1844. Sept. 17. Tuesday. Rose at 1/4 before six; rather late, ought to rise in time to go thro all dressing & devotion and be ready to sit down to reading or study by day light; and it seems wise to go out thus early to take some exercise after Breakfast sent Mrs White a hand in pacing some peaches; then ~~wrote~~ ~~letter of yesterday~~ went to Dr. lecture at 8 o'clock - after dinner reading the testament, went to hear Dr. Hodge in Ch^{ch}. then went home with Mrs Rice play 'kumek', and teased with him.
Met Mrs ^{Agnes} Alexander, of W.L. was glad-to give Mrs Rice a bunch of grapes.
Wrote a letter & mail to Glen Wood; found of Chape vire a newspaper Mark^d 'C Baile' went into Mr Jones shop inquire for and found him, and gave him the paper as found in our garden; sd no more to him. Spreaky at dening to night spoke twice, came home at 9.
Mrs White aiding gave for my indentments Read Bp. Onderdonks letter & am now sobered. Mr White loaned me a of hands of Mr Sam^l Alexander for expenses to Trenton where I preach^d on Sunday July 28th. Agreed to preach at Trenton on Sunday next. Sept 18 Wednesday.

Rose at Watking, 6 o'clock - prayed & read 1st Ch. in Mark, part of it, after B. fast Spoke some words, mended your sack.
No lecture fr Dr M. at 11 hrs of rest to Dennis A. M. also for New York.
Called on Dr Stebbins at College to invite him to tea - spent an hour in very pleasant conversation on 2nd rebuke of the Pharisees building tombs of prophets - blaming their fathers - and here approving their deeds he thought must be elliptical - meaning they show their approbation of their treatment of prophets in his day, the professing such regard for the old prophets - and this seems the meaning from other passages; think I will write a lecture on this subject. After dinner call on Mr Lowrey who wish^d me to preach ev--ing to the Col^d people, with Mr Thompson wh. agreed to do. - Call on Mr Thompson and spend an hour in very pleasant conversations. We have not before been intimate here. Not thrown much together and he has that one rather backward in making his acqu^{ts} tho it has been from con-scious want of time, and hence not decisions to widen my circle of friends - hope to know him better in future.

D^d. Exogesis at 3^{1/2} - afterward went to have a game of Ruch with two Rich^d I have no great skill at any game of such sort - nor even had - but I enjoy it with them - his father joined in, who is a most affable man in private.
Mr. Stinky took tea with us, and had to leave with me, wh. I did to attend prayer meetg at Queens town - Mr Rowell spoke & I pray^d, felt some awkwardness.

Pray. Smoked a cigar on my way up, call^d for Miss Faxon and came home little after 9. Paid to day 50 Cents for my flour.

Weather very warm, very dry & parched, and dull - Wells quite low and dry.

Do not feel that have done much in way of study - ought to write more than I do - D^d Mr. says sh^d write one Thursday . 19 Bore about 6. Prayer before Breakfast - wh. is so much better than at any other time. Mrs ~~White~~ ^{White} sister Celia Van Dyne to see her. 22^d Missy.

Assist^d fr. Africa who had much high interest to tell - she is very intell^t and for her chances quite equal to many - if not most - White girls; her heart seems alive in the matter, and she means to go back when her health shall allow. May the Lord show me in this thing what he w^d have me do - and then give me grace to do if willing. After D.H. lecture went to Durin in Canal wth Doc. pleasantly - putting our faces near together we sank our heads under the water - O what a horrid sight his face was, bloated goggle eyed, one look was enough, found him pleasant companion & intell^t. Spent evening at my room writing exercises - about mine went over to Mr S. Alex^r Coon and took a pipe with him, spent fr an hour, came home and to bed.

Friday. 20 September.

Rose 1/4 before 6 went straight down to split some wood; after came up & prayed.
Selected a text for Sabbath afternoon at Quenston 2 Pet 3:18 in Douktas to meaning of word grace here used. Made an exchange with Borkwell he to take back Miltonch^r. Doct. and ch. ~~the~~
in. and give me Homes instead. 4 vols & Ephraim ~~the~~ the the for 4:25 (Milton was not paid for) Homes will I hope be a very useful book to me. Dr M. lectured at 11. After dinner unusually warm, & sleepy could keep awake over my book; at such moments I am staggered at the duties of future Minist^r.
How - how shall I ever get thro them?
O Lord put strength in me; I am well convinced before a man can preach the gospel with effect, he must feel it in his power. About 5 o'clock went down to play 'marbles' with the lads - then we stayed to tea, wh. I did and then went to Debating Socy. 2nd regarding admission of members to Ch. on proof of faith in Isch. how soon sh^d be done said nothing - many spoke. It seems to me ap^ost. practice and what is now except as taught by experience are at variance - and hence q^u how far ap^o practice is binding on us. R. P. ~~leave~~ with D^r M. to lodge at 8 & then home at 10.

Saturday. Rose at 6 having been awake one or two hours during the night.
Went down and chopped wood, or split pattens: pray^r after Bkfst. at 11. made some unfortunate remark about some one having taken the grapes wh. offended One White and made things unpleasant for some time - She tho^ught I meant to rebuke her; I had no bad motive but partly in mirth, partly in earnest I urged her not to hang about to herself &c

I shall be on my guard hereafter - for I am not always enough considerate in what I say & how. Dr. H. lectured at 11. 2nd & 18th Palais Mercenaire. Ready called just before dinner, but did not remain to dine with us. My husband takes the folks unawares - and for same cause.
I did not urge him: he is in doubt as to what he shall do about a license - he cannot quite agree to the Conf^o of Faith in old sch. sense - and still fears he shall suffer in his influence at home.
After dining sat down in parlor to work out my sermon at 2nd story, tomorrow, wrote till 4 1/2 o'clock down to S. Rice, where was invited on of Andromeda and asked to preach for Col^o people this evening - consented, preparatory lectures. Play Marbles with Geo.
Came home to tea - and at 8 o'clock began sermon, did tolerably - and may God bless with his blessing. Mrs White meant to have some ice cream, but not go, wee. Mrs. Patton was here - letter for her from Mrs. H. Miss Dea here to night. The work is over. Still very dry and hot and dusty. Grapes are in very fine order just now, but some poaching.

Monday Morning, 23rd September

The Sabbath is past - yesterday morning did not rise so early as the 24th of 6. At 11 went to chapel & wrote on Rev. of 4. Mr. Yarnall preached at the Episcopal Church. After dining and completing my sketch for preaching at Decunston went to S. School.
Miss Lloyd came for first time, is of Stafford, left at 5 o'clock at 12 noon at Decunston, had a very respect-able audience, and hope what he said to them may not be without effect. walked up with Mrs. Rice Mr. Pason lectured tea - afterward Mrs. White & sister and I went down to the P. Ch. to hear D. B. Bond on the for many. So. and we were all very much interested and profited; he spoke in the kindest manner of the Catholics here & abroad. Desired them to be a true Ch. since Com. But when repudiated several doctrines & condemned those holding them. He made very encouraging statements.

Told a beautiful anecdote of

And Bp. of Bordeaux, once in Boston, Romanish; just entering on his office for wh. recalled to him a beggar called, his legs went to learn his case, and he said he is very poor, giving him 5 francs & the Bp. that will soon use up all your income, if you give at that rate - besides he is a clever Ah! a clever, well that settles the case give him 50 then and then to him for coming - This should be our spirit to the Rom.

Told then the tendency with many of the higher minds, he mentioned the of the Abbe de Lamoignon, who was eager to raise the masses - to furnish men their rights & privileges; & he entered the Rom.

Church with this design, knowing how great the eccles. power; hoping to gain by his talents such influence that might accomplish his design. For so years he toiled, and piled out his work of Knif, wh. is far superior to Chateaubriand; as was his private moral char than his for Chat. When writing his work on Knif was of very immoral character Next he put out the Beluins for it was called to Rome, went hoping to gain audience with Pope who deputed his Secy. to meet him.
After waiting at Paris 6 months went home without success. Next work called Rome; then another for this was cast into prison where remained 1 year, and came out settled down on banks of the in his little dwelling in retirement from the world - Completely an infidel

Laying it out cannot be of beautiful origin since it will not lend itself to raise the masses, and give men their rights - And this is the case of many. Most sad; poor man he knows not what true Life is.

Monday Evening. Sept 22.

Rose $\frac{1}{4}$ before 6, Spoke word for $\frac{1}{2}$ an hour, dressed for breakfast, did not have a season of prayer before it after Mrs White came up, and had no chance, till hour of lecture on Patristic Dissol. arriving at $\frac{1}{2}$ past 9 went to Leaning - 1st P in an hour was again occupied, tho not necessarily till 11, and no prayer yet. Went to Dr Miller on Ch. Govt - coming out found Mr Varnall in Mr Lacy's room; with him walked down to Hedges room.
Not out by dinner time - found him very pleasant, he has been called to settle here over Epis. Ch. but is in doubt, whether he will - both to leave his present charge to whom is much attached & try to him.

Up to this time no prayer; but not that D^r Scott who said felt as much the loss of season of prayer as he did his morning meal; O! that I did more hunger and thirst after righteousness Again after dinner I remembered my delinquency and ashamed myself down by my desk - Were prayer my 'vital breath' sh^d I thus be able to go without it? D^r Miller says Elders are plenary members of Christ's Church; but some of the objections urged against this appear to me of no means men of straw. Commenced in part a letter to C. Ward, on page Mrs White left.

D^r H. lecture on Trinity, Trinity - as are to be content with facts as found in S.S.
1 Our God. 2 Father Son & H. Holy each God.

3. These are names of attributes, not of the same person, there being ground for personal pronouns & how & be to be used of them 4. Father sends Son and works thro him

While Son never sends Father & Soth's Father & Son send the H. Spl. but he never sends them. Coming home finished the letter & mailed it; also one for D. B. Ryan contg 3.00 Prof Alex^d Sabre. for N. W. Jackson P. Master franked; very polite to me.
Spent some more wood, took tea, and passed the evening in reading in Mins of Congrega. by Punchard: in reference to a debate on Friday evening were the Ch. independent? Down to P.O. and forgot to put in Mrs Hares letter.
Weather is very cool, have put on underclothing and drawers.

Wed. Morning 25. September Saturday morning after Breakfast went down to find D. Baird with a dollar from Mrs White, she has in truth a Catholic Spl, he was glad to rec. it and more so when told of its source - told me an Epis.
Lady in Mass. Miss wife sustained a Colporteur herself - that they sustained an Epis. Minister in France and some other deacon. Prof Mel.

came ask us to sit in parlor wh. we did for an hour much delightfully - and he told me a great deal, an most affable man well informed and liberal in his views. He said when I told him I hardly knew what to go about thro the Lm. That a man was much needed at Valparaiso in Chile to preach to American there, and thus find access to the Spanish pop.
The Am. and Engl. w^d pay 1000 a year - perhaps 2000, and if so many God, who has so far guided me, richer than I. I will think of it. I told him I^d consider the matter for further communication. He w^d write me about it. It w^d be very pleasant to remain in my own land but the Gospel sh^d be carried any where.
O God make the path clear and fit me to walk in it diligently. Missed Dr Alex^r Lech. Had a che came on - went on the out eating had 2 cups of strong coffee wh. one white with all alacrity - when I s^d I said it had prepared for me - he said corn went off - Walked down to see Rice play Marbles a while. Came up to Stry. Dr H. no lect. bec. of meeting of the Alumni of Stry. to increase its funds. Hamill asked me to preach for him next week but declined. J. Rice & Co. take tea with us, but was prevented. Arch R. came round with R. Soc. Voluntary & Mrs W. ask him to stay wh. he did.

Went to speaking at Stry in evening Dr M. said lect was was just to bring out the new meaning of the text Heady spoke good piece - but hint if I not knowing I had to read & alone; Dr Chalmers reads my closing text very animated.

Letter from Pa. at N York. can't come out here - says I can't come in the morning - and is going to N. Haven & then Billerick. and Princeton I say God coming him to heaven way of Salvation. I. he dated 10

Wed. Evening 25.

Rose very late not till 1/2 before 7.
Not having heard 1st bill. Raining & cloudy.
Did not much till 11, time slip^d away, not very well used, it is of great importance to know how to value and use time. Dr. M. lecture. Mr. Mitchell read a paper to show an excommunication Dr. he rebaptized; Dr. did not agree to it.
Went down town with Rice, talking on same matter, I thought he was to the Unitⁿ Ch. Ch. same as a leath^r, as he was before joining the Ch. he did not, Church had still its claim on him H. & I think he revoked - a man's membership in the Ch. being his obligation before entering it, and indefeasible when cut.
It seems to me Mitchell is in the right of it. Mrs. Green sent in an apple bunching to Mr. Summell - I saw her one some days since - had made my dinner, but ate it if it was excellent.
Was however not very intellectual for an hour after. Did not a great deal before Dr H. lecture; Read in 4th text selected last issues of 3rd March for this at Leamington Relationship to Science After tea at W.H. Mrs Passon present.

Marched down the street with rain Did rain on I got there, found Mr Rowell & 1/2 dozen others - two flags a little but at length were raised & a young woman, whom I afterwards saw home acc. of rain. Spoke briefly. I am prone to say things when with some persons w^h. touch rather on delicacy - as tonight I spoke of eloquence's language reg. being much loosened, and all shut up - of such things one is very shy Sh^d be very careful: indeed it is hard for me to realize when I am standing in my course of study, and prep^g for preaching the Gospel; and when I aim at soberness am in danger of being somn. Bought a volume of Locke for 1/- tonight. B^d 10 1/2

Thursday 26.

Mr Greedy took tea with us, & Mr Parvin - passed most of the evening down stairs, about 8 Went out to call on Mr Field Who gave me a grand cigar Compared my pleasantly for an hour - showed my ignorance in the meaning of the Law term 'fine' as used in breaking an entail. Mr Parvin slept with me.

Friday 27. After dinner walked down to Mr Werts to pay him change & give him the treasurers receipt for tax, sent a cigar and compared my rationally. Walked on to Bayles obtained a horse for Mrs White to take ride in Wagon just fitted up, Fair done for them studying for debate on independendency of early Churches; debated in evening for the Presb. side, pretty well sant Miller jr in his fathers name asked me to preach Sat. evening consented to do so

Sat. 28 Toward noon stout rain, all day busy reuniting sermon for Sat. morn hard work, not been away from the house since dinner, good fire in my room, going to bed - sermon not completed at 11 1/2 o'clock.

Wednesday Morning.

Sabbath afternoon preached in the evening at Presby. Church. Thought must give up the S. School, since my Sabbaths are already engaged in part for the Soc^y Church, and available to other calls occasionally.

Spent some part of the day in completing my sermon on Luke 11:17 - did not get thro till evening & was not so familiar with Mass. as c^d have wished. Did not, for this cause attend conference. In the morning Prof. Addison Alex^r on Matt 23:23 These ought ye to have done & not leave the other undone; illust.
1 The disregard paid to the body, even its maceration, in cult. the mind & prof.
2 Theme to extol. presented by men on hee^d pious 3. the overrating of some minor matters amongst us. by some; and the other 4 theme of neglecting the same by others.

Fry, rain, Pa. - the sun when ceased raining, and by 9. stars were out - had a tolerable audience; Dr. M. went with me sat in Pulpit & offered the ^{2nd} prayer Some one said spoke not loud enough and rather slow.
Came home & good Mrs White had, on my naming it, a cup of Alt tea made for me wh. we drank together.

On Monday three lectures Dr. A. M. W. attended all Stone came up from Mrs Clark's for my Room very heavy Tuesday - rose $\frac{1}{2}$ past 6: went for mason to set Stone in wh. he is charging 24 cents for bricks & 50 for work - paid him, & good Mrs White afterward went rejoice in it - great & true, & anticipate much comfort from it during the winter, if I live. Dearest & it gone to Bristol no lecture, Mrs. Rice gone to Prof Sylvester's care. Played marbles in afternoon with A. Rice & W. Dod purchasing some. Load of wood to bend. Grapes still abundant - no news from James. Rebecca went to Burton. I had head ache, so had both ladies, when I rose ate no Breakfast, but drank 2 cups Coffee & it passed off. Meeting in morning of Board of Directors 10th month. Studying Paul's Epistles in Act - in ref. to his ordⁿ 13:3; one wh. incline to write for Friday.

Wednesday Night. October 2.

Rose at 6^{1/2} - too late, but I find it very hard to rise early - hence my morning duties are performed with tired heart, and I find daily a want of power in meditation, prayer and Scriptural Study. My time passes away rapidly, and in looking back there seems less, far less, improvement than there should be - I have the general desire to improve in head and heart - but fail in specifically carrying the desire out into completion Others think me studious - but I am conscious of very great defect in the use of my advantages.

This morning the gate was missing, some persons, whose crib was drawn off even down to the settling sewer, had taken it into Neighton Soms yard, whence I brought it with Mr Martins and replaced it. Bought Carlyles Post & Parents today for 25 cents. Wrote only notes on 1 Cor^{no} in part - forenoon looked up I search know how - wrote to R. H. L. for flour tea & coffee for Mrs White.
Mr M. a letter from Caly Ward, says James is with them. Played Marbles at home before supper. After went down to Prager meeting at Deenston; I shall spoke - not so well as usual, had a cold; walked up with, smoked at & walked, D. O. or opened walked up and around the triangle - talking on the Reason in allowed to exist, whether it be prevented by God without violating free agency hardly known wh. to himself. Felt some measure of power the infinite Character of God as a firm prayer tonight - 10 hours to bed, and I hope to rise earlier tomorrow. Read some today in the Hist. of Synod of Dor.

Thursday. October 3.

No lecture this morning Dr. A. gave to New York, son I was installed; read a little in Dr. M. Clerical Manual, & with profit - think it a good book; read 2 chapters Past & Present - some good sentiments and fine passages, tho rather fantastic. Done written my copy for Dr. M. tomorrow on the order of ch. 13: 3.

Wish to look only at the facts in S. S. reading nothing else before writing Dr. H. lectured this afternoon.

We are enjoying the grapes much.
Played marbles an hour 5-10-6, came home found at tea - whole evening in my room, writing & studying in ref. to said order - Now shall I have them to be 10. Shifts improving considerably.

Saturday. Studied at 22 and 40 Balm's till noon recitation of Dr. Hodge - again till about 3 o'clock Walked down to call on Mr. Minto Smoked a cigar - and began me proven to bring away with me.

Thought of going to see Mr. Freeman of the funeral of whose child I had notice at Inverness a few weeks since - but did not go. I wished I had, in this matter of effort I am too backward.
In the evening my dear Bro. Wm came, and May God bring him into his Kingdom, since he has not him here.

Monday Morning. Sat. is Lured I preached in Morning for the African Congⁿ, and in afternoon went to Epis. Ch. A. M. O. S. preached in evening. On sign at M. Church, went with Miss Deanees.

Mission for a week.

Monday Morning Rose at 6 - D. Miller at 11, and D. Hodge at 3 1/2 - in my room nearly the whole day, and evening - 200 on Saturday 2 letters one from Cor. Hattie, and one from Caly. I voted at the State Election, found no difficulty - Whys carried the day in grand style. Cor Hattie letter contain^d 1 dollar - I had loan^d Dana 56 and Prof. S. 35 cents when last there.

Wed. Oct 23 Last day of Millerism - Wrote to Mr Lyles - about St England &c. Called last morning on Dr Miller for Dr Chambers book on the Father.
Speaking of Dr Scotts force of Truth - he offered me a copy, as a present. at 1/6 went to hear Mr White on Elocution - a very odd case, with superabundance of gesture - his remarks are some of them very good & sensible; but very much of the ego. Mrs W. lick - nervous. Miss Sarns sick also - headache.

Yesterday (day before) Mr & Mrs Willis went home no meeting at Queens town.

Thursday 24.

Motioned to go a-bout Bank of flow.

Friday - November 8. 1874.

My 25th birth day passed a week ago - was in Thila when had gone on. ~~Thurs.~~ prev. with ^{the} ~~the~~ Dined at Mrs. Hais on Thursday; took tea on Wed. at Mrs. Trotter's Same afternoon Franklin sent.
On Friday dined with Mr. Backus Was Election day, and order.
Sat. went out to Laurel Hill Mr. W. Mrs. Millets & family riding both cars, rode out in stage and after 2 or 3 hours walked in went to Grand Coll. Gentlemen very polite. Then as all the G's furniture, pictures, dinner set.
Wardrobe &c, thanked him.
Went on top of the building grand view, walked all about - Roof jointed as St.

Peter(?) at Rome, ~~quarrel~~ roofed home after dusk.

Sabb. went to hear Dr. Don-and share in Communion a very choice season to me.
Dined with him, Mrs W. also; went to hear Mr. B. and some one else preached; in evening Mr. Clark at St.
Andrews Ch. Dr. Hawks I expected would be at St. James. On Monday morning early started in Rain for D. arrived at 10 - felt sad Whys had lost Scim. cheered in Comm. R. L. & Lersey - Today broken hearted in news from N. Y. gone for Poller, and the game is now up - hereafter I think my course is with Stal. Americans.

Debate this evening Does all in Conscience in vol. actions - both Kollochs place, to per - said all agree spec. acts of will are Lins - Inset prone Affections are acts of will -

1. Bec. S.E. says let you aff. on things above & presents motions to excite aff. same as to excite spec acts of will.

2. The imp. mot. to excite the aff. in others, just as to excite act of will but to what to mot. apply, unless to will.

3. We are Conscience that aff. are under our control, in same manner that spec. volitions - they differ in degree not in kind, strongly force of habit.

Thus far Lin finds place - these last are generic vol. under wh. lie acts are specific -

Now Back of these there are no dispositions prior to actions

1. Bec. we are Conscience of Nothing of the sort (Review of Fitch)

2 Conscience does not rebuke us for it, wh. might be supposed if we are not consc. of it.

3. S. S. does not address this - but subj of aff. Texas. is heart also Barnaby - Let out to from there is something behind all acts, call habit principle or dispoⁿ as you please - illust. of case of Painter Sworned, then meant to prove there are mor. char. are sinful on one line - but turn ran out.

D^r Hodge 2^d old Lat. Throbs.
Reccations for act. Sin; and Pitfalls for inherent Sin He 2^d if Mind divided into Understand then no need to prove aff. of will must be its acts - not nor under its control directly, only indirectly.

Hansen he did not think any proof were conclusive, for the object is presented only to Dr our the app. wh. does not seem to me to overturn the est aball.

Be then to the popular objections to ex. of diffⁿ back of acts was we are not conscious of such.

But we are not conscious of our souls ex. directly, we are conscious of acts wh. involve that.

So of the social affection or dispr. we are not consc. of this, but learn it fr. the act flowing fr. it of which we are conscious.

In same way we learn the existence of this habitus principle or dispr.

Again all men show they have an intuitive knowl. of these same pr. having words in every language to express this habitus &c.

Again when a man is asleep is there no diffⁿ between him and one whose acts are app. when awake
- that diff. must consist in a state of mind - call^d hab. or dispr. or being next to prove this has a more than 1 from some sinners - Stages from - Cause not returning for it - this is the great Dilemma ground of its rebuke - we feel that we are defiled - something back of acts the heart is all wrong.

2. Opinions of men - when removed
p. Desol. of the - an irascible, & honest.
The mind is such, he will on slight provoc. give way to anger.

3. S. S.

4. This lies at the bottom of several doctrines, orig. Sin wh. is closely connec. with Redemption.

5 To that in my compers. of faith & sin orig. sin intro. this also.

D. H. 5th Line is any thing wh. is the object of D. in disapprobation.

Another diff.? I meant to say was the Tarray in James Kingman when tempted is drawn away of his own lust - broken back by the cord of his 5th fort line.

Another. Is the child before man. act ion under twofold deceptions of himself - 1 imputed guilt of Adam, for wh. this depraved state or diff. is implicated 2 for the poss. of this diff. thus impo?
Another when act is drawn fr. the man asleep or swooned - does it avail any? does the Lord sleep?

Wednesday, Aug 1844.

Broke at 6 1/2 - short season of prayer bef. Breakfast. at 11 I wrote Lect. on 11 Ch. Isa. after dining walked with Jas. to the Hunt room, smoke^d cigar, and bathing a little further out home - Dress went to Prof. Lect. at Ch. of Dr. Alexander. Keuf. and took tea with the two sure friends very pleasant persons. He said it was unmanly to repine and grieve at the loss in Election we had done our part the loss was for ev. beyond our control. Commencing on Epis-copacy he said the argt from the Universal prevalence of that form was the strongest argument he had yet seen put forward - and the S.S. aft mailed was in his view very weak. Mrs F. had just been reading about the earliest Orientals in Elic. time and was much pleased with them, & was astonished at the present ^{us} infl. on them. Came away at 8.

Have a very bad cold in my head.

Friday Nov. 29. 1844

Rose at 6 1/2 hours up before - had Sras. of prayer & saw some wood.
Saw Sharpened. Sem. D. M. 11 on R. Eld. and Ch. counts, a long series of ^{of} about visiting others to sit in them, and to Pulpits - D. M. rather hard in ref^e to some of

To be decided in earnest for the truth and yet charitable in feeling and Expression is by no means easy.
Ground is con. with ice - forewarn of yesterday, trees richly spangled.

Engaged in writing a sermon for Tues. day - a fortnight hence

No news from home; Mrs White still in Phila.

I am inclined to excessive selfness, and from the infl. on James may not be good - drawing fr. serious thought wh. I wish to cultivate in him; O that God wd change his heart now He is diligent in his stud. up early - and c^d have the satisf^g of seeing surrender his powers to the Saviour I sh^d be encouraged. Did not go to debate this evening, walking too slippery.
Sermon progressing slowly - est'd ab. 10 1/2.

Tuesday Dec. 17. 1844

Yesterday did but little studying; making pin board for Dining Room.
Succeeded quite to our own satisfaction.
Mr. Dorr, and the sister Miss M.
Edin expected to ~~study~~ ~~now~~, so all hands are getting ready for them. 12 o'clock have been down to the Defcon, and waited 2 hours and here they now are. I am and it are to 'vacate' pro tem. So study will prove a mercurial quantity for a day or two. Wrote a letter to Bro Henry & enclosed $5 dollars for tea & coffee sent by Mr Reed of college who today breaks up.

Thursday Morning. No studying since Tuesday morning, my time having been taken up in waiting on our visitors, to whom I feel under obligations for their attention to us when in Boston last summer.

and exceedingly pleased with the opportunity to reciprocate visited Long. Library, College Bathground & Green house.
Mr. Field gave Mrs. O. a baggy and undertook to carry it and is gone, to my great regret; Miss Mary C. and John in the church, and at 11 they set out for N. York.

Mr. Patterson called and I have given him $3.16 the amount from S. School Contribution Sept. with Dec. last month, and rose at Leavenworth. Now I am in for the Arian Controversy. At D. Alexander has consented to wait for till Tuesday next.
I find the history board. I find $0.25 for Leavenworth yesterday 50 cts.

Good Cor^d with Snow, tho mild.
Pract last evening at Church in town, clear night, and good audience Attended. Sub^d Law of God & the Love, & proofs of Love; prayer Alexander's requests - felt some & much more my need of Divine aid. To day read Compositⁿ at length on Defects in Public prayer. Have to day a headache and 2 attended dinner, but W. gave me some coffee.
Says she came to wait on me.
Present her for Dennis with Dr Scott's Pres. Observations on N. T. with etc.
He was much delighted. Have written and reading a man Constitution - done in haste but tolerably well. Sat. night a letter from Bro. Henry

January. 23rd 1845.

Last evening spoke at Lunenburg - 'the Drills & the Service', 'what have we to do with these?' is the sp^t of the drills, also of the men of Gadara (who coming out to kill him were frightened, and asked him to go away). also same sp^t is in those who reject him now, what have we then cause - I'm - Rich that the men acted in superstitious fear & a sp^t of opposition by some faint notion that he was Messiah.

Wed. noon I came returned from Belleville having left all well there & at Be.
Luc is with a Com^{me} Merch^t in N. York, but poor fellow gets nothing - Mrs White today lent me $10.00, I have paid out 1.42 to Thompson for Binding &c; to Ryerson 1.75 for myself, and .75^c for her; to Parker 1.00 for self and 1.00 for her - She sent to me for New Year Greetings to send a Bible to Hattie & Luke's Lion; & to Pa Hodgson Rom.
& to call Bibles. I am almost decided to go to S. America - there is a prom-ing field which sh^d be cut? - and why not for me? If I rise ought I not go to some other more desolate place, than where it is? China has been in my mind, and India calls, so too does poor Africa - where Mr Griewold has lately fallen, and y^{et} what has been done for S. American? there reigns Gapey unhindered - less has been done here than for the other places. My prayer is to God that he will guide me as to the path of duty, and after showing it to me, will cause me to walk in it. I draw neither this way nor that.

I begin to feel more my deficiencies for the future calls of labor as a relig. teacher in some doctrines my mind is unsettled, but I can remain no longer in my cradle studying, I must go out and go to work - O my God, my mother's God, be my teacher let me not ever, able ask such Independency has nothing conse--rative I think, and I do not believe it is practicable - the question is then what Congregat^{ion} is conservative enough? and whether it can be without adopting moderate Presby^{terian} in Councils or Review & Control. The Congregational ists have surpassed all others, but it may be from native force of character, and not from their order - and it may be they would have done more if more tightly bound together. In the multitude of Councils there is wisdom and the Ultra course of some Cong. Ch^{urches} in N.Y. shows that some hold back is needed.

The gathering at Ives. may not have been a Synod or Council or Convention as ^{as} ~~as~~ such bodies are now created. but was it not the collected wise men of the churches and to all intents a council of appeal.

Then as to discipline of members is it right to bring cases of scandal & charging adultery before the Brotherhood going up all up about the Woman the past of the Court - are there not very many male members who are unfit to hear such details? Shall any but the French men have the handling of such matters? No I lone Cong.
I think not - Wheelers case in Col. for instance, ought by no means to have come before all the members of the Ch. in the Land.

Dr Miller gave me a broad hint
- but coming late to lecture, which I meant to improve upon hereafter he is a dear good old gentleman when he does a thing, he does it up to the hilt rather prolix y^{et} he is complete; and then so fatherly in his feelings

Monday Aug. 27. 1848.

Yesterday afternoon preached at Quebec to a very good audience on L. Co. 4:4 "God of this world blinded their minds &c", it felt warmed in my subject; did not go out in the morning bec. of a headache, unable to save up my strength. In the evening Prof. A. Alex^r said Rom. 13 "If thou wilt make out of sleep" he is a strong man and it was a Capital discourse (may the Lord add his blessing with it) - Fortunately I have eaten very little having a headache, and being somewhat ill - I believe I have stayed the worst one tenant out. On Friday last I wrote a letter to Pa, another to Miss P.

On Thursd. p^d Thompson 1.62 in full.
Mrs White has for two or three days been unwell, but this morn letter. I feel the need of sp^t aid in preaching the Gosp. without this as the motive power, it is all headwork and hence hard work - and here fort^{ly} is the trouble with many Minist^{rs}, a text must be hunted up, and he must study to see what can be said on it. Now either he sh^d so study the Bible that texts will be ever on his lips suggesting Subjects, or else take the place of choosing a text to bring in the sub^t on wh. his mind is dwelling.
Another week begins I for more spiritualiz^g, punctualiz^g & dilig^g thro^o the whole of it. I humbly

Tuesday. Aug 28. 1845.

Rose etc - after prayer, read D^r Hodge on Abolition, it would be hard to answer his positions; very like our American slavery has prejudiced many minds against every thing of the name.

The difficulty is how does a become the slave of B, unless volens allowing man may hold property in man 'till to his nature B's grandfather was stolen of a Spaniard 50 yrs ago. A grandf. bought - B. did not belong to Spaniard, hence did he to A's grandf.? or did B's father belong to A's father? or does B belong to a. The analogy of landed property does not satisfy me yet.

Went down to see Mr Mason sick man, took Raspb^r, coff. & sugar poor man with his little child about him, and he unable to do any thing; he said he had felt as if in a little pa--dire, having scholars enough to support him & family about him till his affliction came; y^t he was quite cheerful, no repining not a word.

Friday Morning I have been reading D. Hodge on Romanism - on Atonement a cogent article, he insists that while a display of Divine Love is one object of Socinians, and a display of rectoral justice is another of the French Theol. and N. School, y^t the object first and foremost was to sal--isfy God himself in regard to in-dic-tory deserts, apart from all Creatures; to make peace with Him alone, separate from Him as the ruler of a Mon. Universe At the end of the article he descends to some personalities w^h. can't be said to impair it. He is severe upon D. B. as unrefere-encing either in ignorance or design, wh. he declines determining. I have just completed a letter to Mrs B. Silliman to whom I have written for some time

I am far from having myself under good control; and grow more instead of less inassible - I have not yet learned the lesson of X. to be kind on all occasions; for strength to deny myself, keep my own heart under, and thus not the pride or Contempt of others, but the Gospel be-milif- bec. thus my Saviour did, & has bid me do. I am desirous to know what is the faith of the Gospel, & experience The gr^{ts} & vices which is the object of saving faith. Now in the enumeration of Hb. 11 some pleased God & w^d seem of their faith, wh. did not look to Christ but was a confid. in Gods promise as in Case of Rahab. in that case saving faith w^d seem to be wth obedience wh. however seems only another scheme of works - only an imperfect com-pliance is put in place of perfect.
D^r Alex. yesterday began to Lecture on Pelagianism. A map of the world from home, miss map, hav-ing written opp. Valparaiso 'go' in man's hand - my mind becomes more & more inclined to go thither and God will I hope guide me in my decision. Mrs W. & Mr May will say she can't help wishing me to stay, where she can come and see me, she shall be left all alone.

He almost wishes she had never seen me; she shall feel it more than any of my friends and relatives.

Wednesday. February 12. 1845.

Rose at 6 1/2 - prayer before breakfast this is not early enough, and yet so little resolution to rise, I am put to me to shame of his parlor house.
Chopp' some wood after Bfast - as my dull; put to more strength. My health & I am is very good, and he quite studious. Letter last night from Mr Bayn-ton with a compl. copy of my school boy paper of wh. I have agreed to make a revision, and in a month, I w^d send any increase of duties, but cannot refuse my aid whateven it may be towards perpetuating Hales memory.

Let fall my Lat. Lexicon, cost one shilling to get mended. Can to day in some cassimere st.

Ans W. looks for me in Trenton on Saturday - to have pants cut. In evening. 7th 18th Carpenter Ret only to prove Puseyism same as Ham--mondianism of Germany. (?)

Let a p. Dr Wood only 10 dollars for Lanes. Wrote day or two since to Dr Bingham, enclosing 5.00 dolls for Am. Bib. Soc., enclosing a book Valpa-raiso, not yet heard fr. him.

After. lect. fr. Dr Hodge on Rom 11. Evening went to Trenton & Spoke fr Ora 40:2. Day rather mild snow melting fast, has been sleeping for 5 days.

Friday Evening: Feb. 14. 1845.

Mrs. St. C. - has made me get up Prayer. Then sat down - to write in the dialogue - breakfast rather than usual, did not accomplish much. Sat. Day, nothing done.

Saturday - Dr. A. Lect^d on Pelagianism
The passage Deberis. how often do we I was seized by Hamilton and Brainerd of Lyons, and his - but in truth he was fairly by the throat from our own reasoning about the inf. God, as it seemed to me
- wh. it could depend on much. it is a hard passage for a strict Calvinist; & the Cal. ex^{ts} of that doctrine, prone Supralapsarian.
Mr. Chamberlain read about the Preaching of Finney & Burleigh and how Champ of heat very change of purpose.

Bought & paid for Whately's Lect. on Rearing, Miss Emily King & Miss Sol. & Miss French & Mr Batterson, who came after tea; Miss K. very lively, much to say about Bro. Gibbons, said being greatly pleased to evening - walked home with Miss Solomon, who is quite agreeable. Miss K. said in R. from Euse. & Presb. were real matters of caste, and came to great extremes; there is a seeming narrowness among Presbns. but it may be rather the Evangel. Spirit, running to an extreme, wh. it not properly reaches - and sh^d be carefully avoided, in order and end are lost finally. Bro Shurt come home today; Auto out out.

I feel a great defect of motion power here in seeing in the intermed. state, no duties marked out to my hand as heretofore; I want of the calls of a people to address in real life - all is idyllic--ial; and I can not how soon the cradle of instruction is reeching for attempts to walk, a few falls in walking w^d be more useful than lying in this supine condition.

Feb. 11th Monday, Mary. On Saturday, Rose at 6 1/2 - I draw a curtain - this late rising every day, and yet in weakness do no better, can't take up by 5 at least and have a couple hours study before breakfast. Dr Hodge sent me an invitation to preach in Dr. A. Sale. night, but I could notice, and an invitation wh. I greatly regretted. Went down in aft. of Sat. read to our Mission for an hour or more. Read septs of 119 Psalm - a delightful book. the val. of wh. I had not known - till then - it is practically deaf. On Friday aft. called on Mr. Patterson to carry the petition to Legis. wh. had taken to Dr Alex. Hodge & Dr of Addison regarding historical records had a long talk on Calvinism he hold Election to the Church, that is to its exalt privileges, but the ground can not be maintained makes Elec. consist in that alone - still Calvin. wh. is thorough seems to leave no room for man's own

Agency - that is nothing of himself - wh. however may be the only truth man left to self will never do anything - there is a hard punk head. Had delightful interview with Dr Alex. ask where was going when thro. told about Valparaiso. tho' worth of it 1000 dollars not enough he was very kind & more indeed inquiry about Mr. Batt. was glad she in his views about nature of at. agreed with piece in Rep. 2^d that was most useful point - glad they had got him here. for; Miss S. have their own mode of worship; Dr Hodge too, was very kind, ask about Emmet's Dr B. theory was not consistent in not having something like

I w^d do with many of^r.

Mon. evening July 17. 1845.

Did not rise till near 6 1/2 After Jack grappled up the water bucket from well, where one dropp^d in on Sat. night - threw lights of room down by small mirror & threw whole bottom, & bucked on it.

Last week Friday, for first time in my life came a valentine for me fr. Newark double postage!
Wh. did not delight me much the contents not being very valuable to say the least. Callow at not being able to accept his invitation to fr. on Sat. night. Smoked a pipe in Mc Chaters - Went to Hodge came in & said Mr. Why Dr. Alere. so many graceless sons! H. says and has been notorious for failing as a father, and here is the secret of numerous like cases, nihil est perfectum.

He said too that Ann had began to study

Lebanon in Ct. Nov 26.

This day was decently interred the Body of the Rev^d Mr John Robinson who, after about a fortnight's illness of the Diabates, deceased on the 14th instant Aet. 74.

He was born in Dorchester and educated at Harvard College in Cambridg^e. At his first setting out in the Evangelical Ministry he was sent to preach the Gospel at Newcastle in Pennsylvania (?) from whence after some time he returned to his native country and in the year 1700 was ordained to the pastoral office over the Church of Christ in Duxbury, where he con-tinued till the year 1739; When by reason of bodily weakness and some difficulties arising on acc of a Civil Contract betw. him and his people he was dismissed from his Past. relation to them by a Council of the neighboring Churches with a fair recommendation. After wh. he removed with the remainder of his family to Leb. where he had several of his Children comfortably and creditably settled; Among whom he spent the remainder of his days. He was a learned and sound Divine laborious & faithful in his Master's vineyard. In Civil life he was just generous of a cheerful disposition and a faithful friend. His funeral Sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Sol^o Williams of Leb. Jan 4th 1749

Attended prayer at seven. This afternoon, Prof Addison; and it was gratified & edified. his prayer was short, terse & to the point. Some effort is to be made to get Dr Baird to come and lecture on Condⁿ of Europe, Com. appointed Sabbath. tea as I as I walked down to Mr Masons with Lyon & I came here for Mrs White, they urged us to stay, but we could not as too late. Went over to carry Mrs W. bond for 50,000 dolls to our friend - and called on Miss King, prof. Henry came in and we stand till 10. he puts no reliance on Am. Mag. farther than her self, wh. caused to some extent the Subjects own imagination. S^r G. D. Wall late paralysis, was in New York - friend advised to go to some German Dr, who laid manipulated about his head began to make motions down his Arm, just as he began to feel Sleepy, and in 10 minutes he fell in the sick Arm the tingling as when an is 3^d to be asleep, and had been better ever since - Dr Henry 3^d - his going proved him what all opposed to the operation and when he felt Sleepy he was more favorable, and his image was more aroused - that the nerves running fr. the surface inward, of touch, conveying matters to senso-rium, and thence fr. Brain outward conveying motions of the will were thus both sets wrought upon and so the effect produced - wh seemed as suff' caused & Philos. asked for no more recandite.

C³ not well leaved while he was as he came in a stranger & distressed - he is a very pleasant and highly instructive man.

Coming home so late - all had retired hence no family prayer wh. is an undeniable omission.
I receive no letter yet fr. Dr. Ryland of Brit. Soc in Aus. to which regards remain.

Wed. Feb 19. Mr David here to tea, with Mr. N. to Episc. Ch. and ret^d afterwards staid till thurs, and interested Mr. N. very much by telling his history and of the prejudices of his nation - he says his parents have cast him off, consider him as dead.

Not having been very well did not go to Lancaster. No much headache, but the cause still about me. afraid must medicate, but will sick a little longer.
No letter of D. Brigham - am afraid Miss ans. to one fr. Mra. regarding S. Am. My mind is solely perverted on this subject - It seems as tho' a field was opened there, and in some respects as tho. I am stood to write and tell it - and I certainly need to wait patiently for God to give it the increase among either the Sceptical Eng. & Am^s. or among the Superstitious Catholics.

Divine Grace guide me in thy Wonderful mercy. wh. has always renewed my slipping feet from the path of danger and sin.

Got all day some weariness.

Evening called on Mrs Taylor with James, very pleasant visit -

Enjoyed a game of cards containing select passages fr. Shakespeare - the most instructive I have ever yet met with. Chopping splitting and blowing some tough logs.

1845 Ship Mississippi

Sabb. Aug. 17th. Very fast at sea; and being sick a heavy dull day - nothing to say to others & wishing to have nothing s^d to me. No discord--tent harmonies, nor despondency

Sabb. Aug 24th.

This time was able to preach to passengers & crew on deck Matt.
6:33. May it do good to some In evening Mr Whit took my arm & said he had expected this Sabb. destination w^d be his greatest troubles while away - but he had enjoyed the day much, seems a good man.

Sabbath Aug. 31. 1845.

Thos felt unworth still preach and the exertion did me good Eph 2:12 'without God. Audience attentive.
Mr Carter hears seriously, & that he might bec. a den. now on the brink. During the week the Bos-told me he had been serious for some time, had been very wicked not in a ch. for 10 years till short time ago had join'd temp.
soc. and then went; pointed to Jesus the atoning Saviour & promised to lean him Right.
May he find the cross; and O may I be guided how to move among these men. None seem serious among Passengers.

Sabbath Sept 7. 1845.

Rose about 7 had a good season of Prayer. Preach^d at 10 1/2 Luke 11:13 Gods readiness to give his S^ps felt. warm and my mouth open^d some, spoke plainly - and O my heavenly Father grant profitably.
After dinner had a talk with a seaman named Chas. White, an Englishman. S^p had been very wicked lic. drunkard & swearer, since he left Balt. wish^d to bec. religious had been a disgrace to his parents away since 8 years old. Was read; Baxters Call - pointed to an atoning Saviour as source of hope & H. S^ps as the power wh. w^d convert him: May the Lord if he have begun with him carry him onwards. I told

I sh^d. pray for him & he smelt at me any question he might wish I w^d try to ans. it - s^d what set him to think was Ready tract Lack Halyard & Tom Bowline (?) sh^d. was just his Case.

Talk^d too with Carpenter, he did not feel he was much of a sinner - had wrong no one; I told him he had wrong^d God & he own^d he had sworn & broken Sabb. this s^d I is enough. Bish. he ask^d if a man w^d be as much punish^d as if had broken whole; and perhaps not. He s^d he did not mean to say he was not a sinner, but not so bad as some - told him he had need of pardon and how he s^d procure it.

Then saw a Seaman George McDonald, reading - went up to him & was a tract Lack Haly^d.

Sitting on barrel of lime s^d & 'have a favor to ask of you'
'W^d be glad to hear it Sir'
'That you w^d think of the next word'
'W^d Sir I do sometimes'

'Where are you from?' Bangs Maine, Sir, was born in Roselburg near Boston.
Wishing him to be a Rev. he s^d it w^d be a great work for so bad a man as he to be a real Rev.
I told him he c^d not do it alone but that God promises to give his Spirit to those who ask, and help of him he w^d be able. I say him to pray; he is I doubt not a wicked man, but he rec^d all I said very kindly.
Ask if I did not think some peop. were so bad c^d not be.
Thus if they tried - told him there were none who could without the H. Spt., and with his aid

All could - & may the Almighty God crown my intercourse with these persons with his abounding blessing & convert these souls.

I am inclined to feel rather harshly toward Mr. Thorne bec. of his absence from relig. exercises; but O what was I once but a stout rebel ag^t God, let me learn to be forbearing, though still decided with such persons.

Read some of Galland's Childs B. of Rep. Good so far.

Bro^r has read Dodd. Says it dents his Case & he wants me to sell it to him; told him I w^d give it to him when leaving the ship.

Wed. Oct. 8. 1845.

Night before last conversed with Mr Thomson; I said, wish^d. not as a censor but as a friend to speak to him;
-that thought him too careless about relig. He s^d he was less so than I might suppose. Both s^d I you are not as careful as you sh^d be; No I am not perfect even is any one. Well true but some are more so, and sh^d least try - beside they rely on the merits of x. He was very civil tho' all tho I spoke plainly; at last he s^d it required much reflection &c. So s^d I the sooner

The Sages. His heart is set on the pleasures of this world and afterwards he means, or hopes to secure Heaven also. God gives me wisdom and strength to be faithful I begin to be afraid about the Bo^m that he is deceived: & if so it will put me on my guard, for the future. I have had no partic. course of l^s. in mind this day; much as I have approved the practice I have never adopted it. Since coming on board I have spoken about their souls to Mr Mc Cotten, Addison, Crosby, Gibson & his wife, Carleton & Thomas and to Bo^m. Chas. White, Ed. Sudah bay, Geo. McDonald, John McPhail a ~~l^r~~, & ~~l^r~~ ~~l^r~~ & D. Jerrap and to Mr Ascal 2^d Mate & Carpenter

Still I find not my work yet accepted of God - tho' civilly rec^d yet my evening seams neglected. O my father Come & show thy Arm bare to Conquer & Save Souls.
I feel afraid I shall be slothful & procrastinating in the Ministry: May the Lord strengthen me to constant watching action.

Mon. Oct. 22. 1845.

Yest. had a Gale of Wind: and daring it ask Am I ready: / God sh^d call me, to die? And tho' I felt no danger of it, yet shone to realize it.
I will try to look none at my last hours and the endless hours beyond it; to commune with Death.
Some one tells me that it has been intimated that I tell the Cap. what I hear the passengers say: just time I have been so

Chas. Lathrop - if ever beyond. However I have not deserved the charge I think.
On one occasion I asked him if he heard a remark made at the table by Mr W., as I did, which I thought was lewd, and wished to know how others regarded it. Yet the fact shall put me on my guard not to speak of others faults behind their backs, where there is no good object to be gained by it.
For when there, it is best to be silent. The old Eng. Bp. is? I am resolved not to speak of a man's faults behind his back; nor of his praise before his face."

There is much truth in what Shak. says "Familiarity breeds contempt". If a man is infl. men for good he must not be too familiar with them to a worse extreme than stunness & reserve. And here is an error with me, I am too free with men about me; so that they see in me the Companion rather than the Minister.
I will not render myself cheap any more, or will try not to. In reading Ep. to Heb. I understand it better than I ever did before.

Tuesd. Oct. 28. 1845.

Have begun to study and write on Ep. Heb. in order to bring my views of it to a more fixed form - to see what of it I do and what I do not understand, have to day been Engaged on this Ch: O my Father on high teach me to understand these sacred writings. Have been reading Allison, and the more I read of him the less I esteem Napoleon.

There is more bad feeling among the passengers than I w^d be pleased to see: C. is very sulky for some reason; and says little to any body - I get only mono-syllables; what is the matter I know not, but am not aware of having done or said anything myself. Very few remarks are made by others, but I have nothing to say.
I was sorry to hear Mr Bartow saying something - he and I ought not to expose any faults we may perceive. I hope pres-ent state of things will improve

My heart is pained to see the indifference to religion among those on board. The Captain and I hear is generally respectful to religion; but there is much worldliness, and the eschday is put far off: O if I might see fruit of Gods Spirit moving on these minds; and might hear the ^{g^d} for the way of Pardon - What pleas. it w^d afford me. The Bro^u who seemed serious I know not what to say to him; he has, since Compelled, come out and gone to work hard - So I fear he was deceiving the Capt.
Chas. says his bad habit of profanity hangs on: I fear for him, but O God cleanse him not.
I have some desires to see my Bros. enter the family of God that they ~~se~~ may be saved & that they may be the means of bringing the truth to others.

Frid. Oct. 31. 1845.

Ship Wife. My 26th birth day is near at hand; a year since ^{little} I did think I should spend it here - but reviewing past life I hope I can see God leading me for good. There is an under current of self conceit, in me; and I feel at times as if my efforts in the world were to be effectual, and this so much that I seldom think there is a probability of death for a long while. Now I hope God has given me talents for preaching the Gospel indeed from experience I am sure he has: but O may I not become proud of it - nor fall into a foolish and unbridled self confidence - nor into a habit of indolence on natural capacities. Surely a man should judge as candidly of his faculties as he can, neither under nor overrate.

To day the Captain asks me "Why Mr B. looks so cross at him" says "he has heard that Mr D. & he w^d not speak to Cap till Cap. did to him: that he had joined with Mr Thomas in talking &c. After Mr B. ask me "What ails our Capt.?" I^d he asked me the same qⁿ about Mr B. Cap. said he had given no cause w^h he knew of I^d he had looked very green & perhaps that was the cause; and besides that the Stone not being put up had given dissatisfaction from remarks I had heard made. Mr B. s^d he had given no cause so far as he knew. There is a p^rof- Coolness grown up from mere imaginary causes, or in great part. I saw the same things; but having given no cause ^{del^d} to wait, the issue, spoke to Cap. when I met him - and have had no diffie. grow up, for he says he was unwell and did ^{not} feel like saying anything to any body. I wish to say nothing and to know nothing in all this & such like matters - nor to take any sides: but when my opinion is asked to give it with kindness and candor.

Very many remarks are made in my hearing by pers. regarding C. I wish not to hear them, but can't avoid it.
But this w^d learn and note down that when I find a person who to me, or before me to others, speaks needlessly of another; I may be sure he can't be confided in but will do the same thing behind my back too.

A dog that will fetch will carry.

Sat. November 1. 1845.

Another birth day comes round now I am 26 years old; the time so long look'd forward to, when thro my prep^d studies I sh^d enter on lifes active duties. I think my feelings are grateful to Him who has so far led me and kept me - that I have been guided to life of study then to religious study and a ministerial life. I am often reminded of the defective manner in which I have pursued my studies with such superior advantages.
For tho I have not gone thro them profitless, nor have wasted them entirely - still take to myself shame in view of the little I have learn'd compared with what there was to learn & what was within my reach But it is not too late now and the framing the fut. will bound resemble the past, I am determi^d to make this first grad of my professional life one of more mental and spiritual activity than any before it. And O My God whom I serve strengthen me thus to do. All this day I have suff^d intensely from a headache, but towards night it slackens and goes off.

The Capt. says his matter with me is now all smoothed over; and says so with an honest man's satisfaction. It does not think he was to blame in the affair, much if any at all. And in winding the matter up, he has certainly acquitted himself like a Jew. The other person 'Darius' having said anything behind his back how he c^d say so I see not; and am sure others must think as I do - and they have not scrupled to say so: I certainly heard him brag to Mr Thorne something he had uttered about life on Ship-board, in which most unhandsome as well as Un--Christian things were made at the Captain; of this I have said.

Nothing to C. but I cannot confide in the other man, after all that has occurred. O how careful the Gen^l sh^d be to keep his Character without a blemish, perfectly spotless; how can he wither the breastplate of right? So battle for his honor among Sinner.

The Capt. tells me that he hears no one on board speak other than will of me; that I have gained the Confid. and respect of all: if he is not mistaken I thank for it - and hope he will help me hereafter to be a faithful Rev. and let men see that I believe & practice what I say.

And O my Father may I enjoy the privilege of winning souls, or some soul to Christ.

Sabbath. Nov 2. 1845.

Slight headache again; yet I preached in the Cabin, and had very good attention. Captain said I had given them a good discourse; that it touched him and he felt it. Was on doing good Luk 4:17 'He that knoweth to do good & doeth it not to him it is sin'.

Afterwards my head ached worse than ever; during P.M. Suffered a good deal, lay down but could not sleep much. Passed evening with Captain sitting at his St. room door, and very pleasantly; tho, my pain continued. He advised soaking feet and glass of Remonade which ye Steward hot me & in a time, thanking God for the mercies which lined my path.

Mon. Nov 3. 1845.

I did not rise till noon: took breakfast in bed; Capt. sent me some of his ginger & steward made piece of toast How good my God is in providing me with friends: And let me not think it is bec. of my kindness and snail to others - but remember my friends are generally Gods friends and also my kindness &c are chiefly owing to His gracious sway over my mind. The lines thus far have indeed fallen to me in my pleasant places - and I have met with but little to irritate me; tho rising feeling reminds me at times that the times is there and one needs a spark to make it burn.

Have written to day a letter to Staf Asham, which I hope will please her & my dear sister.

Shot a day or two since of an occurrence several years ago 1834 when living with Mr R. in Newark, 2^d time, boarded with a widow Mrs. Johnson in Mulberry St; with Bro. Johns, a Mr Clark and some one else whose names I forget. And we used to pick up tying the ladies out and then lay cards in parlor - and o deoacus!

I was willing to act so meanly to a pious woman who was by necessity compelled to take boarders; & how ashamed I feel in coming to it - yet I do so in order to see what I was before conversion. And one night in particular Mrs L. came into the room, having no doubt mustered all her Ren-frews, and seeing the cards made sign as if she w^d throw them into fire wh. she however did not do - & if some such things in my life had never been done what painful thoughts I sh^d now be saved. I hope these falling sins are pardoned but their baseness is indelible May they lead me to pity others who neglect religion, and to watch my own feelings in their recklessness.

The vices of Heathen stand in the way of their beco^d. Christians - In Christian lands, there have less open influence; but the pursuits of civilized life, take an equally engrossing hold on the important mind - Wealth, dress & honor: So that among the Savage and Civil religion has to do hard battle, ~~and~~ the latter, if anything, harder.

Capt. has not matter to a conclusion; to day Mr. Hovey had a long talk with him, & swore he had been some wrong.
On 7. 5^o some threw out that Mr Munkell, had made report to C. of what passed; but that he did not believe it. Cap. answered that I was not a carrier; that I did not take sides, but wished all well & to do all good. Mr. J. s^d he that I was really a gentleman.

I had s^d to C. that Mr. J. had always been very civil to me, and this he told him - Since he has been very civil and attentive: would that I c^d lead him to ways of piety.
But he is not a man in whom I c^d confide; in regard to others he is at times two-faced, and this makes me doubtful.

I would not be suspicious & cynical in my judg^t of men but yet I am bound to see things as they, if I can, are. The error consists in being uncandid; now a man needs to be candid that he may neither overrate any more than underrate the goodness of Chas. of those about him. It may be pleasing & romantic to think very well of our neighbors; and if there be good basis for a good opinion who can fail to rejoice? But if there be not, why under a false Sympathy, flatter and deceive ourselves?

One of the highest and noblest traits, as well as most rare, among men is that of Candor joined with kind feeling; Candor in Opinion, Candor in Expression. To think of men without prejudice, and a hard occasion calls for to tell them my opinion of their character and conduct - is difficult; requires many an effort. But I mean to try for it.

Thursday. Nov 6. 1845.

Friday November 7. 1845

This P.M found in my room a parcel cont^s Raisins which the Captain had placed there, it was very kind in him, likewise a day or two since he sent there some almonds - with nut crackers.
Since others have done what they have of late all his confidence seems to turn to me, and I receive if anything more attention than before.
I have need to be on my guard, and not to fall now into the same error I have striven to avoid hitherto

- of conversing too freely even in the semi in regard to the conduct of those about me. The only safe way is to act as under the Divine Eye.
Mr B. began speaking on the subject to me to day; that there was he should have very little to do with, after landing or before the end of the voyage; that things had been reported for more than they were;
that a paper he had 'read to Thomas' was told of as something to be published, when it was only a little criticism in a journal - the same ungenerous thing that he read near my door, I presumed.
To all this I had but little to reply - further than that things had been said which were out of place.

and it. I was sorry to hear.
The fact is he has been thinking on the outside of his head; and has thus got into trouble - but got unwilling to own all up and thus come out of it, and disposed to cast the blame any where else but where it belongs on his own indiscretion.

By taking the course I have, indirectly the respect of all has been gained; and they rather look on me as an impartial person. Cap. says something about making some acknowledgment from all hands when we go ashore: What I know not, but judges a Complimentary letter, or something of that sort. Anything else I should doubt the propriety of accepting, and think he does not mean it.

Now in the ship there are two parties; these young men, who are rather scorned - and one party, and they call the others the Aristocracy. Now, as C. suggests that he and I sh^d do, I mean to be courteous towards all but riding with none. In Peter Lesly I had a pure minded, disinterested friend with whom I felt intimate; more so than with any other man in all my life. At College I knew George Bushnell better than any other man there. A man must not have many intimates; and no one to whom he imparts any thing. He cannot be too open--breasted in intercourse with his God, and himself: but may rarely be with his fellow men.

Wrote some part of a letter to my dear father; my heart is often at home with him.

I do not feel so much indebted to her as I think perhaps I ought.
She has been very kind to me, tho still I cannot feel that she has done for me more than I have done for her. Not that there is pecuniary obligation on my part: but she did and I think does love me, & that almost doting. And as God raised her up to assist me in my course of study; so as far as my power will allow it shall be my effort to assist and comfort her, as his servant.
There is a selfishness, or a leaning

There is a selflessness, or a leaning Towards it at times in thinking of her. Wish not to feel bound to pay her much attention, as not much indebted. Second again to pay her a great deal & be assiduous in it; in order to keep her favor, and to win more, with an eye to future advantage. There are mean suggestions, & which neither ought to be nor should be harbored in my mind. It shall not be with me a matter of profit & loss, but of Christian friendship; God help me to be pure & not selfish. ~~Christ~~ ~~Christ~~ ~~Christ~~ or, if empty, of clear bile - sixth improved feeling and perspiration.

After if kind & easy down some degree of Constipation ensues.

There is also a disposition to hicoughs when cranked begins, & belching.

The day was rather a dull one throughout, read little thought little said little - and making my own bed time in, prayed afternoon and went to sleep soon.

During the night I dreamed; in comp^y
- with some friends, and that I made proposals of marriage to Miss , who seemed more handsome and pleasing than ever; and, vain even in my dreams, that she accepted my advances.

And then asking my future course, when I spoke of Valparaiso, replied 'well I have nothing to bid me here'.
At this moment we were sitting at table with other friends in St. Paul, she on one side & on the other, and our conversation no secret; in answer to that I cried 'Ah you're worth a dollar'. On which she modestly and pleasantly blushed.
Now that I am awake I am inclined to smile at my gallantry and judgment both; for having mentioned such an ignorable estimate to a lady of such commonness, refinement and worth.
Whom I have long thought would prove a real prize to any one who was in Circumstances to offer her his hand, and favored with her acceptance. Tho so far as memory serves, I incline to think it was said unpleasantly, merely to show that her self denial was appre-ciated - and not to define her value. However the impression of the dream is not to make me think less of her; her appearance had all that is winning in mo-desty, charming in simplicity, and refining in purity. It is strange how thus in sleep the fragmentary dreams of day, take life like form and seem to be realities.

The truth is while I admired many ladies, and often have found pleasure in their society; and even had the idea cross my mind, nay more dwelt in my mind at times, of a connection with them. Yet I know not that I have ever truly loved one; indeed I am sure I never have, if the idea of love be a true one - that the parties feel they cannot be happy, or as happy in any other union. Now I have never seen a "brogyst" union with whom I have that necessary to my highest happiness: And tho' there have been two in reference to whom I have entertained such thoughts - yet having never made advances to them, when precluded all that of the kind one, long since by marriage & another since by ill health I found no exception of feeling what I was. Nothing which could not be assuaged by the days They are as good fish in the sea as our men caught. Hence I conclude I have never loved. Nothing to time should be rejoiced I have always felt I must form no such engagements till my port in life was more certain; and hence no steps have been taken wh. might have increased such sentiments or ripened into something more permanent.

interest has always seemed to have so much share in my thoughts on the subject; and to allay such emotion so soon that I think they c^d not be plants, from the seed of true love.
Nor do I believe I c^d love, unless long acquainted, and finding qualities of fine worth; and then I should have ground to hope life w^d only go to increase ⁺ attach⁺.
This love at first sight I conceive to be a sort of Ro-mantic nonsense.

Tuesd. Nov. 18. 1845.

Captain Hawey came to my State room this morning and I read to him my letter of instructions from Com. of Hon. Ev. Society: which speaks of my going to other ports after gaining a knowl. of language, to see how things are and what can be done in one way and another.

He then again urged the usefulness of such a trip and renewed his former kind and Christian offers of passage free in his Ship, as a friend with him, and offered all his influence in making acquaintances.

Now there is but one thing in the way, and that is I have not yet a knowl. of the Language sufficient for speaking in it, and so c^d not expect to do much good. However much infor-mation might still be gained and the Co-operation of persons in diff^t places. I replied as have formed that I would be pleased to accompany him, if I sh^d on arrival and consultation with Mr S. N. see it to be the path of duty

It w^d be very pleasant to see the cities and towns along the Coast: and besides I could gather materials for letters home and thus be able to send something to my dear old father; which w^d be my pleasure and my duty. Since no Son can be, if he would, absolved from the Claims of his parents to a necessary meas. of aid and comfortable support.
If they are alone and in needless poverty he cannot leave them unsupported for, even to

Can the Gospel or in any Series of God it appears from what Jesus says - "If a man say to his father it is ^{his} ^{will} ^{that} that is a Sac. gift". My parents are not so but still, far from independent; and so I feel bound to render them additional aid if God will put it in my power.

I am often surprised on board the ship to see how little of the politeness of principles some persons have, of whom better things may be expected, and who think se gentlemen. And in regard to the only female on board, the miller's wife. A inoffensive modest person; & tis wonderful how men who have mothers and wives can sit round a stove, and make no room for her when she comes up: or sit by her and never address one word of engaging or complimentary to her.

I think how w^d they like, or what w^d they say, if she were a relative of se and saw her treated so of others. True politeness

-Ness calls on a man to treat with attention to her feelings and wants any woman who behaves well.

Let this be another lesson for me.

This morning at breakfast Mrs. B. when Corn bread was handed to him twice broke off the upper crust of the cake and left the soft soddier part for others.

I could not but think less of the man for being so selfish - Another lesson, I need

At this how it makes no difference in his feelings that he ate the sweet crisp crust: but O how much in my estimate of him.

Our sensual gratifications are for a moment, and all is over; their moral influence on ourselves and on others, if we did wrong in procuring them, remain long after.

I am not without need of this caution, the rising of self on such occasions and from such causes I have myself felt - and, I am ashamed to say it, have guilted them.

Friday. November 21. 1845.

Off Cape Horn 200 miles N.E.

Here have we been now two weeks lacking less than a day. Wind with West in it all the time; and one or two severe protracted Gales.
True height of the largest blow yet seen ~~was~~ from the bottoms of the trough about the door of the Knoll in Col. back of the house; if any thing less. Names may then be called Hills Hilly; Mountains only by hyperbole. Capt. says there about as large as are ever seen here. 2^d Mate says so too; but not quite so large as of Cape G. Hope.

The voyage is long; but when we come to be served by the winds & waves we must take them in their own way. And tho' I use to go onward and reach my field of labor; yet I hope God's will is mine. Which in such circumstances of comfort is no great thing of acquiescence.

I have tried to ask myself in the storm, as to my readiness to sink into death.

I find difficulty in assuming First in realizing danger or liability; Second in getting clear of a sort of recklessness; which I can often see in past life in other things. Thus from a presumption of safety which all are prone to, and hence too dangerous. But I do think I can lie down, and rest on the suff's interceding help of the Savior; and do so with confidence. Still the sense of deficiency upon deficiency; lack of Love Lack of Obedience presses on, men & whisper distrust of my faith-not of the object, but of the prominence of the act.

Saturday Morning Nov 22. 1845.

I have of late seen more clearly how natural religious works in truth revealed, instead of being opposed to each other - as is often thought. And the errors held by men who leave out the at. are rather those of omission and error, than of assertion. They say they begin with God as a Father of his Creations: and that others begin with him as a Sovereign - meaning it w^d seem an arbitrary disposed. Neither is, I conceive, correct w^t to natural or moral truth; for in both God appears as the beneficent Sovereign in his provisions; and at some time events occur which must be accounted for in view of some additional Character - which is that of a Ruler.

My main difficulty with the Conf. of faith is that it sets out ~~not~~ as I think the Bible does not - with a Chapter on degrees of God. wh., whether true or no, seemed rather resting on arguments drawn from our ideas of what God must be, and how act as the infinite being - than on the plain declar. of S.S. And the doctrines of grace when built on this basis are not so secure as if we start with man's sinful & perverted Dispoⁿ, as to S.S. and Expiation - and see how from that he does or can enter the favouring of God as a Son.

Some Men have said the power of H. Spirit in Conver-sion, means the power of the truth he has revealed.

Now this is clearly true, I think, so far as it goes; the using of ^a homener is, is this all it means? No there is, giving S. S. lang. its ordinary force, another & immediate influence. The Execution of which is neither absurd nor impossible as the fact, admitted, of a past suc-cession shews plain. That an-nued. infl. must there have been excited on the minds of the men inspired cannot be denied: and if that was then one of the same agents now. Can for the same, or for a diff^t and consequent purpose, Excite his influence still to enforce that already vocalized truth.

It is today evening. I am so easily irritated in Conversation, not when in myt worsted; but when sitting with this ignorance in those I am talking with. Now at 12 o'clock Thomas was speaking of the bankrupt Law, in no measured terms; and I felt the rising of disgust at his unaffected positiveness or dogmatism. Tho' he did not see anything marvellous.
Still my tone was rather stern. and I must be guarded, or after all ignorance, prejudice and assumption are mixed up in large measures in the mass of this world; and as a general thing a kind, not crushing, but kind respectfulness and temper is most in place, and will do most good.

I must lay aside the idea of making every body act to^{ds} me just as they ought; but feel that do as they will I am not to surrender, nor abandon, not decided, yet.

Not to be still and hear anything and every thing said at all times; but to give blows very seldom then like judicious, trained they will be more prized: and to give them not in asserting my own rights and dignity in standing firm for what is right and true when its necessary. With this sentiment & temper will have less tendency to rise up.

Today I told Capt. H that I heard in my Room some time ago a paper read by one pass. to another, of whose reading we had heard before; and that there were in it things wh. I tho't unhand some and unchrist.
And this was not to be the res.
of intimacy betw. them; the one having thus placed ^{se} in power of the other.

Then at prayer this morning I asked, and felt some
the need of the Serpents' wisdom & the Dove's innocence.

Not to lie still and hear anything and every thing said,
replies very seldom their

my own rights and dignity in standing firm for what

— — — — —
Then at prayer this morning
I asked, and felt some
the need of the Serpents'
wisdom & the Dove's innocence.

I am much pleased with the following lang. of Friedrich the Great of Prussia, given in Kolsch's hist. of Germany.

"You are quite right in believing that I work hard, I do so to enable me to live; for nothing so near approaches the likeness of death as the half slumbering listless state of idleness."

"It is no longer requisite I should live, unless I can live and work". These are sentiments worthy of this great man, and also the key to his greatness.

Fit for the adoption of every man, be his station what it may; how much more fit for the Christian, who has so much work to do, and who can only live the life to wh. he is called by being constant and will.

is the receptacle of a great many good resolutions; but to be active and dutiful now and to mean to be so, and

It pains me to see how very neglectful my fellow ^{sons} are are to the truths & L. of all others I hold, and know to be most important.

I that God w^d come in his power and change their hearts: I at least help me to be no obstacle in the way.

I fear another persons influence has been decidedly injurious; both from indiscretions, and from other things to which Charity can't give so much a name.

And yet I hope the truth may not prove vain down altogether.

Mr Barton I am told said among the passengers one day and after divine service I think that preaching was his trade and he had now turned to some other. How a min. of the Gospel c^d say such a thing even in jests among worldy people I know not. And how unmin. to's caught up, how long remembered! David be thou also on thy Guard.

And such words in a Jew are arrows; in a Minister poisoned - poisoned shafts.

There are in my mind the shame left my Country to preach the Gospel - there are still selfish emotions, and an incipient hankering for some high Station at home: and the sort of expectation of a future return home, when I may rise to Eminence; this comes in under cover of great usefulness. Now it may be my duty to return home & labor hereafter; but I wish or ought to form no plans,

Especially on a selfish basis, to any such effect.

May God assist me to a pure purpose of being his; and sincerely asking where I can do the most good; and of going free.

Mon. Nov. 26. 1845.

S.W. of Cape Horn. Eighteen days have been about here off the Cape.
And I must own I began to feel anxious to get onward. Nothing like muzzling I trust; but tired, especof hearing so much said about it. I sympathize with Cape Horn and he at times feels nettled and impatient.

I have asked myself if it be not meant for me; I have meant since we set out to speak privately to Mr Carter, but have not yet done so, on the subject of Salvation; and I wish to find a good chance to address him. It has occurred to me to sit down and write him a letter.

I wish to do my duty to him and hope God will thereto give me strength. It w^d be joyous if he might be led to know & serve the L^d Jesus Christ; and

Looking to him for Salvation himself, might bec. a preacher of him to others. I must urge the matter on him. Perhaps one thing wh. has made me more backward to speak to him, has been that Mr B. spoke of him as such an unimovable Character.

My Resolution is taken, trusting in God for Grace to keep it & for his blessing on the effort to approach him & kindly urge on him what he now despects. (Dand Trembly.

2/ Saturday. Nov. 29. 1845

The work is gone; but we are not - the going to go this afternoon would be glad to get out of this, tho' as I say to Capt. Haring our duty is to do all we can to get on and then patiently wait till God aid us. Have read Allison diligently, and with pleasure every day since Monday; read and written on 10th of Hebrews: it is useful to do so without consulting, more than memory compels me to, the views of others. May I read S.S. independently, but still not at random to take a Chapter thro' and write down all I can explain, and state what I cannot give much more clearness - I decided what is learning but tracing the bounds of knowledge? Certainly that man is wise who has found out what things are beyond his reach.

The question often comes up in my mind have not many of the opinions, dogmatically put forth, on which Pro. have been most divided, been on subjects which lie beyond the true limit of human grasp?
And if so they might have been prevented, avoided, by fixing what that limit was.

I have not had yet a good Chance, as it appeared, to speak to Mr Carter; but am resolved to do so.

He and I concluded that in the matter of the Indians in America, and in Hindostan that justice would not bear out their treatment; but yet good had been done to the latter - While in Case of former land, and that the Conduct of our own gov^t of late to them could in no way be justified. He says Mr S. D.
Adams in Boston lecturing was justifying the Eng. monuments against China on one ground that 'they had no right to Exclude the rest of the world from their Soil'; this I think would never hold, for if Extended I have no right to forbid a man to come on my farm. God has so ordered it that our interests lead to intercourse; but to compel a man to it or a nation will never answer.

To-morrow I hope to preach on this 'What will it profit a man if he gain the whole world & lose his own Soul'?

Mon. Decmber 1. 1845
First day of winter here, began with snow squall.

Yesterday I did preach on said text; and felt much warmed not see little impressions made.
Mr. Thorne did not attend the services, staid in his State room.

Enjoyed reading some Chapters in Job, where Eliphaz said to him Ch 4:5 "Thy word have uphelden him that was falling — but now it is come upon these & them faintest": how easy to comfort others, but when S^rs comes home we are humbled.

Still the wind remains ahead Friday December 5. 1845.

At Sea - North of Cape Horn How much of the gentility of fast. folks is mere infrathery externals; as for instance a man here in this Ship, cannot eat with his knife - but must even carry his food mouthward with a fork, tho' it be rice: who will at same time sit about before a female even with no vest no suspenders - indeed with shirt flaps nearly over his waistbands. And worse when told of its being a thing complained of by ^{no} female will say, with a sneer, 'may be proud to sit in same room at any rate, even if he had nothing on. If such things can attach to a true gentleman may I never become one.

But bah! they do not, cannot and this man with all his air, look & pretence is not a gentleman—else my judgment is worth

This morning at 2 o'clock waked feeling uneasy and c^d not get asleep again for a long time: at last I did and then c^d hardly wake up, drowsiness almost Lethargicfrom what cause I know not Rose at 10 ate nothing at all; felt some better after clearance of bowels by means of salt water, having been constipated for 72 hours Dull feelings set in noon, laid down again, and slept till 2 then ate Peas. Since better the pain in head and eyes. He been reading Allison's eyes quite painful, what is the difficulty I know not.

Monday Dec. 8. 1845.

Yesterday I read memoirs of Rev R. M. McChesne; pleased, and profited too I think. May I pattern after his holy person; he speaks of advantages gained from Prayers Life and of working the rich mines of Butt Edward works.

There is sort of vanity playing in my mind when reading of such eminent persons - in that I am ever ready to fancy myself gifted with powers like theirs.

Now until tried I cannot know what I am capable of doing, and there is no harm in the desire to do great things for Christ, for his sake - but to wish to be an Edwards in order to have a good report among the Churches, is too low a motive for one whom the love of x. tho constrain. Certain it is I have made very few efforts so far in life; and this fancied possession of talents does not seem to incite to action, but, if any thing

Not a person inactive.

Tho I have received credit, and in my own view done well on some occasions; yet I am pretty sure I have had an over-estimate of my abilities.

But O may God strengthen me to use faithfully whatever he has entrusted me with; and if in any respect He has favored me, may it stir me up only to more earnest, loving & arduous toil.

To rest contented in view of past attainments, or of the bare possession, fancied or real of unused talents, is a sign that a man is loose somewhere - it is foolish in the person and towards God it is faithless.

Preached yesterday once more - 1 Tim 1:12 'This is a faithful saying &c' I did not feel the same warmth as a week since. Mr Chy. is said to have felt just the truth in his own case & then to have feelingly urged it on others and here I fail. Mr Thorne did not show himself at all, but after breakfast went into his study room

And thus remained. I hope the Lord may however reach him in some way. I am in doubt as to the right course to pursue in regard to him; but think it shall be this — To treat him civilly at the table, and answer him kindly tho' diff. if he addresses me; but to begin no conversation with him.

Last evening on deck Mr Addison was wishing the voyage ended that he might pursue his business: & and he might gain as much real good here, and more by reflection He said he prayed every night & morning that God w^d give him wisdom to be obedient to all his commands.

I told him he needed to have the pardon also of past sins & this he seem^d to feel & only count this. Well said I 'Make ~~thorough~~ work, go to the roots Each stop to lop off leaves & branches of sin - but get pardon thro Christ & devote yourself entirely to God's service; he said he had nothing to say why he sh^d not. And then he stands, but I hope the Spirit will lead him further. He lacks the power of decision; but is well meaning I sh^d think. Not to be despised in. He said he had heard some persons on board say they did not believe in the Bible &c — he had no such feelings. I did not ask him who, tho I learned not much doubt, it was the man who keeps in his R. room on Sabbath.

However when weeks ago I conversed with him he avowed no such opinion; but one day afterwards asked me if I had ever read Volney's Ruins. If sceptical, his scepticism rests on authority not on conviction & argument, and backs up a worldly life.

I felt earnest in prayer for my brothers & sisters - also for my father & mother, that they might have a spirit of prayer for others.

Monday, Decem. ber 14. 1845

The voyage still lingers, but I hope my old and joking guess will prove correct that by Christmas we shall arrive. Yet, no service, bec. weather was rough, and Capt. that little not; was prepared.

Read Edwards life; farewell Sermon, and Remains on Howard What Caryl views he had as in his letter to Mother of V. Hall!

Some God help me to lay out and do some of his designs!

And yet there may be more wish here to learn a great amount than to do God service. Still why descend to these lower motives?
Why not feel more alone to God than to all other beings? And in a child's Confidential Communion with Him regulate my resolves and efforts? O for such a Super-regard to my God, as his Son, to be ever with me.

When duty is done with the feeling bare duty, we are apt to wish to do more than is necessary: but none knows no such limit - all that is possible is its motto.

Tuesd. night Dec. 16. 1845.

The long voyage, still promised to be longer; Northrup under way for some 20 days - very unusual Altho it is God's will, and who knows better than He? What is the end in view I see not & perhaps never shall; but sure it is a good one - and it may be he will show it myself.
I will be on the lookout.

The determination expressed Dec 8.th seems on reflection questionable I cannot make an intimate of one who slight religion, and yet am I at liberty to persecute him, or cut his acquaintance?
And w^d it not be better to show kindness even to those who oppose themselves; sure it is men can be driven to Godliness, but they may be won.

The fear a "Simple" character may attach to me, and thus lead men to disregard Gospel principles sometimes puts me in doubt as to how to act towards men about me.

Thurs. Dec...ber 18. 1845.

At three this A. M. Captain H. waked me and said the land was under our lee: and had a gale of wind come on from West² we sh^d inevitably have sustained disaster. It proved only some 25 miles distant: an error had been made in taking the altit.^{de} 1st morning - of a degree.

I did not realize the peril at the time and lay still: and afterwards said a foolish thing that it was of no use to get out of warm bed and found sleep to go on deck & see what I did not wish to see This w^d have been far better unsaid: sure there was no rec. of rising, but a joke ill became me among careless men, at a time of danger from wh. tho' Escaping we had not escaped After C. told me I prayed we might be fav^d with a wind & suffer no Land. And then my mind ran on what I w^d do if cast ashore alive; and I thot I w^d take my Bible and hoped I might teach the Savages the way of Heaven. But God has shown us great mercy: for no sooner was the land seen than the wind hauled several points & let us run NW by West & tonight we are 100 miles from the Spok of peril, and 60 from Two Mounts. Good Captain Harrey with tears in his eyes expressed to me his sense of God's goodness.

Rather made sport of me Addison at breakfast, & said I'd have done no good by going on deck at 3 o'clock, and so lay still: he & me & all have done if life was in danger - all laughed and I said - 'that ought to be ciphered out

Now there was no occasion for such a reply; and my nettlesome temper made me discuss the matter rather harshly. I must be on my guard. It is probably best to say nothing for the present about it; but be kind hereafter. Once before I laughed at him for saying the French was a feminine language.
Such things are very wrong.

He is a forward wordy self-opi-
-nated young man, tho' generally with meaning. And a day or two since I s^d there were in Mechanics more men with invention-mad than any where else. He understood men who are mechanics; and replied that he tho't Mech. No 1. Mr Carter s^d no the farmer was y^e all put just. Mr Barton said each was a part of sooiy. I then told him what I meant, the science of Mech. that a Mech. who fills his post was to be honored; tho he was not at the head of Sooiy - that he had his place in it, ought to know and keep it. This was a plain hint, and I can hardly blame myself for giving it: for if regarded it will do him good. Others of their Smiles took it if he did not,

I hope he did; tho I meant it in no unkind spirit.

A man's worth consists not in the station he occupies, but rather in his filling it well; when he does this he is to be respected, otherwise he cannot be of the good.

At same time a portee who fills his post with as much worth as a Lawyer or a Clergyman; is not to be put on a par with him. He is to be honored but not in the same manner or measure.
And yet a faithful trusty portee is more to be honored than a man in higher station who lacks these qualities.

Sabbath Dec. 21. 1845.

This morning did not get up till near 8 o'clock, and missed morning prayers, for which I am sorry. When at home I do hope to rise earlier: but truth is the most comfortable place lately has been the Bed. I have preached from John 3:18 'Condemned already' and shown to press the truth home on those about me; the day ago is ending and no fruit appears
- tho I hope & pray the seed may not have been wasted. Truly

I have been benefited in the efforts made to look into God's truth and present it to others.

For once I feel from a sense of unfaithfulness in refusing to succumb to it; and in laying the H. Spirit to enforce it. Yet enough has been spoken to lead to the ark of refuge.

And I hope to be more sensitive to the wants of souls hereafter; and more vigorous in effort for their conversion.

How near my field may I be aided to be faithful in it remembering that I am to give acc.

I wrote yesterday a letter to my dear sister Caroline — in which I said one of the greatest causes of indecision doubtless was the treatment persons gave the Ball of Christ. Owning the, of all subjects, most important, but they treat it in a delaying shuffling manner, not decided to to settle it, not to cast it aside and thus a habit is formed, wh. affects more or less the whole of life. And the same thing holds in regard to the Ch^m. in performing his specific duties.

Be then decided on this subject — decide to be a ~~2nd~~ & be decided ~~2nd~~

As yet I have said nothing to Mr Carter, tho' am determined to do so, before leaving the ship either by word of mouth or by pen.

I have to day been engaged in reading Eds. on Relig. affections just begun dec parts; What are not decided signs as to affection being gracious or no.

A good Subject for writing would be Manners; in the wide sense Ethics.

Have sp^d Ren to Mr Carter - rec^d very kindly, but doubt if diff^r and good at self. hold him still.

Wed. Dec. 24. 1845.

Chief engaged about going ashore now; Wind too light for landing, or making harbor tonight: fear I shall not get on shore in time for the Communion wh. I long to do.

Thurs. Rose at 4 as the light came on Lac β of land ahead; my little boat, soon abreast of it & seeing Valp^o point. Hills bleak & barren but a tree in sight - saw a Cactus on one little top. Appearance very uninviting; one slowly round the point and the Bally of Paradise opens to our admiring eyes.

It shows to poor advantage Country is rough, hills of rock & ravines called Quebradas The houses so scatt^d as to make little impression & you say where is the City?

At two P.M. the Captain and I are ashore and as Mrs Rugg has gone away; we go to M^r. Alsop & Co's to their lodge. Our reception was kind. Mr Riley is away with his family a few miles I Mr Wheelright with his.

After Dining P. M. I walked out.

I went to bed with a full heart; and, since a slight cough occurred in the evening.

Commended me for future entry to God my Master who has so safely kept me so far.

Friday Bore at 5. Hearing the Clank of Chains, Saw A file of soldiers conducting prisoners to work on the streets, each a chain on the some for minor crimes were free. Women wear no hats.

No American ship or vessel of war, in the harbor.

Cattle are yoked by the horns, not by a bow on the neck.

Introd. to Mr Smith, very civil, asked me to visit his family; off'd to help me in my plans - a world of more I am told.

also to Mr Henry Ward - Hatt Truning & Co, Civil but paid little. Mr Armstrong called and asked me to dine with him I declined till some other day. Very kind person - Sat in Mr Riley's private parlor.

Capt. says Mr Whitney is same person named in the paper, was a clerk in the Fishert Co in Boston. Took tra with Mr Walsh, once Ship Captain; knew of a Super Cargo named Mumhill years since at Canton

He is a worldly man, and I am told to be on guard with him: his wife & sister seemed very pious & pleasant Ladies. My desire to come & see her at any time He offered me his horse to ride whenever I wish -

Sat. Dec. 27. 1845.

Mr Wheelight rev^d, had a talk with him; very cordial, & he & his wife asked his counsel, and he advised -

1. Not to go down Coast not knowing lang. & do little good.

2 Best begin on ship board.
Many here Eng. & Scotch who go out to Eng. Ch. from Conscience.
Thompt c^d be found to form a church.
Mr W. Ward had said a grand line. he w^d assume 1000 dollars, but of late has s^d little regard to it.

3. Wished me to think of a plan of being paterfamilias in another house, where thinks of having his boys board, w^d have my board & lodg^s. I favor H.

H. Come and stay at his residence for present. Mrs W. still away, unwell.

Sabb. Dec. 28. 1845.

Went to Mr Armstrong Ch. he preached regarding Christ as incarnate, Communion instead of Sunday. Enjoyed it. My good sized congregation Aftⁿ Dr Thompson of Sloop of War Hingham; very fair Discoursed, expository; did not look enough at his Audi-

Passed evening at Alsop's talking with Capt. Bamy who is of N. Haven; pleasant old man & hearty, tho' careless of Meral things.

Mr Whelpley annoyed all day, having sent out a servant with provisions for his family the man had failed to arrive, & must be supposed; & so they without good bread all day

This is a great annoyance of the Country, can't trust servants

Tuesd. Capt. H. has told me Mr Rely wished to know if I w^d teach his children.
C. says two girls 5 or 6 years I had best take the chance for the present. Mr M. says he Mr R. wishes a permanent teacher and it w^d interfere with my duties I am inclined to think well of it tho, for as yet no solid provision is made for my support.

Mr W & I walked out to Mr Rileys residence over a steep rugged hill. We found the lady and a truly pleasant person He was very kind & invited me to stay all the night: wh. I declined We saw the women washing in the stream of water over which we passed. I saw no cases of Chancels exposure among them all, that I remembered.
Met a female in the path Spoke to me, but I c^d not catch the words 'Horrible' and 'No Entiendo' to W.L. Mr. W. added

'Habla poco Castellano'. The Lad said to me 'Mucho mal' wh. he explained to be a kind of bad Spanish used in sport against the English, who used it instead of 'Muy malo' the proper.
Mr. Dumas Mr. Fortis started some kind of discussion on Religious matters; he is on the extreme left of Unitarianism quite Dristical, & spoke of the pure reason as man's only sure guide. He is quick tempered & it wd be of little use to argue with him before others — & so with any one for pride only sets them in the opinion avowed: he lost his temper I thought tho he had no cause; Capt. had next to say, I kept still.

Mr W. says he avoids such discussions if he can, for they do small good.

Wdh. Dec. 31. 1845

Last day of the year, has come very quickly. Steam is in. After tea went up to Mr Hobsons & spent the evening. Tried to make myself agreeable & found the ladies so; told Mrs H. about Laura Bridgman. She reminds me of D. Prigmore. Two daughters grown up. Miss Ellen & Miss Hephzibah, very agreeable but more of them hereafter.

Capt. Starbuck bought up some Chinese Artificial flowers; very hand some, the taste of the ladies favored the more red & in my opinion gaudy - I did not contradict them.

Mrs W. having ret^d from the Country I did not get to bid till after 11. A delicate kind lady & very sensible; unostentatious.
An Estimable Couple I have found in them.

In the forenoon I called on Mr Armstrong & saw his lady with Mr Proctor also of the Admiral's Ship Collingwood; just from the Islands he could give me much information about them; knew the Missionaries well, had preached for them. I went to dine there on Thursd. at 5 p. M.

Thursd. Jan. 1. 1846.

Got up late, & not realize it as being N. Y. Grand Midsummer. Admired

Booster called on Mr. W.
When I gave him Gen. Ball-win's letter, & he insisted they were as they once were; he c^d thus aid me much: but hopes his party will again get into power in March Elec.
Good natured inefficient man.
Visited Mississippi & then the Steamer, beautiful fixtures.
Went to dine at Mr. Ainsworth's Again met Rev. Mr. Proctor
- of Irish extraction, has been in the U. S.

Monday. Jan. 12. 1846.

Have again been invited to Mr. Armstrong's to dine, headache declined went in evening; met Mr. Thompson of Fitzgibbon's frigate chaplain; and Mr. an officer.

Have been out to visit Mrs. Riley at the Lomas, and passed a night there; a pleasant unpretending lady. Went out to see a large Palm tree 30 or 40 feet high & 3 troughs; bears fruit.

Sa Sabbath Jan. 4. 1846

The first of the year my Bethel flag was hoisted on the Mississippi and an audience of some 40 persons was gath^d to whom I preach^d on 2 Cor 4. 4 'God of this world hath blinded their minds &c. Mr Walsh was there and very attentive he appears interested in my efforts & offers all his aid. It was a pleasant beginning. Coming ashore we had much wind; and one stupid oarsman.

Com. Worcester & Col. Wood came late, latter English.

Again just. Sabb. Jan 11. 1846.
Luna was held on Gipsiside about same number present.
The Walsh again & infant child.
Several Captains, but not many men came. One Capt. Drumhull of Scotland with to know if I had not heard the full story.
I sat in his parish house, a bells read was over the tract, and under it I bore my kind: very pleasant thin old man. And indeed seem interested Matt 22. 43 What think ye of Christ? Mr Joseph Daily Super Car. of Ephraim had engaged to come and sing

But he did not - was seen at Ch. on the hill. Mr Flint was sick, so we had nothing.
I wrote during the week a notice to every Eng. Ship Master in the port, inviting him and his men to attend; but I do not think more than two were present. Every American Captain was, Capt. Sworthland Bentin, Barney & Haver.
-perhaps the notes did not reach them all.

Sept^r. I went to Ep. Ch. Mr. Vincent preached Eph 4:16 - with arranged and good discourse. Introd.

Heard of is that in Heaven, how can a man come before God?

Were he innocent, easy and, but guilty.

1. Boldness in matter of prayer for all wants.

2. Thine of Grace, is thine of glorious sprinkled with blood of Christ.

3. Prayer, belongs to wisdom; all will have time of need.

applic. 1 to prayerless. 2 to praying

More Gosp. vigor and doctrine in it than I have heard from an Ep. Min. in a long time.

The fault does not look right at his Auditors; not confined to his notes, but a vacant general look.

which I fall into at times.

Tuesday. Aug. 13. 1846.

Slept poorly, perhaps from Andrew's coffee, when I dined at Alcega's yesterday: Did not get up till 8.
Have gone down to see old lands This M. has just sent some trifles paddy & an orange to my room.

Mr Rely learned me & told me that Hall's journal on S. A. and Lope's hist. of Chile in Spanish, gave much historical & linguistic.

Called at Balzo, Law Captain Buntin & Turnbull; latter says secession in Scotland was rather hasty - all might have been gained by waiting awhile

Seemed to think Dr Chalmer head and shoulders above every body else in Scotland: that Dr Cunningham was my awkward fellow, tho a fair ^{well} preacher. A pleasant old man; says in Nanant are many Trumbulls, all big & good men; they are call'd Trumbulls the broad Shoulders.

Called on Mr Amstutz; who is to go with me to Am. hospitals at 10 tomorrow: kindly invited him his lady to come pass & visit them.
Call'd too on Mrs Walsh; asked me to dine, declined, bec. of my head.

Mr. Finley met me in Balbo and said he waited till 10 p for me on Sat. morning; hence that he had not been in fault & did not say he had to him; he do not think I had promised to call for him.

Have read 2 dozen pages in German Hist. Party.

Just sent letters to Mrs White & sister to Octoberly, Pa. Maria & Cathy, Lucia Phipps, Brothman & Weyland.

2 or 3 hours after dinner read in above named book.

With Mr Armstrong I called at the Am. Hospital saw 3 persons Frank Morris of Imp.

John Wallis -

Thompson (col^d).

Frank 2^d he was suff^r, but the Doctor s^d he was fit to go on board: it necessary to be cautious, for seamen are tricky.

Went to Trading room and read article in Quaker Review on Am.

Grators - Contains some small attempts at wit, on small matter made up of quotations from the Grators
- but little connected remark thereupon.

Same day.

Kangjick Decca Son Thallak and he says 'why do you not come up in the evening?' he seems inclined to aid me, and I w^d speak to Capt. of Fl. 5th Range for next Sabbath.
But I must avoid becoming familiar with him, for being a careless talker, he will speak too freely to me - and thus all my influence w^d be injured.

Thursd. Jan. 15 1845.

Rose at 6 1/2 - repeated 39 Psalm Wrote sermon sketches in book.

After breakfast sat down and read Hist. de Chile, kept at it till dinner. After read 1 or 2 chapters of Beaumont Newhall, pleased.

Called on Mrs Watson, met a Mrs Rowe, English lady: returning met Mr H. said I must not be formal & wait for him to call wh. he might fail to do the un-intentionally, bec. of business I told him I sh^d not. Mrs Riley invited me to dine, but I had an

Washed my Gun. in kerosene on Mrs Whelington's center table, being cov^d with Oil Cloth, did not much harm. Aug. 16. 1846.

Rose & I walked to Mrs Riley's to meet with Mr. She asked me to remain all day, but if that business called me back and ret^d.

Capt. Hany paid me 22.75 bal. of 40.00 paid Mr Chappell in Balt^o, after taking out 17.25 for a dozen chains. He refused to take freight for my boxes. He has presented me things as follows -

Bethel flag. 7/2 2/6.	9.00
" " making	6.00
Chain	4.00
Brak Wine, diff. times	1.00
" tything baggage ashore	1.50
Quar to Bible	15.00
Four Wooden Letters	12.00.
Freight on the boxes	12.00

I met Capt. Drillich of the 1st Range, he had a note written for me; reading a 10th of Oct, off his vessel during time for Lewis. Will send for the flag, and will send ashore for me on Sabb. morning.

I dined with Mr Riley & very agreeably, he is very polite
- a real gentleman. On his returning he that there was no true news from England as to U.S. relations, - I said if G. Britain wd not in the start vigorous and with her developed means she w^d use us up soon.

Mr. Fortt said 'O never, she can't do it' and then he went on to show me strength. But said I if she w^d deal vital blows with concentrated forces, she w^d capture the chief ports, and knock us into a cocked hat". Hanson stated Capt. Hainy, and he was very eloquent. Now sat Mr.
Riley, and I enjoyed the patriotic earnestness of these two gentlemen.
Some young Englishman put in a word to Mr. Foster about England having whipped the U. S. which he said with a round turn, that "The man had any claim to say such a thing, having twice tried & failed" No more was heard from the youth.

Mr Kelly said I c'd not be a peace man when it had matters into such a straits & so called out, the war spirit.

I replied I had expressed no opinion on the matter of war; only of its results to us. Capt. H. sd why you w'd take a musket yourself w'd you not? 'Yess said I as a relig. prof if occasion sh'd call for it - about this however I must think as to the propriety of saying it.

After the preceding, there was no trouble about digestion we were all soon in good spirits; and, at invitation went on board Mississippi & Mr Hobson joined us; here we passed an hour very pleasantly.
The Ship is beautifully timbered below.
Decks, very; and what a room.
So the Day went to Mr Smith's with Mrs. M. a child had just seen some time; lucky I did not call there a day or two since.
As I was on the point of doing!
Mrs M. went a' la mode, and I sat with Mrs. Th. & Miss Johnson, Mr. Knight, waited on by a lady of lead & fine hair, &

At Mr Brooks - they talked about Theatre opera &c to each other, tho' they probably I^d all they c^d think of to me: we went to tea, but I c^d not think another cup unless very good
- this was very poor & I left it.

They again talked of; & lects in the R. Road to my relief & some thing else about peop. who had their coffins made while alive
- tho't were to die on such a day &c: however I must hear such talk sometimes. Call in at Mr Anns. Tomp's for a few moments & visit home. Saw a beautiful mooning.

Saturday. Aug. 1846.

Rose at 6; Cold in my head.
Went to see Capt. Haury & did not much in forenoon; very warm in the Sun. Met the Ho-cession of the Host; a very short priest walked under a large red umbrella. Some by one attended, while others bore what seemed Lentils a dozen; and some one sang a hymn, some knelt, others only removed their hats: I entered also. & Co's.

Have read some Chili History.

Monday. January 19. 1846.

Mt. Rose with a Cold in head & sore nose. At 10 Called on Mr Finley - who after some hesita-tion on ye of fatigue went with me to the house, here the Captain Came with his boat and took us all off to his Ship. There were few or no American Steamers. Some from Mississippi.
An Audience of 40 or 50 gath'd gave good attention while

I preached from 2 Cor 10: 12 Comparing Silas &c. Afterwards I spoke to most of those present Mr Robinson was on board & helped sing; & he invited I wd hold service on shore, that many wd attend: so a d man named Hallett. Capt. again but as ashore; he was a worthy man; Silas in prayer; seemed gratified in having worship on board his ship. I felt discouraged by his conduct and language.

Mr. Bailey proposed as we did the procuring of a hulk for permanent worship; & I subscribed 20.00 dollars & got others to do same if I could prepare a subscription.
Attended in the Hall, heard the P. M.ctor; quite good. Capt. May came in the evening; spoke of the hulk to him, head-lined it. Conversation was rather too much of the world.
Went to bed with some headache from cold at 9 1/2.

Mon. Jan. 19. 1846.

To day have been to Am. hos-pital saw James Francis, a gentl from Boston, came out in whale skin from N. Bridge Palpit^{ing} of heart; gave him 4 stus hact. wh. they seemed to to receive.

Went to see Dr Page in evening took tea with him and Mr. Carr Mr Dorr. Passed a very pleas^t evening; hope Mr Dorr may be able to aid me some Sund. January. 20. 1846.

Found Capt. Melhuish had sent my flag ashore in a strong nice bag. Bad thing almost a boil on my nose gives much pain: begin taking Cheltenham Salts, tea spoonful in a tumbler of water. Read some Spanish Hist.

Went in the Ev^g to Mr. Walker Mr. Don again - too many folks present, said little: Mr. Mrs W. are very civil to me.

Wells. Sunday 21. 1846.
Rosa~~and~~ went on board Euphonia to York: Saw Miss Baker her sister.

Wth. aft^m went on board ship. to call on Capt. as he is strained; glad to see me, 1st pay my coach hire 4/6 2nd when came back I paid my Chapel Subscription
- I did not ask him, was his own offer.

Mr. Fung this morning met me and gave me Subs. book & has on it Subs. 259.87 dolls; and of it he paid me 21.56, dolls; & for his own & capt. Buntin's & Leaird on in vda. May the Lord smile on the Enterprise and make it succeed.

Thurs. Jan 22.

Rose late with some dullness of head, ate light & fast. Morning foggy almost a rain, surf. of ground damp.
Went on board Coal Stone Ship with Mr Walch, to see: "it is assumed for a chapel, that ^{1st} application to be made to Mr Boardman, who having subsd & gives an ounce with & hope be favorable if he can.
Went to Hospital: Thompson blk man is feeble & seemed to listen with some regard to my words all the rest rec^d me very civilly a Frenchman who speaks Span. refused a tract something about 'Muchacho' & 'Educacion' as if he thought it a child's book. Below him I^d when I asked if he read the Bible 'It is in me Cahera': I c^d not get along much bec. of poorly knowing Castilian: Some Cards lay near by.

But I now had strong headaches took 2 Dr Ward's pills. Put extra page into some more of the W's books.
Mrs M. ret^d at sunset.

In Am. they sent an invitation to me & myself to tea; c^d not go

Thos M Gardner was to be the third who tried to begin a Mission in Octagonia among the Indians.

Friday. July 23. 1846.

Rose at 7, better. Mrs M & I put pages into 80 more books. & now having them a challenge up to Mr Armstrong's. Teall. Not in.

Mrs A & Capt. Gardner (formerly of Royal Navy, a man of wealth Call^d at 3 1/2. Capt. G. is much interested for the Indians of this land. Much among them says are superior to the Chilian Spaniards. Has with him a young man converted at Cadiz under preaching of the Methodist clergymen who were placed there and sent away a few years ago who will go to learn the language and then settle among them.

He says the way to work is to go to the back bone of Spain the old Pencañete road; one or two active men to follow the back of it as Colporters. Seem energetic and full of his object.
Call on Mr Holton, no one at home; met them at foot of the stairs - did not ask as back probably from inadvertence.

Called on Mr Kelly. had gone out, to his Cottage!

I have made free to write Mr Damon on S. I. I. Islands. and to ask for some hymn books.

Saturday, Sunday. 24. 1846.
Rose at 6 and walked with Mr Th. Came home - great appetite.
Tried to get a vessel for reaching earlier than Capt. J. M. Wells but did not succeed. He will be glad to have it there, with Land Post.

The Board in an hour must wait till Mr Wheelwright Comes, about the Store books; however I hope to succeed, till he gets gain. I long to get on shore, and commence my efforts.

Light Dinner, bec. I came late.
Turnist in his books on book-keeping Went to Hospital again, & left some tracts, gladly received.
Took today a Guayaquil Hat $6.00.
Last night Mr Meek introduced me to me. Today Mr Worth did same.

Sabb. Jan'y 25. 1846.

Samuel was let on board the lucky, Capt. Furbull.
The good old man asked me to drink a glass of rum after; but I declined.

Mr Barret called on me about noon; before I tho't of it I had s^d 'I am glad to see you'; whⁿ I was not h.c. of the day.
I meant to say but little, but he s^d something of reasons for attending ch; to do good, & get good &c. I s^d it was first of all to worship God.

He s^d 'even that is done for our happiness'
'No we obey him and he takes care we are happy for it.' Then he s^d he did nothing he blamed himself for - this was sweeping and I held up God's meas. of love with all the heart. This imposs. claim he that absurd. S^d I tis a standard of char. not a term of Salvation on failure of reaching it shows need of a Savior.

He asked if Howard is he lost without belieg in Christ? S^d I Gods Standard in Insuperable things is the only true one, and thus we have in his word. Who fails of it, needs help; to this point we must come not for despair, but to see our need of a Savior.

He owned a failure of full compliance with God's Command.

More and more am I convinced that self-right, based on ignorance of self & of God's law, ruins souls all the time.

May he be led to see himself differently. He is a vain man tho he seems kind.

The day before I was thinking of that very thing a very moral kind man, with the fail of 16th and it then seemed - does he come up to the perfect meas. of Mor. Char? if he does all is well; if not God can accept him with freedom and not compromise his Y^{et} any more than a greater sum. Hence if he come not, this church how can he come it all?

Mon. May. 20. 1846.

Home at 6 M. Braden's said
- rather professionally. Will some new insects to greater mention in my ~~specimen~~ of def.
Read them. 3 hours.
Walk out, Capt. Tinsell

Gave me ten dollars towards my bulks. Seems to be a very pious old man: will be back in 6 weeks.

Fresh. Jan 27. 1846.

Most of day spent on Gal 2:21 Called on Capt. Gardner & his friend Mr. Gonzales: they are to go on the ship and down the coast, and then make an inland tour. The young man has been in Eng. in the the method. min. under the the descriptions. Speaks Eng. & Ariz.

The Indians they aim at.

Past Tumbuk & Mr Bone called.

Mr Don called yesterday. & Lay a spoon on. a Cooper had on Sat. night fallen from 'Main top' & hit his head; died on Mond. morning at Chilian Hosp. I asked me to attend this morning his burial - but a note has come to say there is some hindrance, his friends

Not having raised money to pay Corts 20 dollars. Poor wretch, he was believed intoxicated; and thus foreigners here throw se away here.

Weds. Jan 28.

Rose not till 6 1/2.

Walked out and asked Mr Walsh about a room on shore to preach in to Laramie; that one called Lard would be on the look out.

Read some Spanish; and studied on John 17:3. Refused dinner here. going to Mr Riley's - went there at 4. but the dining room was not in order; and a small table set elsewhere, so I came a back a disappointed dinner hunter this for 2^d time. Mrs W. gave me as much pudding as I could eat.

At 5. walked over beyond light house to fishermen's bay & took a father; far wth. much better.

Saw this forenoon Capt. W. & told him I had written a letter to the Lond. Soc. funds Soc. wh. I w^d like to send him; said he w^d take it; and as his owner is. Pres^t of the Loc. tho't he c^d help on my request - viz for leave to call on them for 12 months hence for 100 pounds or less, towards milding or buying a chapel.

Thursday. Jan 29. 1846.

Saw Captain Bell and gave him the letter. Its owner is V. President name is Rogers, a Captain. Pres^t name is Linsley.

Called on Mr Don the Consul tho't I sh^d meet no stoppage in another wh. service. I^d he w^d write to D^r Camp over

Min. at Santiago about it.
Three grades up to our Govt.

- 1 Change of affairs
 - 2 Min. Resident
 3. Envoy Extraord. Min. Plenip.
- Europe another

4. Ambassador, who represents the person of his Sovereign. Has a throne in his house; and thus differs from a Min. Resident.

Towards night walked to the playa; picked up some shells and found some debris ^{to} not one home. On my way Showed it to a Padre: a simple looking young man: but I cant converse with any body.

Friday Morning. Aug 30.

Rose at 6 pm - took tea for an hour & a half. Wrote a note for Captain Ellis of the Rodac then writing his names: & took my gun, & left at 8 pm. to the Capt. Capt. Heath took my letter to Mr. Gannon and sent it to Tahiti.

Much pleased with these lines

Capitolo dell' occasione.
I who at thou so fast proceeding Nev glancing back thine eyes of flame Marked but for, this rather than speeding And opportunity's my name.

What is that form with scowls beside thee Repentance is the form you see:
Learn then the fate may yet be little thee She loves them who kiss not me.

Saturday. Aug. 31. 1846.

Rose again not well, changed indolent; unwilling to rise & when risen sorry I did not rise sooner.

The Wheelight moving up to his Cottage.

At 10 went down to procure a keel; waited 2 hours for Capt Ellis of Rod. Dhr: he said he wd accomd. me but he had not any awnings & a small Cabin.

Then took a boat, went to the M. Hamblet, Capt. I^d C^d not be.
Sara, was along side. - Very and discharging into the Am. Sampras. given a week since, tho on Sabb. they lay apart.

Next Alciopé Capt. Bennett s^d something to do with Govt Ships of G. Britain (b) & was interrupted A poor reason.

Next went on another and who sh^d the Capt. he but. Capt. who whom I had seen ashore and a fine evening with the Customs.
But he seemed unwilling; said he sh^d be away. I s^d his mate w^d be there, and the place w^d be convenient. Well then he said he had rather not this time; but w^d see how his men felt about it and if they liked it he w^d give the use of his vessel on the next Sabbath.

At this I began to give up; it was coming ashore, but made one more trial and succeeded in the Scotch Bay Sanct Capt-Paul.
