mr. Mason, Mr. Wright, Mr. Bates, Mr. Mangum, Mr. Southard, Mr. Archer, Mr. Preston, Mr. Berrien, Mr. Clay, Mr. Crittenden, Mr. Ewing, Mr. Tallmadge, Mr. Prentiss, Mr. Simmons, Mr. Sprague, Mr. Miller, Mr. Phelps, Mr. Rives, Mr. Tyler, Mr. Smith, Mr. Porter, Mr. Sevier, Mr. Walker, Mr. Woodbury, Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Ruggles, Mr. Linn, Mr. Fulton, Mr. Kent, Mr. King, Mr. Grundy, Mr. Hubbard, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Tipton, Mr. Niles, Mr. White, Mr. Knight, Mr. Clayton, Mr. Bayard, Mr. Naudain, Mr. Robbins, Mr. Tomlinson, Mr. Morris, Mr. Ellmaker, Mr. Sturgeon, Mr. Buckner, Mr. Rives, Mr. Shepley, Mr. Porter, Mr. Evans, Mr. Choate, Mr. Webster any thing that has before appeared of the same kind in the city. It took I think fully two hours to pass the place where we were although I came away before the whole had passed, But I stood an hour & three quarters. But I disliked the thing altogether. I think it was calculated to banish the serious feeling which the religious solemnities of last week may have produced.

At Princeton

1843 Augt. 22. Was favoured this morning in private devotion with some feeling & earnestness. Read Bible, news paper, & one short chapter in Owen. Dr. Miller called on me in the morning, & Dr. Hodge in the evening; & I had much conversation with them both. My pupil did not call to day, being I suspect not well.

23. Was much troubled last night with dreams. Had some earnestness, but not great freedom, in private prayer this morning. Read Bible, news paper & much of the Chronicles. Dr. Alexander called in the afternoon, & Dr. Janeway afterward. Perhaps I never felt myself more unable to pray, than I did this afternoon & evening.

24. What shall I render unto God, for his unmeasurable goodness & mercy to me this morning, in my private devotions! I cannot tell what I ought to say. Perhaps I never had sweeter access to his throne of grace, or greater freedom to pour out my heart before him. Read Bible, news paper, & finished the Chronicles. The exercises of the morning spread a sweet calmness & serenity over my mind through the day. Yet I was in a measure without animation, but was rather drowsy & dull. Had some sensibility in prayer in the afternoon & evening; yet still not animated.

25. Had some earnestness in private prayer, but little freedom. A kind of stupor seems to overspread my mind. Read Bible, news paper, life, or rather death of Washington — the last number of Sparks' production — read also Owen & about half of the Presbyterian. In the evening I received a letter from Stobbs' wife, giving me the agreeable information that his health was (when he last wrote) decidedly better.

26. My private prayer this morning was much of a conflict, from beginning to end; but I hope it may have reached the throne of mercy. The whole of the day, after this, till near tea time, was one of the gloomiest that I have known for some time. But a little before tea, it ended so signally as to surprise me much; and I had such a delightful & glorious evening, as I have very seldom known; & was enabled to pour out my soul to God, with great freedom, peace and joy. Read Bible, news paper, Owen, & finished Presbyterian. Prayed in the evening for the church & the world.

27. Sab. Had great freedom in private prayer, before I went to church — to which I went leaning on the arm of my grand son. The service was performed by Dr. Alexander, & his subject was a revival of religion. He preached well, & though I could not understand a considerable part of his discourse, I heard enough to be highly pleased, & I hope edified. O that God would revive his work in this place, & in this family. Said a little to my grand son in walking home with him; & I introduced the sermon in asking a blessing at the dinner table. Read Bible & Owen, & left but 27 pages of the XII Volume of his works. This day been a comfortable, & I hope profitable sabbath to me. Yet I was much exhausted before I went to bed.

28. Had great delight in reading Heb. IX, which was my portion of the Scriptures for the morning, & afterward, in private prayer, was greatly favoured & enlarged in pouring out my soul to God. Read Bible, news paper, & finished Owen, & read 20 pages of Perkins' volume in Latin. Was favoured in my evening prayer. Heard my pupil recite as usual.

29. Was greatly favoured this morning in spiritual meditation, & in reading the Scriptures, & in private prayer. Read Bible, news paper & Perkins, & also an address of my own to the students & faculty of the college when the building was in ashes. This address I got from the Theological Library to which I went with my sons in the afternoon. This has been an uncommon pleasant day to me.

30. Very feeble this morning, & my private devotion was feeble, but I hope sincere. Read Bible & Perkins, & wrote a long letter of three pages to my sister. Had some tenderness & freedom in my last prayer before going to bed.

31. Had some freedom & earnestness in prayer this morning, though I did not read Scotts commentary till after I had prayed. Read Perkins, & wrote a long letter to my niece, the wife of my nephew Jacob Green. James went to Washington this morning.

[illegible]tember 1st 1799. Under this date, I find in my diary the following entry — [illegible] morning I awoke in a sweet frame of mind, & was led to meditate on [illegible] sufficiency of Christ. I think I saw clearly, that I need, emphatically [illegible] more emphatically than language can express, an altogether saviour, an [illegible]erful saviour, an omnisient saviour — in one word a saviour that [illegible] do & be, all that a poor, vile & entirely worthless & hopeless sinner, [illegible] possibly need. I did apprehend the Lord Jesus Christ to be just such [illegible]iour; and I did hope, that I did have, at ~~last~~ least some approving views of [illegible] possessing this character. After family prayer, I had an impressive [illegible] of the imperfection of my most religious services; & that there is sin [illegible] in them, forever to condemn me; & this still enhanced my estimation [illegible]rist. Oh what safety is there, in relying on the fulness of the saviour; & how [illegible] it make us hate & detest all sin, & desire to spend & be spent for him, [illegible] for all his will, whatever it may be."] [illegible] 29th 1800. This morning I voided a piece of gravel or [illegible] as large as a bean. Through the divine goodness it came away [illegible] much pain. Oh how good is God to me! O that I could trust [illegible] with steady & cheerful confidence — if ever a creature had rea[illegible] so I have. This morning too my mind fell into a sweet con[illegible]lation of the free grace of God — that it emphatically free. I [illegible]ed a view of my infinite unworthiness; & yet that this did [illegible]clude me from the hope of the gospel; but that it was intended [illegible]ch my heart with admiration of the goodness & condescention [illegible] & the Saviour, in preparing salvation for such a creature — I [illegible]ded prayers in congress & on my return went & conversed & [illegible]ed with Mrs Flintham &c.
