HARVARD WINS AT SOCCER

Columbia Team Defeated by a Score of 1-0—Voskamp Badly Injured

In a close and hard fought match the Columbia soccer team met unexpected defeat at the hands of Harvard yesterday afternoon, the score being 1 to 0 in favor of the visitors. The game was played on South Field and was attended by nearly two hundred spectators. The splendid defensive work of the Harvard halves and backs prevented Columbia from tying the score despite the fact that the Blue and White players kept the ball in the Crimson's territory for the greater part of the second half.

The kick off was made shortly after three and Harvard rushed the ball toward the Columbia goal. Columbia's defense broke up the attack and for a long time no decisive advantage was shown, the ball fluctuating from one half of the field to the other. About the middle of the half, Harvard took the ball down the field, Voskamp at right full back rushed out to secure the ball. He received a severe kick on the knee and was laid out. However he went on playing but was unable to move rapidly. Shortly after this Harvard's left outside centered beautifully. Tallant, at goal, stopped the shot, but before he could throw the ball, was charged through into the net for the only score of the game. The half ended after about fifteen minutes of play in which neither side had much advantage.

In the second half, Carpenter was substituted for Voskamp who, it seems, has had the tendon of his knee badly injured. Columbia forced the playing and the ball was carried into Harvard's territory again and again but to no avail, the Crimson defense being too perfect. The game ended with the ball in front of Harvard's goal.

Columbia has now practically no chance for the championship but her standing will depend on the result of the Harvard-Haverford game at Haverford to-day. The summary of yesterday's game is as follows:

Columbia	Harvard
Tallant	Waters
Voskamp	Carpenter
Dwyer, G.	Munroe
Hartung	Pell
Ferguson	Grant
Kistler	Brooks (capt.)
Billingsley	McQuade
Smith	Leland, F. R.

1910 Accepts Challenge to Debate

W. Langer, A. Louria and B. Berinstein, comprising the 1910 debating committee, yesterday accepted the challenge of the 1911 debating society for the annual Sophomore-Freshman debate. The contest, the question for which is, "Resolved, that the Initiative and Referendum are desirable" will take place about the middle of May. The trials for the Sophomore team will be held on April 8, at four o'clock in Earl Hall. M. Brenner, G. Smith and L. Fleishman have been appointed to choose which side of the debate 1910 will take.

Final Plans for Junior Dinner

Yesterday afternoon the 1909 Dinner Committee held a meeting where a list of the speakers at the dinner was decided upon. Tickets, costing $2 were distributed to the members of the committee to sell to Juniors. The dinner will be on April 11, at Keen's Chop House, 36th Street near Sixth Avenue, at 8 o'clock.

FENCING TOURNAMENT

Columbia Ties With Navy For Second Place in Preliminaries

Preliminaries of the intercollegiate fencing meet were held last night in the gymnasium of the New York Athletic Club. Yale and Massachusetts Institute of Technology were eliminated from competition in the finals which are to be held to-night. The "Tec" men were outclassed, losing all but one of their fifteen bouts. Yale, however, was in the running throughout and until the decision was rendered in the last of their bouts the Elis had a good chance to tie with Cornell and thus not be disqualified. Pennsylvania and Harvard, who are members of the league, were rendered ineligible in elimination meets earlier in the season. The final score for the night was: Army—won 1, lost 4; Columbia—won 9, lost 6; Navy—won 9, lost 6; Cornell—won 8, lost 7; Yale—won 7, lost 8; M. I. T.—won 1, lost 14.

Nearly all the bouts were close and two of them required two extra periods of two minutes before a decision could be rendered. Byrne of Columbia and Sohlberg of West Point fought fiercely through two extra periods and Byrne finally won on a divided vote of the judges. The fastest of all the bouts was the one between Sohlberg of the Army and Smith of Yale. Had Smith won, his team would have been in the finals to-night. He fenced remarkably well but after two extra periods the bout was awarded to the cadet.

In the first bout of the evening, between Amend and Burdick, Amend received a painful injury to his thumb which bothered him so that he lost the bout. He fought pluckily throughout his bouts, winning all but this. His bout with Sears of the Army was one of the features of the evening and although the judges rendered a unanimous decision in favor of Amend, the bout was very close and the outcome doubtful until the last. Both Byrne and Miller did good work, Byrne winning two bouts and Miller three.

The summary of the bouts in which Columbia men contested, together with the scores, follows:

Strip 1.—Amend lost to Burdick, Navy; Amend defeated Harries, Cornell; Lange, M. I. T.; Sears, Army; and Hass, Yale.

Strip 2.—Byrne lost to Brandt, Navy; Byrne lost to Loving, M. I. T.; Byrne lost to Howard, Cornell; Byrne defeated Smith, Yale; Sohlberg, Army.

Strip 3.—Miller defeated Knauss, Navy; Carey, Cornell; Nickerson, M. I. T.; Miller lost to Cocraft, Army; Staley, Yale.

Final score: Army won 11, lost 4; Columbia won 9, lost 6; Navy won 9, lost 6; Cornell won 8, lost 7; Yale won 7, lost 8; M. I. T. won 1, lost 14.

New Machine for Translating Chinese

When seen yesterday by a Spectator representative, D. H. T. Miller '09L explained quite fully his invention, the new Chinese translating machine. This consists of a dictionary and an automatic machine. The dictionary is simplified in such a way that any character can be found in thirty seconds where it now takes four or five minutes. The machine is used to translate a sentence or group of characters into rough English. In size it is about as large as a typewriter, and has thirty keys. Mr. Miller believes that his invention will revolutionize the commerce and life of China, since commercial men as well as government officials will be able to have direct intercourse with any Chinese merchant or official.

Professor Hirth, an authority on Chinese at the University, is greatly interested in this invention. An opinion can not be expressed, however, until the machine has been seen, which will be sometime after April 1, when the machine will have been patented.

OPENING GAME OF SEASON

Baseball vs. Brooklyn Y. M. C. A.

In the first game of the season, the Varsity baseball team will meet the Brooklyn Central Y. M. C. A. at three o'clock to-day on South Field. Every man who has been out regularly for practice will be given a tryout in the game so that no definite line up is announced. All those who are to play to-day should report promptly at 2:30 on South Field. The management desires as many students as possible to turn out and support the team at its first game. At yesterday's practice Coach Goodman put the men through work in stopping hits, and throwing between bases.

Charles Cuthbert Hall

Dr. Charles Cuthbert Hall, President of the Union Theological Seminary, a member of the University Council, and one of the most prominent theologians in the country, died Wednesday morning in the Presbyterian College after an operation which revealed very serious conditions.

Since January, Dr. Hall has been unable to perform his duties at the Seminary owing to an obscure disease of the liver, contracted while travelling in the East two years ago. He has made two lecture tours in India, China, Japan and the Philippines, one in 1902-3 and the last in 1906.

Dr. Hall was born in this city on September 3, 1852, the son of William C. Hall, and entered Williams College in his sixteenth year. While there he became a member of the Delta Psi fraternity. After graduation in 1872, he studied theology for two years at Union and spent another year in London and Edinburgh. After returning to America, Dr. Hall was for two years pastor of the Union Presbyterian Church at Newburgh, N. Y., and in 1877 married Miss Jeanie Stewart Boyd. From then until 1897, when he became President of Union, Dr. Hall was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn.

The degree of D. D. has three times been conferred on Dr. Hall, by the University of New York in 1890, Harvard in 1897, and Yale in 1901. Union gave him an LL. D., in 1905.

Besides his widow, Dr. Hall leaves two daughters and two sons. The funeral, which was private, was held yesterday morning from the Adams Chapel of Union Theological Seminary.

Track Practice on South Field Monday

Outdoor track practice will begin on Monday and Manager Montgomery announces that the work of improving the track on South Field is also to commence. The former sharp corners which have interfered with the work are to be made more rounded and the jumping pit also is to be put in condition. It is further announced that practice at Williamsbridge will be held three times a week.

In Spectator of yesterday, a statement was made to the effect that the medals for the indoor handicaps would be given out then. This is, however, erroneous, and the management announces that the presentations will not take place until next Thursday or Friday.

Barnard Girls Give Greek Games

Yesterday afternoon the Barnard students gave a set of Greek games for the benefit of a large and enthusiastic audience. Wreaths of green parsley took the place of the ancient olive branch; prizes in the shape of large green wreaths were also awarded. Contests in dancing, singing, playing of musical instruments and other matches of this order completed the program, and the unanimous verdict was that the afternoon was very successful.

PRINCETON VICTORIOUS

Schoonmaker Second in All-Round Championship—Good Team Work

Princeton won the intercollegiate gym meet held last night in their own gymnasium. Columbia and N. Y. U. tied for second place, each making 10 points. Rutgers and Yale each secured 6 points, while Harvard and Pennsylvania made only 1 point apiece.

The champion all-around gymnast proved to be Mecabe of Princeton, who gained 309 points to his credit. Schoonmaker of Columbia, who made 296 points, led in individual honors until the tumbling. He was too tired to do his best here and so Mecabe won out. Third place was obtained by Dowd of Princeton who secured 293 points.

All the Columbia men scored high in the events in which they were entered, but the team was crippled by the absence of Voskamp who is laid up with a torn ligament, as a result of his injury in the soccer game.

The summary follows:

Horizontal Bars:—Dowd, Princeton, 69 1-2; Mecabe, Princeton, 66 1-2; Darthford, Pennsylvania, 62; Schoonmaker, Columbia, 61 1-2.

Side Horse:—Wheeler, Columbia, 72; Fernandez, N. Y. U., 69 1-2; Griffin, Yale, 67 1-2; Schoonmaker, Columbia; Hanrahan, Columbia.

Club Swinging:—Morrison, Rutgers; Philipps, N. Y. U.; Thompson, N. Y. U.

Parallel Bars:—Everhardt, Yale, 73.5; Schoonmaker, Columbia, 73.2; Dowd, Princeton, 65.7; Melitzer, Columbia.

Flying Rings:—Pote, Pennsylvania, 68.7; McCulloch, Columbia, 66.2; Taylor, Harvard, 61.1.

Tumbling:—Mecabe, Princeton, 74; Thompson, N. Y. U., 60; Dowd, Princeton, 69.5.

Lost Martinique Cup Found Once More

Much surprise has lately been occasioned by the peculiar disappearance and discovery of the Martinique Cup, a trophy won by the track team. For more than a year the cup has been in Superintendent Norris' office carefully wrapped in a package, the contents of which nobody knew.

Some time last March F. Lage '07S, who was then manager of the track team, brought the package into Mr. Norris' office asking him to keep it for him until he wanted it. He said it was a cup. Soon after this Lage went to South America, forgetting about the cup, and up to a few days ago nothing had been heard of the missing trophy. Inasmuch as the package was addressed to Lage Mr. Norris did not feel that he ought to open it. While the trophies were being removed to Earl Hall, Mr. Norris and Coach Crooks decided to open the packet, and found that it contained the Martinique Cup.

Mr. Norris said that the humorous account in the Tribune, which stated that it was a loving cup given to him by his predecessors, is entirely erroneous.
