Call on Mr. Stutling at College to ask him to tea - an hour in very pleasant conversation, on its violence of building property tombs, slaying their fathers - he that means "they professed such regard for the old fr^{ts}, dead, but treated living ones just as their fathers".
This for. Other passages seems meaning them to visit lecture on that...

Call after dinner on Mr. Lowrey, wished me to preach regularly to Col. Church 5000 $ a year. Perhaps I sh'd go - if so may God who has thus far guided me, direct me thither. Told him to think of it. Said he w'd write me about it. It w'd be pleas't

What this is, does all seem consist in vol. action? Took Kollacks place to open.

Said, all agree specific acts of just and

1. Bic. Sc. "Set-y aff. on things abt", present mot. to & cite aff., same as to & cite spec. acts of will.

2. Many mot. to & cite aff. in others - to what apply notions unless to will?

3. Conscious aff. are under our control, in same manner as specific volitions - differ in degree, not in kind - strong & feeble.

Thus far I find place. Affec. are just acts of choice, under which single acts are specific.

Now back of these are no dispositions prior to actions.

D^r Hodge said Old Lat. Theod^s defined -

He said if mind divided into intellect, & will, no need to prove affec. of the will, must be its our Soul's existence, nor of acts w^h involve it - so of the social affections or disposⁿ we are not cause of it, but learn its exist.

same way we learn existence of this habitus

There is promising field w^h it is not and why

So too poor Africa, where Prinslow has just died.

Less there, than in other places. My prayer is to God that he will guide me as to path of duty, and after showing it it to me will cause me to walk in it, draw neither this way nor that.

I begin to feel more my deficiency for the future calls of a relig. teacher.
In some doctrines my mind is unsettled.
But I can remain no longer in my cradle studying. I must go out and go to work. O my God, my Mother's God, be my teacher; let me not err; at least not cause others to err.

Independency has nothing Con-

The Cong^{regations} have surpassed all others, but it may be owing to nat. force of char., and to their Ch. order. It may be they w^{ill} have done more if bound more closely together. L. Mult. of counsellors is wisdom, and the ultra course of some Cong. Chs. in N. Y. shows that some hold back is needed.

The Gath'g at Jones. may not have been a Synod, or Council, or Convention, organized as such bodies are now yacht^{ing}, but was it not the Collected (wisdom) wise men of the Churches, and to all intents a court of appeal.

Then as to discipline of members, is it right to bring cases of Scandal & charges of adultery before the Bro'hood, giving up all of about women being part of the Court, are there not many ^(certainly) members who are anxious for such ^{decisions} Sh' any Anti the present have the hands of such matters. Tho' I love Cong^{regations}, think not. Whulst case in Col. for inst.

ought from means to have come before the Ch., or any Ch. in the land (copying in 1856, twelve years after, the case in Ch. at Cornith seems to resist all my objections).

D^r M. gave me a good hint abt coming late to lecture, which I mean to improve upon. He is a dear good old gentleman. When he does a thing he does it up - tho at times rather prolix, yet he is complete. He has feelings most fatherly.
