[Trumbull Journals]

Vol. IX.

Feb. 3, 1853 - Oct. 9, 1854.]

Journal. 1853.

Mrs Gibson sent from Selay a cake for Johnny's birth-day, but the poor little boy was so feeble that we felt anxious lest we were to lose him.

July 3^d. Having been disappoint^d at going to Santiago, we set off for Casa Blanca, to day, Thursday. We arrived at 10 p. m. He seemed to have taken cold. I rode in the saddle, wife & Maria in the gig. Mr & Mrs Hamick were kind to us; but c^d not give us a room inside that night, tho I had sent a message. Dr. Span bore the burden of care of J. in the night.

Friday 4th July. Baby's cold seems serious. His face is the picture of serious & helpless distress.

He has no voice to cry, can only complain in little moans. Yet I hope the change of air may be of some benefit to him.

I walk with him under the trees, in the street.

He never smiles. He loves to lie on his mother's breast; or, if he cannot have her, to lie in my arms. He cries when I take him from her, clings to her, opens his almost voiceless mouth & mutely begs to be left with her he loves. Or if I give him to Maria, he grasps my collar and tries to cry.

Alas! my dear healthy happy baby, as it comes to this!

I try to pray for him. I did so to day in the field, but I tho't do I know what I ask for when I beg for his prolong'd life?
And then I dare not ask it unconditionally. All I can say is,
"Father spare him if he will be thy child."

All his fresh pleas'rs come before me, as well as his now wasted face & frame - and that face of pain.

During the night I had to get up and prepare his food two or three times.

Saturday. July 5. 1853.

Rod^d to town to preach tomorrow. Did not kiss Johnny in good bye. Rodd in little Highland.

Sunday. Feb 6. 1853.

I thought of my poor boy and prayed that God w^d direct about his little life.

Went to Church and preached extempore Romans 6. 22.

Rev. J. Home found a dispatch
"E nino está muy debilitado. No puede tragar nada. Mande a cuti de Canfor trinar y miel de abeja".

The last I had sent already - procured the others tried to find a man who w^d carry them. Did not succeed. Set off myself - tho I had sought to keep my viz appointment. The road was long a man overtook me whom I had seen in S. Francisco Del Monte - rode together. About nine p. m. arrived, hoping to see my baby again, but Henrich met me to say he had just expired two minutes before.

I went in to see Jane who was in another room, she felt badly & Ed Leance comforted herself. She was overjoyed to see me. O if I could but have seen him & been recognized by him once more!

I went to see him. He looked sweetly in death. The hot tears flowed fast. There was something in his face & expression of suffering and meek submission. Of course his being my Son had its effect, but there was a powerful influence wrought by that gentle countenance on me.

James had held him all the time till he breathed his last. Mr & Mrs Fenwick insisted on taking all care of his little body. After they had done all, I went in again to see him; so did James. It was a sad moment to us as we stood beside one once so happy just born child — he is happier now I trust.
The look of pain had nearly gone, a sweet and gentle expression settled on his delicate features.
Fenwick & I he & I took all care.
Mamma said she sh^d sit up.
Neither James nor I slept well — indeed we hardly slept at all.

Monday Feb 7. 1853.

At 4½ I was call^d. It was that better for James not to see the little face again - I did not think so, but yielded.

As I stood by his side gazing on him, Old Maria came up & said 'Altho you are his father, Sir, you ought not to move one him. Do you not know that you 'quita la flor de ellos', 'ellos saben y se quita la flor', meaning diminish his happiness.

Jane says that he was relieved so as to swallow in the morning 3 foenestations of Camosile flowers, and thus the day took his broths as usual. At dinner time Maria took him out under the trees, he noticed their rustling. Then his mo. took him and sat under a thatch, he held his cup to his mouth with his own hands and drank freely. Fearing he might take cold she went in, and soon after noticed a 'change' in his face. He seemed about to be convulsed. Dr. Nichill placed cloths dipt in turpentine on his body and prevented that.

Seeing a gentleman come thus near him, she says, he partially opened his eyes to look at him. She said, "It is not papa Johnny", on wh he made a stronger effort to look, at hearing the word; and also looked at Benjamin who came in at that moment to the room. This was his last sign of consciousness. Jane says she talked to him all the time till he was gone, that he might know she was near him.

At 5 a. m. just as the dew rose I set off on my sad task & errand. Jane spoke of it as a sorrowful duty for me. Maria rode with me in the gig and most of the distance his little body was in my arms.

Mama had much to tell me about him.

In our place a girl came out to offer for sale some flowers she had plucked - Alas! I thought, my flower is here, plucked my ear!

On the night we met Mr. Hailand, his daughters Helen & Caroline, Maudslaw N. and Isabella Smith. I stooped to speak to them they look'd very sad. I'd hardly open my lips to speak a word.

We reach'd the door a little after 9. I took the little boy & bonnet up to my bedroom, meeting no one. Cathy came in as I was opening the chest in which my baby was enveloped. She said "Oh David when did this happen". "Last night I said before I arrived". I C'd say little. She kissed my forehead. G. G. Hobson came in & said to me, expressing his sympathy.

C. suggested to send for Mr Struthers. Mr H. took the note to him, & sent wife a teleg. message saying I had arrived.

Johny I laid on his own bed. Dear little boy. I loved it even then & all thro the day went again and again to look on that placid face, that seem almost alive, but felt cold as marble.

Struthers rode on my horse and got the order for a grave from Mr Hill. He sent Appleby from the Cab. maker also. The little boy measured 2 ft 8 in.

Dr Page expressed a desire to examine. At 3 p. m. he came to D.D. So. I was with him thro it all. I did not wish anything done without seeing it myself. The mucous membrane of the stomach was soft and rosy. The smaller intest. had one or two ulcers and was inflamed throughout, so was the large. His nose mouth had been a sample of the condition throughout. The glands were very much enlarged. The bladder was distended. The liver & gall bladder seem healthy. He could assimilate his food.

At 5 P.M. I went to see Mrs Robinson, who had come in from the country.
When I met Mrs Campbell & Cally had wrapped the little remains in some flannel Mrs C. had hot and placed him in his coffin. I told Mrs C. she had seen the first of Johnny and now saw the last.

I asked Maria if she wished to see his face again - She did so, and then I closed the coffin. There were others who w^d have done it readily & as well, but I preferred doing the last thing for Johnny myself. C. G. held the candle for me. Afterwards I remember that Maria had seen him after I did, so silently I op^d his coffin again to look last at him for the last time. I must be the last to see my little son.

Mr Robinson, Mr Strothers, Mr Brumham, Jr & Mr Goldsmith and Mr Marshall, had ask^d if it w^d be agreeable to me that they sh^d go with me at midnight to the cemetery. I appreciated their sympathy & their delicacy. Mr Gregory went also.

I had before midnight that I w^d put down the hall lamp, but - then I that

It is Johnny's last night, let it be for him.

While waiting for midnight I lay down and napped a little on the large bed, next that on which he lay. I was wakened by Mr Robinson knocking at the door.

Samuel came to see me going up, but I told him I wish to go. I c^d not send Johnny off alone. As we walk^d I said to Mr R., 'This is the last night for Johnny'. Malverdi bore his remains. When at the Chapel we placed his body on the table, cover^d it with the pall and ret^d home. I thank^d all for the sympathy they had shown.
They were true mourners with me.

I came home feeling, I am now childless. I slept well, but feeling that I sh^d get up to wait on Johnny never again.

Tuesday Feb 8. 1852.

At 9 a.m. I went to the Cemetery.
Brimham, Goldfish, Marshall, Robinson, Gregory, Simpson, Stuthus and Duncan were there.

I read 2 Sam. 12. 16-23; and then Luke 18. 15-17. On this last I remarked that the words of our Lord gave hope for children; and for adults, who not be saved on the grounds that children are, that they must take the filial position of innocent life.

Some one had placed a wreath of bright flowers over the coffin of my boy. We went to the grave, I saw him placed in it. As soon as I could command my utterance I thanked my friends for their presence and sympathy. The narrow house was then filled up, and I came home.

I entered the house - but heard not his voice - his outstretched arms no more invited me to take him - his belongings were put away - his bedstead taken down - the chess men hidden from sight - I went from room to room, all reminded me of him, but - no Johnny was there.

I saw a dragoon and there was his little straw hat, alas he will wear it no more. It reminded me of him coming up the stairs from his morning walk, with the little blue polka - and as I thought he w^d come up never again my eyes filled again with tears.

At another time I had written a letter and turning to the press to copy it, remember how he had play'd at the press and laying hold on the arms of it had raised me and stood at it.

I do not repine at his removal, at least in so far as relates to God. He had a perfect right to take my little boy away, for any reason that seemed good to him. He knew what was best for ^{John} John, ^{better} than I did; and on the warrant of the Saviour's words I believe he has taken him to the kingdom of Heaven. Besides in the failures of my life in duty, in personal faults & improprieties I see strong Desert of affliction; God has dealt mercifully with me.

Mr James said I proposed to my sister and the girls to go out to C. Blomsted, and we set off aboard. On the way I D to C.
Chopped she in manifest sympathy with Jane. She complained of the difficulty she often experienced in showing sympathy with others, having schooled herself not to ask it, because there was no one at home after I left to rec. it from, and not to gain it.

We arrived at home down. Jan-ny was at the door waiting for us; bath in tears she met me. She had follow me last night at midnight and again this morning at the funeral. Her wife says such a sense of loneli-ness rests upon her. Still I find she delights to think of John in a bright hour, and she often dwells on the impressions his little stranger spirit must have been the subject of ever thine.

I remained at C. Platt's Sat.
12th. On Sunday Mr Fenwick had a picnic, at least a dinner in the orchard, a lamb roasted whole &c. Dr Nicholl was with us. Next day he set to town. I gave him his Stones Travels in Egypt & Arabia.

Sund^d Day Feb 13. 1853.

Lord's Day. Mar. 13, 1853.

Planned an extrath sermon, but gave No. 212, Deut 6.5. Loving the Lord with wholeheart and might and as selfpreferring to write on what I had sketch.

Bib. Class exercises I had prepared for with my pen and they were more interesting to me than usual.

Eg. Luke 7.28 Greatness of John Baptist - No. 215.

Strange I discover upon review myself that I had written as if the text had been "of those women of whom there is not a greater

Morning No. 264, Nos. 4.17

Eph. joined to Idols, fair audience.

P.M. Bible class, discussing why the disciples fail^d to know our Lord was to die spoke with chⁿ about meaning of word Christian. Th. Campbell was ready with the answers, 'followers of Christ', and 'fish in Antioch'

Mr Nobbs came to dinner as he was to preach in the Ev. While at dinner Mr C. C. Greene came in & told prior, both were at prayers with us. Mr St. asked & he excused and lay down as his head ached.

Mr St. preached an excellent sermon on Luke 2.10 'tidings of joy', showing that Jesus is a source of joy (1) to the right shod or human ignorance in religion. (2) to pardon of sin.

(3) In comfort amid human vicissitudes. (4) In hour of death.

Remember this joy of the Gospel is only for those who ^{believe} repent & reform.
Then he applied the joy of the Gospel to Pitcairn's old history; it exhibited its influence there.

I think it was the best sermon I have heard since I came here, in this City. About eight persons came to hear it.

Mr A. has just left us by on board.

Mrs Sprague is here - she is a talker sure.

Read. . . Apr. 1853 - 7th.

to offer any more loan as she has rec^d 103.4 already.

Jones is overrunning me for Bibles & other books, Tr. Soc. but declares he does not quite like them. He has sold a large no., but he w^d as soon sell anything else that w^d yield gain.

I do not feel as if I had done justice to my people this week; I had hoped of buying them some beaten oil; the furniture is in now & I trust I shall do better.

not one himself he is not disposed to make difficulty on that subject.

I told him I did not say what Wesley had of the Calvinists, nor of the Arminians what had been said of them.

He came home after tea. He said some aimed in religion at getting certain feelings, when in reality it was far from religion, and no more like it than like Mohamudanism
- that they made feelings their idols. He thought Conferences were not useful in a country when churches abound. He said, in Indiana years ago the O. S. Presbyterians used to hold them. That the Cumberland Presb. do now.

I hope the Lord may have sent him here to do good.

Mr Sprague asked some questions at table about the Quakers; I answered wh he thought was commanded; & about pulchritude. I lose my patience with him, wh I ought not to do, but to hear with him & instruct if I can.

2^d Day May 1. 1853.

No 403. Psalms 11 boys and pay to the Lord. Good audience

A. M. Marshall United { Profession.
Was baptized - just a dull & even baptized. I felt very much his entrance to the Church under my own ministry.

Mon. May 2.

Mrs Sprague this day goes to live at Mrs Snyders.

Wedn. May 4. 1853.

Earthquake at San Joaquin, quite strong - most so for months.

Mrs C. at tea.

Mrs Byrnes asks me to be account for her right administration of what her husband has left.

Visit Am. Hosp. today with Whelan & Robinson. We gave them papers, books etc. Then call at Presidio, several 'Englishes' there. Gave such ready matter as I had.

Amos Eckel was buried today.

Thurs. 5.

Mrs Campbell dined with us.

Prayer meeting - few present. In house all day. Had put down 3 legs of fresh pork in pickle & they are spoiled!

My first attempt, 6 dm.
Watch fell out, or down in unknown manner, from pocket in shirt and broken Cystal again - the 4th or 5th in as many months!

Sat. May 7, 1853.

Engaged on Sun 404 ju. 23.22.
Dra with Mrs Campbell.

Marshall dined with us.

Whelan reported his work for the week at 13 $ sold in books; is to preach to morrow on board bark Ophir.

Old Maria falls out with the other and goes out to sleep again.

1 Bot this day Amab's Jr. Bible with

Sund's Day. May 15. 1853.

Not having finish'd a sermon wh^{ch} I had in hand preach'd Exhort this a.m.
Isa. 27. 9. Fair audience. Contrast betw. offic^{rs}. of people & foes of God.

Mrs Fromont came and asked me to call on a man Smith at Pacific Hotel who was very low. I call'd there some time ago, but he was asleep and then I left word I w^d come to see him if he desired it.

I went at once. He is low. I pray'd often - I told him of the Gospel, he s^d he held the views I expressed, and list^d seriously, solemnly. He wish'd I w^d pray with him.

He had with him a young woman that had come out from Eng^l to be married with him. She seemed very anxious for him. I sh^d have had wish to see me, but had not had time. That yest. he has ask'd to see me. An open bible lay on the table & Wm. Pracht Senior, one of my vols. I promised to call again.

3rd Class. Jas. Mithun came just time.

Eig. Psa. 11. 7. Express also.
on Blessing the Land for giving us counsel.

Friday May 20. 1853.

Two being the members of the ch came to take tea with us - Mr Edw Grogan, Mr Hapner, Shurtess, Williamson, Robinson & Mrs R, Lindsay, Walker, Simpson & wife, Mrs Fromont, Livingston Wm & wife, Wheeler,

Mr Hapner did not come, nor Mr Marshall, nor Mr Blake.

Mr Reed was out of town.

They all came in pretty early; Mr & Mrs R. & Walker late & Mr Williamson.
It was 8 o'clock when they came.

The conversation was very well sustained by the members among themselves; and the viz seem'd to pass pleasantly.

At 9 I read a chapter 1 Cor. 12th & 13th and we sang a hymn & then a prayer.

Lak. May 21. 1853.

Mr Steffens of North Greening & Co came this week to inform me of his serious feelings and his wish to become a Jew. He wish^d me to keep silent about what he had told me - I sometimes on Sund. nights had to go with friends to the Theatre, and had to work in the Counting Room when the Sh. is here. He spoke of the Sabb. in Germany & what was often done there, even Ministers, attending dancing parties on Sunday &c. Bot some books of Tr. Soc. a Bible & H₃. B_{1/2}.

May finish 405 on duties of deacons. It has occupied my mind for 2 or 3 days, and I c^d not see clearly whether then sh^d be dragons with sp^l Antlers, on Ruby Elders. I am undecided - but as the Apos. appt^d dragons just, think the way is clear to go forward with these.

They are to be ordained to-morrow.

Threats to rain last night, but clear now.

10 minutes of 12 midnight.

Sund^y Day May 22. 1853.

Preach No. 405 officed of Dra-cons; and proceeded to ordain
M. Robinson, F. Gray and D.
Lindsey. My signif acceptance of the office and the Ch. affs its choice of them & raising the hand - then prayer, then I laid hand on each, saying, "Chosen & having accepted the office I app^{ly} the dracon in this Ch. of Christ"; in Mr Lindsey's case the words were added "in the name of the Head of the Church", but I had not intended it.

Did not go to Bible Class bec.

Mr Wheeler preach afloat at 3: Saying Exhort Psal 119. 136. Times of waters run etc. bec. keep not thy law.

Sat. May 28. 1853.

Rev Mr Hill, Miss Baker & Miss Reed, Mr Dew, Mr Geo. Holson dined with us - Mr. Holson's wife invited & accepted but did not come. We had a pleas^{ant} dinner. Had made attempts for Mr Hill before & fail^d.

Atkinson tells me that Dew keeps company with low women, and has been seen coming out of such houses in the evening of Mr & Mrs Boward. I hope there may be some mistake ab^{out} it.
A. remarks "If a man must do such things there is a more decent way," meaning them with those of the street.

He is to place his daughters in the house for the 3 winter mos.

Mr Whelan has sold within the month past near 700 worth of Bible Tracts & Tract Books

A dreadful murder has been committed close by us this evening, under Mrs. Brown's house.

Sund's Day. May 29, 1853.
Morning Luke 23.43, No 406 To day with me in Paradise; very good attention.

Mr. arrived last night. Mr C. got the letters & Mrs C. brot ome.
They speak of Johnny's death.

P. m. Bib. Class, subject of 16th of 2 Balus came up, as references to deists. I said there were ex^{pos} in them that c^d not be fully rec^d same as applied to deist.

By: Mr Whelan preacht Phil 1.10 fault-his God.

One thousand Dollars reward are off of the Union Club for the discovery of the murderer last evening. To night at 12 the body is to be taken to the Cemetery.

Kind letters from home, Patma, regarding what I had said of Jas. error in regard to John.

Thurs. May 31. 1853.

Wrote James at Mendocino, including letters from Patma.

Call'd in Ev'g on Mr Holman, Sec. of Legation - going home to die.

He spoke of the sad condition of mankind morally, and ask'd if there w'd be improvement in a future world. I told him there w'd be those in whom it began here - just then some one cut and ended the conversation.

Weds. Jan. 1. 1853.

Sent letters to D. Baird, Pa, Riley, Hays, &c.
Spending with Whelan's letter, Spectator, and paper to C. & Eng.

Loan & Holman papers.

Fight in Alsop's betw. Mickle and Stewart.

Three thous dollars reward off for detection of that murderer.

Holman says McCray who escaped the Vigil. Com. in S. Francisco, who had built so many, has been seen here.

Last Evg. old Maria went out for recreation of 2 mos. Carmen has succeeded for the victim.

To day Alex^d & Ellen & the others have come into the family. I had hard work to put up bedstead.

Bowen to day sail for N. S. off to do anything for me if I w^d send a line thro' Attenton. He says I may have a room for a study in his house, when Sanders goes out of it, and Ferrari comes in - that he speaks to F. about it, that there is a good room there.

Mr Benham lunch B'stch.

Mr Reid at two.

Cally has arranged the Cabinet very pretty. She has good taste & plans very well regarding rooms & furniture.

Gov. Mas. La roque asks if she might put her daughter (14) in the family for relig. instruction in order to her first Communion. We told her she had better come regularly into the School, and she should have religious instruction also. She spoke as if she felt the want of means of grace in French - with tears in her eyes.

This day paid Mrs Sprague $64. and rebuked her for telling the girls I had made mistake in the last pg^t to her.

Sabbath Day June 5. 1853

Morning large audience abt 407
Lecture 9 Centurions faith defined.
I thought it a good sermon. It was in mind most of the latter 1/2 of the week, but written since yesterday morning at 11 a.m. Sub up till midnight on it.

Afrⁿ question arose whether the Gift of the H. Sp^t was a part of the purchase of the death of Jesus; Mr Lindsay &
Mr Harper & Mr Simpson thought yes; Mr Whelan thought no, tho he had held such view till now. I doubted of it.

Eg Exposed Lecture 7.32 on the Censures wh men of the world pass upon Jesus.

However in the passage could say those critics were like the Ch^m that made the complaint, that they cannot please their companions.

How expt. this?

Small no. this viz Marshall and Bunham both absent; Stiffens there. Jno Wheelwright absent all day.

Mon. Sund 6. 1853.

Rose at dawn - read in Calvin to find if he represent the Gift of the Op^t as purchase of the death of De^c, and Fisher's Cathch. for same purpose; but did not find anything to that effect.

After teaching in some of the Classes & lunch went out to make some visits

Wm Livingston - not at home spoken with Mrs. L. Children coming to Sabbath Sch. regularly, and then that I had heard they had been taken out to sail on Sunday. He's only once and then of Uncle Duncan, who was going to put a friend on board a vessel. With their Father never.

Tuesd. June 7, 1853.

Call on Jones, Welsh; sick in his bed. Had Alex^{as} tracks for a imitation to the heavy & heavy laden same written for him on purpose. I pray with him.
Gave him $1.4, for wh the thanked me very cordially.

Friday June 10, 1853.

Busied about the burial of an John Croft, who was married to a child. She^d she had an order for the burial at the Ch. Cemetery, but knowing w^d 'botas al cadaveri & so wish he might be buried in the Fos. Parsonage.

Let to Mr. White for order & to Jones for coffin. I said price 10 p, cost, but w^d give 2 p towards it. see White care.

Went to tea with Mr & Mrs Richardson, met Mrs Campbell
Mr C. & R. Long.

Clear & quiet evening. They sang some songs & at 10. we ret.

was on point of going to Barnet ground but felt unwell & thinking no one speaking English I wd be there concluded not to go.

The wife of Crofts came after wards & complained that he was buried among the poor and that there was no service.

Jones came while at dinner & called out to me that he had some picture frames - I replied very well in a tart tone, not liking his calling out so. He came afterwards & I he had gone out determined never to enter the house again. I told him I can not, if he was to come & call out so on the stairs when I was at meals & might have guests. He I he came to complain of how the man had been buried, like a dog, no minutes being there. As my head ached & had all day & I knew no one speaking highly had been there - I replied very sharply to him, telling him again that I did not care. He then went away in a great displeasure.

Burial is not for the dead &
I was sure no one who there to understand a word right.

Monday June 13. 1853.

Jones is talking very hard abt me for not going to Crafts funeral on Sunday.
I hear of his remarks in var. directions.
The body was taken up and buried at 12 this day, in the vault of the uncle. I understand Mr Hill was there. He st^d have communicated with me on the subject I think, since it was only following his plan that I refrain from going up, otherwise I st^d have gone in spite of being unwell.

Thursd. 14. 1853.

Made up bag for Mr Harper, ps. beef, squash, Candies, Salt, Cocoa & choc., butter, wine, turnews, beans, sugar, oatmeal, dried app., cabbage.
He very thankful.

Lord's Day June 19. 1853.

Roseb. 7 and wrote remarks to ser. 408
- finish'd them after b'fast.

Preach'd to Small Congⁿ 408, Quos 5.18 '100! to you desiring Day of the Lord'. It was a disc. more in the tone of Edwards than I have usually preached.

P. M. S. Sch. Class S. S. Sch. well attended.

Evg Exhort. Eph. 3. 9 on the fruitfulness of the Gospel asserts & produces. It was easy for me to speak.

I hope this day's preaching may do good.
O that God from on high w^d visit us.

Steffens continued to come regularly;
Griffiths & Duncan & McQueen were there; Samuel was not. Bro Whiting never comes in the evg.

Thurs. June 23. 1853.

Having been informed by someone some person to visit Filharmonie Saloon, where balls & concerts are held - very large - for off-associations of place - doubtful.

So rode down to Codd - had been there 5 minutes when a man came to take the place.

I took it on contracts.

Robinson of Com. came early and saw Long and Robinson at the work - to begin Monday.

L. tells me the man in the next house wishes to sell his house. I D^d I will take it.

Saw Dr. the man Jones. Bot some knives & forks of him.
He seems to entertain trembling hopes of being reformed.

Mr. Pountney & Mrs. H. A.
Richardson dined with us.
Caly gone to Concert.

James & I went to tea with Mr & Mrs Campbell & after 10th evening Mt.

Mad. Larogud wished her daughter taught arith. knowl. and has placed her with us. May the S^p of God aid us in the important task.

Two more ch^{rs} - this week.

Sat. Contin^d June 25. 53
Head ache to day.

Read^g Alexander on Isa. 7. 14-16 I find the passage difficult. He exposes faults of other interpretations, but fails to make clear his own.

Morning Expose Matt. 1. 21 Jesus, shall save his people from their sins; 75 persons.

I had more freedom and se^l possession than usual.

Bible Class & S. Sch. well attended - 25 chⁿ - 6 adults, besides teachers. Question came up about Resurrection, in verse I am the God of ab.^l Isaac & Jacob, whether Resⁿ of body is stated there, or immortality alone.

Evg Acts 3. 26. How it is a blessing to turn a man from his iniquities; I illustrated by case of a man in the prison now.

O that the Lord to add the aids of the Holy Spirit to accompany his truth, so that religion may increase amongst us.

Alexander I find on closed reading does state that the Y. 14-16 of Lda. must be explain'd (as a case) double sense, at least he says

Either the prophet, while he foretells the birth of Christ, foretells that of another child, during whose infancy the promise's delinquency shall be experienced; or else he makes the infancy of Christ himself, whether foreseen as still remote or not, the sign and measure of that same delinquency.

July 3, Lord's Day. 1853.

Sat 9th. Feb. '53.

Care'd on Mrs Oswald who had lost little baby, she was gratified that we did.

Walt. Hays, singer, here. Do not think I ought to go to the theater to hear.

J. Jones very low. Saw him

Whitwell said afloat says he had "rather a dry time"; "Captain of Ship had been drunk last night and was not sober yet"; but he "tried not to doubt him with un-tempted mortals in private what
- ever the public ministrations might have been". He says "he had tried to prepare a good sermon and may be he was too much on ee".

Evg abt 30 persons. Ephtm

"excited to night".

I do long for the blessing of God to attend my preaching, but I make any little impression on this community.

O Lord remember us in gracious compassion, the way of Zion mourn, because so few come to her solleasts.

Sat. July 16/53

A man named Jos. Morris at jail sd was in for a debt for 2¢ crew gap. of wh was mate, I saw Thompson, wh had been up; he I then was memb. of Meth. Ch. in L'pool & I not get out.

Sought out the Creditor - Camino de Carnitas - a tambo of Portug.
Michado. He came with a dis-look'g Lawyer, who w^d shake hands, nam^d Alvarez - Show the claim - I man had hid away - w^d for board liquor and cash lent 17.2 - in all 40-costs added 62- and w^d throw off 8.5. Lawyer came again - I s^d the man being of such a char. I w^d not aid him - it was for liquor - he s^d no, the liquor was

'for a companion' - but he was very short and insisting again on shak'g hands away he went.

As Morris dec^d me in say'g (to see Wheeler at least) I was for de & crew, I can't aid him.

Mon., I think, Mr M. A.
Williams came, sett'g the Rev.
Mr. to teach. He seems a mild man, but talks much - told me about himself & his spec^{ce} in the ministry - cannot his mouth was closed, and when I^d he c^d preach, he did not assent at all but I^d no. He told me he was old Sch. from top to toe - that by the grace of God he hoped to do something for his cause here.

He thinks he sh^d give great attention to acq. the lang. I s^d track at once, but don't think he will.

He speaks of the Soc. at home as being bad conduct - but very kind of Dr. Baird.

My impressions are now that Mr W. is not the man for the work here - his conversation is too wandering & almost weak.

He has been unwell and I sent Oge to see him.

On Frid. Mr (Rev) Spence trips came from Tahiti, letter from Mr Howe - both false - no belief to work at Tahiti - oppos. of French - has sick
- Mrs S. on board - made up a basket - bread, sugar, tea, butter, fr. eggs, milk, lemons and sent them to her

Next day saw them at Aubrey Hotel where had got their rooms
- Pleasant people. Ask to dine with us but c^d not come; ask Mr Mus, but was sick in bed with chill.

Steffens call to bid me good by had conversⁿ with him - going to Hamburg - I if he kept Sabb. in H. as I did w^h he was mad, his own sister. I felt very anxious about him as he now leaves. He has shown great interest at Church

- but says it has been moved to improve his char. & life as a citizen. He does not know the reach of the law I fear - but is the first General on whom I ever made any impression. Gave him the Young Christian of abbott.

But I he dined with us today.
Mr. Houghton come back
Dr. Calif - call on her.

Lowes Day. July 18/53

Morning 411 acts 24.25

Mr Wms was out - Mr Spence was not.

Eng No. 245, Rom 8.20 By law kn. of Lin.

Gas Rattray was there - Rowe - Horn - Benard.

Mr & Mrs Spence came to dine and tea with us, being uncomfortable at the hotel - and all $\frac{1}{2}$ sick.

I mourn the small effects of my preaching. O that God whom I try to serve & reach the hearts of my heathens, and convert them.

Williamson came in to tea, he is very worldly.

Mon. Jul 19. 53.

Mr Williams unwell, call on him - sent him washerwoman.

Mr Spencer & wife ailing, I call'd on them also.

Call'd on Mrs. Jones. Anson had been there & prescribed Balaam.

I enq if he had given up to obey God. He sd he that he had given se all away. He says prayer is all the comfort he has now - and he is more of all anxious to secure the pardon of his sins. He has been a kind person I judge to others.

Sat. July 23. 1853.

Sold Hedges some of my furniture.

Chas. Callys bed room & dressing room, he & piano disturbed her.

Mr Williams has not come to see me this week - twice I have call^d on him. He has not been well.

Mr Spencer & family are very feeble, we wish to give them a home with us, but I am afraid to increase the work of my wife.

Mr Hill call^d & went with me to see them - he spoke of the A.S. to assist such friends of Christ; and w^d aid in collecting funds for them; no house room; Alth^o him to find if Mrs Martin w^d accommodate them, he s^d he w^d.

Astr^d Jos. Whelington if he w^d not take them in - said had but one span room & a young man was coming to occupy it, but w^d aid in anything else for them.

Adams Jones is very low - took him some jelly yesterday; he seems calmer & has hope of salvation - I have urged on him that repⁿ is the 5th point & that pardon will come thro' it.

Mrs & Capt. Edgington dined with us to day.

Hampus looks out a year ago - have just come. Jones hearing of it came and s^d he w^d say he had been wrong if I w^d say as much; wh I declined doing and told him he had acted rudely and unkindly.

I told him I had no ill will toward him, but that was all I c^d say.

He ask^d if I w^d sell him some of the books I told him I w^d not - he s^d he w^d buy of others - w^d by these of my agent I c^d but I replied I w^d not have him come to me for them.

His Conduct in talking about me has been so shameful that I can't have anything to do with him - and beside I am glad to be free from his visits in my house.

Today he buzzed Whelan to let him have the books, and on W. S. refusing - he s^d he w^d publish Trumbull in the 'papers'. I pay dear for my use of him in circulating the Sc.

Nearly finish Sermon 412, on delaying to repent till time of death.

In case wh I had advertised - ask if I c^d take of a teacher - told ab^t priests interfering with use of Parly's history in this school.

I agreed to resist & put priests out even if Sch. went down to 1/2 - told him how have none interference if he persisted to this.

Wonder what his visit was for. He apologized for coming, I said 'it is not nec.', I have been surprised that you did not call bef.' It is 2 years since he came to my house.

He 2^d he sh^d never forget my kindness to him, but was very much occupied.

Li's Day Aug 24. 1853.

This day we met for first time in the Chapel of Quak. Alameda 15¹/₂. The room was full. 412 Acts 24.25 again showing how unfit time of death for preparing to die.

Went to see Jones, sick man, read from Sc. to him & pray with him. He says he has so much pain he has hardly time or power to think abt himself.

Evg. abt 30 persons. Eph 1.14
Earnest of Sp^r.

Bro^r McSpencer was there.

~ the M^{rs} was in the morning.

Mon. July 25. 1853.

Call on Jones, very low.

Wife & I have decided to ask Mr & Mrs Spencer to come to our house & have invited them
- they will come.

Tues. July 26.

Mr Wheeler aided me in moving furniture this morning.

Mr S. & his family are under our roof to night. We feel that we entertain the Master in his servants.

Mr Marshall at tea.

Pro. Wheelwright chang^d some incurrent money & hand dollars for me for Mr Spencer to day my kind of indeed.

This is deposited at Alsops his draft on R^d Mr. J. 100 $.

Letters from Pa, Harpus, Kimball, Crane, and Hattie to Cath.

Goods from Eng^d.

Hobson was to let me have a draft or two on Rily - not yet been able to get them - shall not call for them to mor.

Sent Sp. Bibles to Rowell at Panama.

Mr & Mrs Spencer here, baby very low, small hope of its life now. Reminds us of Johnny.

Deacons - matter discuss^d of taking up collections.

Lindsey says as I can do so to lay an first day of week, as means Contrib. in Church. I doubted.

Robinson that people might be repell^d from Chapel.

Lindsey says we to visit more.
we do more good. Rob. I was so little I can sympathize among deas here. Last how often all th^t he visit - they concluded c^d go around in 4 mos. I took pen & paper & show had visited all with two or three exceptions within that time - in Congregation.

And I am promise to do so again, if the Deacons will visit them in same time - I th^o w^d.
Rob. I th^o had that I had not come to see them as often as I ought - but was convinced that I had not time to do what they had expected.

Thurs. Aug. 4. '53

Had to go to Loring's Shop & get the key of Chapel at 8 p.m. to open the room. The deacons came without it.
Mr Spencers little babe died this day at 6 a.m. I had to wash and dress the body.

At midnight went to the grave 3, with Mr Whelan - no one else went. My deacons all knew it was to be taken up.

Friday. Aug 5. '53

Uncle Sam etc. Came in last night - Monatt came letter from Pa - butter, spices and books for me.

At 10 went with Spencer, Whelan & Sturtevant to burial of Mr S. Lake. No one else came; I felt distress at the little Ist sympathy shown to a Gorp. Missy.

Mr H^{rs} I found had come too late to the house to go with us.

A letter from D^r Baird dated June 20th - unwilling to sustain the Chapel any longer here - for protestants, yet intimating that Williams might take my place & I return home if I like. I did not more than to middy - wanted to see me very much - I w^d go - before I had finish^d a fast she came again - went, but he was dead. Nurse I in the night and this morning had desired so much to see me - had been call^g for me. Was sorry not to have been there to comfort him.

I have unusual hope that he had reported.

Injured.

Saturday. Aug. 6. 1853.

Funeral of Jones - no one there but Mr. Spence & Whelan.

Goods landed today. The bookers kept back for a list to be made out.

Wrote Pa, Baird, Harpus, Dr Ditch & Ritz & Dana of this St.
Officers were all civil to me and I, & Captain Calkins to see me, but I was out.

A Capt. Brown of St. London came in here - looking after the shut friends - had me preach for Mr. Edwards in St. L.

Col. Peyton is here -

Lord's Day. Aug 7. 1853.

Morning 9.35 'Who bear witness of me'; extempore, notes prepared yesterday. Good Disc. wife says, but I was very severe in my look & speech. Room quite full.
Brewer was there & again in the Bible Class - acts 6th Subject of Deacons. Lindsay insisted that the only appoint^t there was to administer Charities; not to 2^d Supervision, nor to exercise 2^d functions. I 3^d the Cant to specify just there & in I must seem to indicate they were to do more.

I caught myself in a feeling of impatience at his opposⁿ, whereas I ought to rejoice in it that my members are indep^t thinkers.

Engl. Mr Whelan preached Psalms 'Bountiful of corn'. It was a disc. well directed; tho the transitions were at times abrupt;

the final address to impatient men was tender & to the point, tho it did not come by any very direct sequence from the subject.

Mr. Harper was out with him 2 days. Bro W. does not come now a days.

I feel a good deal of questioning in my own mind abt the work I ought to attempt among the natives; and fear lest I am failing in courage for Christ, in not taking measures to preach to them.

Aug 14. 1853. 1st Day.

Expound Luke 13. 31-33 "Character of Herod." Raining day, few out.
Br. Chapel not open.

of str. Cherokee.

Call last viz on Harper and Limpson. To night finish 414.

Lord's Day. Aug 21. 1853.

Morning 414 Luke 14.18^e "I am much excused" - Room full & well filled. Mr. Pags I was rather severe in my manner. My aim was to tell my Country plain truths. The attention was excellent. Mr. Bevan comes with tolerable punctuality.

P. M. Long discussions at Bible Class again about Gal. 3.17, taken with Acts 7.6.

(1) The O. T. texts in Gen. & Exod. seem to say the P^{ts} in Egypt - He 400 yrs.

(2) Paul appears to say 430 from Cor^e with Abraham to giving of laws - which leaves much less than 400 in Egypt.

(3) 75 souls went down into E. P^{ty} in 215 yrs come to have 600,000 men? Num. 26.51
That w^d give 2,000,000.

(4) Moses was son of Amram, son of Kohath, son of Levi, son of Jacob. Kohath went into E. with Jacob.

Lord's Day. Aug. 28. 1853.

Rev Geo. Spencer preached

On justification from all things from wh^e I do not hel^l Law of Moses.

1. What Justif^r is. 2. In whom had.
3 By what means. 4 How I do not he had of the Law of M. It was well defined - our fault had too much in it - close good and point. Mr S. is mild and polished in his address.

Mr Mans for Wheeler asked to 40 persons - full effort - or no effort at all - had spoken to him two days before about it, but yest. told wh. had made no preparation I advised him not to ask him again - I did not mean to.

J. Sch. large - took the numbers for trachus.

Evg. 1. Oct 2. 3. Tasted Lord is gracious. Good numbers, 59 40 people. Exposed.

Mr Whelan says he thinks the relig. interest will increase till a good work will be done here. I feel that my work is too fully done to hope for it.

Sund's Day. Sep. 4. 1853.

Morning 415, Exod. 13. 849
'Memorial' Com. Sermon.
Room full - hardy seat to spare.
Pyton, Green, Consul Wood.

P. M. Bib. Class all turned teachers - came home - full School. E. Osmond came to teach.

Eng. Mr. W. preach Richman and Larsons: Efford - good - plain raunch - dealing in that's doctrine.

Reading Spencers Sketches - the Young Irishman & on Election.

Com. this day. I felt more interest in preparation and enjoyed the season myself.

O my God revive his work here & hasten the inc. of his k'g'd.

Lord's Day. Sept. 11. 1853.

Preach from Numbers 23:10 "Let me die, death of the Righteous", extempore; room full. Mr Wms absent. Consul Woods lady was there, but not her, nor his family.

Wife was bled by Dr Page, and so I was unable to go to Bible Class, but taught the girls - read 2 Chapters in Judges explaining the map; and then 10 verses of Matt. 2^d Chap. They were attentive.

Ev. Mr Spencer preach from Genesis 3. 2 verses - a/c of the fall - a very good discourse - plain, tender and to the point. Showing Satans mode of temptation and the progress of sin. I trust God my honor his own holy word in good to my little flock.

Mr Brucham tells me Stonies are about - That I attempted to dictate to Mr Mrs what he ought to do on coming here: and that Subscriptions have never been accounted for. B. Lapshe is going to see if he can trace the stories to their source & will call on Mr Mrs if they have come from him.

Lord's Day. Sept. 18. 1853.

Morning service fairly attended, yet not full. Exp. for. 29.7 "Pork peace of calf" - Taking occasion to speak of the Day, giving notice of the decl. of disaffection, State of the Co. at time, prog. since, need now, and how moving such to peace. It was a pity not to have that of the occas. sooner and better for it.

In Bible Class - yr came up whether Moses' parents knew at his birth that he was to deliver the nation - and what he knew it before the Angel at the Bush told him. Acts 7. 25 appears to show that he thought to deliver them, who was before he was at the Bush

Tuesd. Sept. 20. 1853.

Today at 6 1/2 p.m. my 2 child and Son was born. My wife felt some pains at 2 a.m.; which increased regularly till night. About 11 a.m. went for the nurse & left note at Albops for Dr Page. He came about 4 p.m. & returned again at 5 1/2 - then went home to dine saying there would be time; but when I finished my dinner and went in my wife said 'these pains are bringing the baby' - the nurse said 'Son buenos estos dolores, seria bueno llamar al doctor' - so I went for him. He & the nurse came right down. When I got home Callie met me saying 'It's high time you were here', and going in I found the child born. The nurse proceeded to separate the child from its mother; who said to me, 'have you ask what it is?' 'No D^r I knew it's a boy'.

As I was sending John for the Doctor, he came & D^r it's all over; he ran in and did what remained to be done.

The girls were sent after dinner to Mrs Campbell's & I went for them at 9 p. m.

Mrs C. meant to be with Jane, but Jane urged her to continue her walk & the child was born in the reb.

We do feel very grateful to God, for all his kindness to us in bringing us thro this period of suffer & anxiety; and the little one I desire to dedicate to Him & His service from his earliest days. O for grace to aid me in training him!

Thurs. Dec. 6, 1853.

In School all forenoon.

Wife improving daily - head weak -
I tell her not to teach at all.

Little Seale giving me trouble in Spk. Span.

Having bad eyes - nitrate silver - ulcers on both.

Mr Spencer said this day for Engl - very thankful for our kindness. Mrs S. asked me to look after the rose bushes on the lady's ground, which I said I w^d. Got a draft from Alsop for him of 700 $ & Cash 300, of his thous.

Little Lindsey went too.

Mrs S. said Mr Th. had acted strangely to them - had contradicted Mr S. in the prayer meeting and got quite excited; and aptured at Robinson's speaking on the subject of wealth, said to R. that he felt his remark was aimed at him personally. Mr W. is too sensitive entirely. But perhaps there is something untold in this. He found that Robt. had told him, he had never known a minister that would not get rich if he could.

Lecture - Boon in disorder mason work - Walker custom want of punctuality.

2 Thess 3. 13. Be not weary in well doing.

Monsieur warthen - will not prohibit us again.

Matias Lopez wishes I wd present his Contract to Conant Wood at the house, as I came with W. to see him.
I said, I would.

Call on Mr Parry (midship. passed) at Eng. Hosp - hopes to land soon right in his eye - injured by a blow from a knotted kdsf.

Money paid in Shet's bright. Had given him letters to Fletcher at Rio.

Dracons bright - spoke of Trustees to hold the money with me that was contributed for Build's.

Have been very busy today with diverse matters - all taking time but none of moment.

Singletown came, I wish to pay the money I had loaned him.

I had left Mr Blakem, Sec. he retained Germans who w^d not obey him (S.) - I that he had done well in leaving & told him so. He wants something to do, in wh he can have the Sabbath to himself. Seems well disposed.
Said his father told him a man o^d not be trusted who never heard the Gospel preached.

Thurs. Dec. 13. 1853.

No letters from home - no mail came - ste. boat in N.Y.
Yest. I am rode out with Mrs Miller in her carriage.

Just - house no. 90. Mr Wm he moved in to day. He said to night he w^d like to pay for his board - felt it was not justice to me. He has written a letter to Cary lately who we don't like. He is too sensitive & retiring, and thinks C. is becoming cool to him.

Good has been very kind to me about the house next door, and so has Mr Greene. He has aided me materially in getting it.

It is sad out of repair.

Placed $18⁷⁵ at Loring & Co's

A sudgy man call'd, did not go in with him.

Barry call'd - lost place bec. of his brogue - I told him I fear he did not take care of himself.
So it was - had just been ill from it & out of his head. He had rec'd 83¢, & spent 49 for a suit of clothes & the rest had gone in fitting up his room.

My heart was touch'd for him, when he said he had no shelter and no money & told him sh have a room under the stairs. He jumped at it and then he is now told him he sh^d have it while he took care of self.

Mr Wh. asks me to lec-

Sund's Day. Oct. 23. 1853.

Morning, rose at 8 having been up till 11½ to finish sermon.

No. 418, Acts 15:3 On Communion, What it is & that it is not new birth, but a result from it. Good number and attentive.

Bro Williamson came to make a visit, I rec'd him civilly, but not cordially.

Thank to Bible Class - 2 sent by ship Masters were there Ferguson and Lindo.

Evg No. 262 Col. 3:10 Put off old man.

I commend to the Lord the words spoken this day. & that they might be the means of quick'g souls, or of leading others to Jesus.

Wed. Dec. 25. 1853.

Bad headache all night - went to Fish^{rs} bay to bathe - better - still aching. Taught some classes.
Spoke about moving dining room and Cath's room, ours and several of the girls. The an when we were at the beginning.

Susannah had taken away too.
Headache gone off.

Yesh. Mr. Whelan wish I w^d go up and see sick man at hosp^l - told him he w^d do as well of him as I c^d, and it w^d be better not to distract him by a new visitor - besides I had not the time.

Mr. Wh. has seem to feel less aggravated of late; as if he felt sighted. This was not true.

the case intentionally - altho I feel that his note to C. was a very injudicious one - that he had felt nothing like desire, but only admiration! And yet I feel that he means well.

To day I received from me two notes in place of Vidal Vidal about 184 pines

Natal Luna's due March 30/54

Mrs Grants.

Joseph Brown sends me word to make the requisite repairs but hopes I will use economy, wh I certainly will.

Lindzy having left Robinson's & gone to Harper's, says to day he don't find them satisfied - don't know why "unless it has been put into them" - and wants a room. Show him one he & I have till James returns at 10 p.m. will think.

Rode out on Stent's horse to Playa Ancha to select spot for picnic with Cady & Marshall.

Letter of this mail from Pa, Mo. F., & others. Pa's letters excellent. R. H. I. had got, out of his head, thinking se witnesses for 2 coins of Seints, that he had found him in England.

Adm' Moneys invites us to dine on Monday.

Wife well - baby well.

Simon & I & meat finish.

Sund's Day. Oc. 30. 1853.

Finish'd no. 419. Did not rise early - up late for 2 nights.

Morning preach 419, Col. 1.12. Influence of St in light. Good audience - good heed.

Williams and Jones I can't wake up.

Tabl. School about 45. Secretary Walker not there. Bible Class 3, Mr Isaacs joined it. I thought Egyptian magicians did no miracles by power of God (or Spirits probably.)

Eg. Exptone, 2 Cor. 13. 5 Examined as if in faith. Good number out. Hallelu was there.

A Lord rebuked thy work.

Susanna La Roque wishes to join the church. I fear she has not done thorough the work of giving herself away to Christ. O for guidance from above in my counsel to her.

Mon. Oc. 31, 1853.

Mr Arthur Terry takes the from tomorrow at 34.4 p.m.

Tuesd. Nov. 1, 1853.

Pic-nic for my birthday, on Pl. Ancha for all the School. W. Holson lent me a tent. Sun hot. All walked out. Had a big beef man on foot 2 horses, having promised 3 - So James & I walked.

All had happy times - ate sandwiches & cakes; and drank lemonade. At 4 p.m. all at home. Brewster

Provis, Whelan & Bros. of Quib.
Well tired at night.
No Long call.

Friday Nov. 4. 1853.

Sund's Day. Nov. 6. 1853.

This morning finished No. 420
'Do this in Rem. of me' Luke 22.19 I tried to be solemn; but many of my hearers slept. The audience was not numerous.

Mrs May Smith united with the Ch. of profession; Mrs Wood, Merimee, Helen, Miss Bannerman, C. M. Trumbull, S^r Wm Mc Isaac & others.

At the Comⁿ. several waited who were not professors. Two Withers, La Rognie, Mrs Eddington,

Mr Schöller, German. Robles run.

Did not go out to Bible Class; not well enough to have strength.

Had partly planned disc. about Optimism for the lig; but concluded to preach another. Selected 138. Psalms 50.5.

Samuel out in the lig, but very drowsy. He feels less hard than he did & is often absent.

Mr Isaac absent tonight.

I have felt more active in prayer to day than usual for the success of the work.

At the Com. my heart was drawn out for Bro. James, whom I had proposed to pray for some dear friend, at close of the Com.

James Martin, Esq. and, Capt., Copiapo' came home with me to converse - voice tremulous - wished to lead new life - 8 mos. from Engl - methodists, had bec. Sec but had never joined & Communion, gone to Ch. meeting.
Tears in his eyes, wish to experience new birth - Knew he was unworthy, & of deserving hell - He only mentioned Luis of Spanish justice etc. I told improved justice was sinful, but any other he would depend on its excess and occasion. He would be glad to join the Ch. but feared he was not worthy. Thrush of his throat

Styker had made an objection, had come up for his health out. I was pleas'd with the man & say him if he went back to meet if it were with out one den to read & pray.
May the Lord guide him and me.

Mon. July 23. 1854

Don Juan Blanco Priones came to say the lot in Zueb. San Augustin had been taken by the pres^t tenant who had the preference - that he took it at once. So that hope for the Chapel has vanished. May the Head of the Church guide to some better thing.

Cathy having said that she meant to go home ere long I told her to night I wish to know when, in order to secure other aid. She said it was a 'matter of feeling' with her, that she was not contented, and was wasting her life in teaching Chm to read. I said life if useful cannot be a routine & vain - was generally useless. I told her I had given the opport. of being indep^t and useful; while at home all was dep^t on others for any thing.

On 3^d she meant when she came to begin anew and had fail^d to please me and had so had no in-trust since. I told C. that care-ness and pride of heart I thought were the greatest diffi^cs. in her way.
Lamb is sick - gave Castor

Mr Simpson requested me to go up and see servant of Mr Hill, who is dying of consumption; wish to see me 3 weeks ago, but did not like to send for me to come to his house. Now at D. Ancon's for a few days. So I went after dinner. Found Miss Bannerman had suggested it.

E. seems an excellent Sen woman. Susan is head of the young woman. She was up & came into E's room. She had hoped for about 7 years that she was a son; but residing here had not lived as she ought. She blamed herself for want of patience in temper &c, which seemed to be all she had to console herself. She had not the resignation that she wanted.

I told her she had not a fault but she had the Corresp. & Cellars and his right now. We come all; & she must pray for resignation. She showed want of close friends, and until Eliza had no one.

I prayed with her after reading 2 Cor. 5th. She thanked me for all I had said to her and for coming up. She & E. answered Mr. Will.

in not conversing with her.

Eg. preach no. 170, on

Wedn. Call on Susan, Robinson, Gibson.

Thurs. Feb 16. 1884.

Walter with wife and girls to the Cemetery to see the stone for our Son's grave, and gave directions about placing it.

Told Mrs Hammer she might send her child to school without charge. She thanks me very much. Little I noticed she mentioned diffculty about sending her so far; and too spoke of her having been ailing.

Call^d with wife on Harpers - she Agnes - very poor. Have sent them a hash & a roast of mutton this week & some meat etc too. So mon. am to send another hash. The Ch^m liked it. Alack I wish he had a house he w^d live on hash. Poor folks!

Friday.. Feb 17. 1854.

Moreau declines publishing
Mr Campbells reply to rail road Co.
etc. he is going away unless he can give some person to stand in his place. Thus he says he will not ask any one to do. He is to leave the Mss. with me.

Mr Eg went with wife to Mrs Goldfinch's to take tea - ladies out.

Lord's Day Feb 19, 1854.

Morning heat more warm than usual for a blessing on the day. Room was full. Attention was very good. No. 427 Awake thou that sleepest Eph. 5:14.

Eg No 180 without Mss. very high - not very many presents.
Rob. not there so I had to let times and wife carried them on.

E. Bannerman said Susan was very glad I had come up to see her - and had told Mr. Hill who said he was glad.

Tuesd. Feb. 21. 1854.

This morning heard Dr. J. Smith had died during the night - suddenly. Not long ago he said 'It did not make much differ to a man when he died'; but when I said that 'It was a very serious thing to die', he immed. changed and said 'So it is'. Alas! he has been sick with little warning.

Wed. Feb. 22. 1854.

I have just ret from the burial of Mr Smith's remains. A great no. of people were present, so at the least, most merchants, - Corvoso was there -

Mr Will officiated.

Coming down walk with Mr Campbell and Mr H. over - took us. He ask'd me if Mr Sm. was not a member of my Cong^y. that he had never seen him at his. I ans'd that he had gone to Ch. nowhere.

Mr C. that it was useless to ask the gp, and strange that I had not been asked to attend the funeral.
I ans'd that our countrymen count the English.

I was pain'd not to be able to address a word to so many assembled at the grave who never go to church. Mr C. said the language of the Bu. Service "towards the close" sounded very strange. He meant the "hope that this our bro. doth".

Sat. Feb 25/54 Burial of Mrs Zuesbake.

Sund's Day, Mar. 5, 1854.

Morning Service 428 B₃ this service 32.
Shall kneel there. It was plain spoken, but kind ~~and~~ earnest-list^d to with attention.

Mrs Hols^y and Jan either united with the Ch. of profession; Mrs Gibson's letter; and Mrs Walker was to unite of profⁿ. But did not rise. However she sat with the Communicants, and I suppose that she had join^d. I am in doubt what view to take of it. Certainly it was not a public profession.

Eis. Exhort Eph. 6. 10 Show

Sunday Apr^l 2. 1854

Rev^d Jas. C. Letcher preach^d in the morning Feb. 12

Mr Lisle & Williams came in to lunch. Mrs H. was not out at service.

Eg Matt 21.

On the

fig tree that Jesus cursed. I spoke extemporaneously. Wife found fault with the style of certain expressions as "wide of the mark", & "dumb dogs that cannot bark".

Went to see Edw Abney and

The Yankee Blade who had murdered a girl on the voyage. He was sitting with irons on his ankles - said he had known me in Colchester - knew my bro. and Arthur Ward. Eng^d if I remember a revival when Methuen was preceptor under Mr Arnold's preaching. He said that then he was a subject of it - but had gone far away since.

When a pause occurred he broke it saying "This is a bad business Mr T." His trouble seemed to be that he had no feeling - not shed a tear since that night - surprised at his own calmness. Did not think any one of his temptations & handsome diff^r from what he did. Said he had that of praying & opening his Bible found the verse "I will mock when y^e fear cometh."

I told him if he w^d call on God for aid, I believed, he w^d receive it.

Monday Apr 3^d. 1854

Call on L^d to see Mary once more. Did not voice as good feelings - wish he had such as I spoke of, but fear he never c^d get them. He s^d once, for whom before doing the murder he did not think of doing it - but McLeach says all day he tried to borrow a revolver & that the jail had a knife in her bosom too. He spoke of men judging him severe, I said he must expect that and that I thot it w^d go hard with him. I did not think after coming away that he had any feelings wh^od survive the removal of his inons. He spoke of their weights as "refined cruelty".

Spoke with Fletcher about asking Wms to preach & told him my reasons for not; he tho't it w^o be better to ask him once, that w^o be enough & l^d c^o them judge for myself. D^r Baird has written me that I ought to do so.

He ask^d if he sh^d explain to D^r B. I told him "No, not as from me" - that they had neglected my letters, and I w^od not send them any message; tho' he was at liberty to say to them what he pleases.

Said him favorably.

Tuesd. Ap. 4/54.

Extract of G. Wm. Muta's letter to S. W. Greene abt schools - dated 17th of May 1854

"I had a long conversation with Moutt about the decree of Tacoma respecting religious inspection of schools. He said he had not seen it! I told him it was the most unpopular decree ever given - and unjust likewise respecting the English Schools, which were Protestants. He said teachers the Protestants tried to make their schools appear Catholics, and if so they had to submit to the inspection; but, if they declared themselves and their schools Protestants, no one had a right to interfere, because parents when they sent their children there would be aware of the fact. This is omitting and I say it that you may communicate it to the Goldsmith School

May 30th 1854.

This day at 12 m. a police officer, about captain's rank & judge, call and requested me in the name of the Intendant to come to see him.

I said at what home; and he said. at any house that suits you or. Soon after I went over. I met same officer, who went to report that I was there, & not asking me into the office of the Secretary. The Sec. said he waited; and then he went in to the Intendant. Soon he ret^d and ask^d me to come sit down him at his desk. I did and he began - in Spanish

No es Ud. Director de un Establecimiento de educacion?

Yo no soy, pero mi Señora es.
¿tiene Ud. licencia del Instituto Nacional (o la Universidad) o de la Junta Provincial de Educacion?

No, Señor, no he sabido que hubo tal regla, que fue preciso sacarla. Mi Señora recibió el café de Don Isaac Wheelwright, quien lo había establecido en 1843.

¿tiene Ud. documento del tras-paso de el?

No, se hizo entre amigos; el volviendo del país por motivo de su mala salud. Yo no estaba de acuerdo que tomase el cargo, temiendo no pudiera aguantar el trabajo. Ma.

Y - en la materia de la religion, que se ensena?

Los preceptos fundamentales del Evangelio.

Será la moral?

Si Señor.

Y el texto, que será?

El Nuevo Testamento; Cada dia las niñas leen, principiando la escuela, un capitulo y repiten el "Padre nuestro" - las palabras de Jesu Christo, o de los apóstolos y el resto de el.

Es una cosa muy delicada aquí. Vd. tendrá niñas de aquí.
Si Señor.

Y en el idioma que enseñan?

Cuando hai diversidad de la doctrina, nos callamos, no queremos tener susceptibili-dades, y no podemos enseñar lo que no creemos. No somos Catalicos, sabe Vd.

Si lo sabemos bien.

Le dije que habíamos visto el buen resultado en las pupilas de la casa - que creia que ninguna de ellas diria una mentira, y que mi Señora no traspasaría en defenderlas con las llaves de toda la casa, y que lo habia hecho satis-fundo.

El entró entonces hablar con su Señoría. Estaba adentro como 5 minutos, cuando salió diciendo, "está bueno".
Y se volvió a mi Casa.

This day Rejion Briseño and Juez de Crimen Novoa came to enquire about the School.

I showed them the rooms - they noticed the maps - & spoke with of the writing books. That to know the texts books - we have a list of them, I gave them pen & paper, collected the various books, and Novoa took down their titles, authors & dates, I translating them for Briseño - He marked the branches 1, 2 etc. 4 was religious brot up by a copy of the A. Test. Briseño ask what was the instruc. in religion - B.^d a Chap. in N. T. was read every morning, the Lords prayer repeated and that was all the instruction, and the inculcation of the moral of the Gospel in those points where all Chris are agreed. B. ask'd if we taught the Prot. Dogmas as oppos'd the the Catholic - to wh I ans'd no, that we did not wish to attack others at same time that we c'd not teach what we did not hold. He seem'd glad to have me say so.

Then they came out to lunch with us - I off'd them wine and expressed our pleas. at seeing them. After had finish'd B.^d propos'd to think to the School - express'd their gratification at what they had seen & wish'd our continued prosperit.

I mention'd to them at lunch that we receive 2 hundreds gratis, of respectable but poor families, if they know of such. Both said hundreds were too burdensome - that I must mean alumnas. I said no, our aim was to 'dorramar lucces' & not to gain. B^o I then were girls appreciated in the City-Schools that were very suitable; and I said we receive them if they select and recommend.

After they had gone - tho not till bed time - I remembered I had not said a word about the home spent on Sunday p.m., in reading and reciting from the Scriptures.

I spoke to Arthur about it; he thot it was a matter of the family and sh^d be private. He was thot so too, but that thy night day I had not told all the truth.

Brisino ask^d if nothing more was taught, than what I had said, in the School, viz: than the foundⁿ doctrines of the Gospel; I s^d nada - he s^d absolute-mente nada? I r^spond^d 'no'.

it appeared a little as if he wanted to disarm the prejudices of the other.

At lunch B^o ask^d if I knew of a good 'professor' to teach English - he & his friend wish to leave. I had for a mind to volunteer to teach them.

Told Coad about the School and the Intendants.

He told me of talk with Albano, Morua and Dulicas, who said were not going to interfere with schools. He told of my case.

Told them we w^d not rec. a priest into school and if it were then closed w^d be trouble thro the Councils, and have to pay for it.

He s^d Albano w^d write it all

Mr. Mogg came for a Bible, felt different, wanted to read it.
Said we were very rich men there. Went up.

A Norwegian was my low-broken Engl.; I not understand much; spoke to him in simplest words - that God was ready to pardon him, and only wanted him to say he was sorry for his sins, and did not mean to sin any more. He assented - said he felt so; but soon added we all in every day - I said then every day we need spirits. I was with him - as I did so he would at each sentence say 'Yrs', 'that is true', 'Yrs, so I feel'. When I rose to come away he said 'has gone', I turned towards him, he stretched out his hand, with a full eye said 'I thank you', good by, 'I thank you'.

Sunday Day. Aug 27/54

Ps. 10. 13 Why wicked continue God? 438-84 rewritten. Full chapter - good attention - a plain sermon.

Rev C. K. Colver of Worcester
Mass. was with us.

He preached in evening on why wicked allowed to live so long. He said all was included in why was a wicked man allowed to live so long - on why sin allowed at all under the Govt of God. Very popular style of address - 'fellow' and 'rascals' occurred. An hour. Very body attention.

Slept here tonight - in parlor.

Mon. Aug. 28/54.

Mr Colver went to market with me. Close Conn. Baptist. asked if he c^d not communicate with us next Sunday. He said he c^d not. Told him about the relation of things with the Ymcs. He thot with me there had not been frankness on the part of the Ymcs. at home of the Soc.
Said it had strong hold on the sympathies of Ymcs in N. Eng. P.

He heard this dg of his sisters

Wm^r Loringstone & wife professed faith in Christ and Communion.

^N Sam had two interviews with him, one with her, and one with both. At Ch. meeting on Thurs. 4th. It was said coldness exist betw. his family & Wm^r Loringstone. We adjourn to Sat. 5th. App^d Com. Robinson and Self to see them.

I ^{alone} saw Wm^r L's wife - greatly, complaints, not ready to go & see the others. He too, even afterwards, w^d go if his wife wanted.

Rob^t went with me to Al. Loringstone.
Surprised to hear others doubted if

It be rec^d cordially of him. I ask him if he go see them "Certain".

"Will you go now?"

"Yes, at once". "Wife will you go too".

"Yes! as soon as I put the Children to bed".

This was right.

Wm was to come & tell me on Sat morn the results. Did not come.
Alex. was to come he did at 11

Friday Sept. 8/54.

Wife, Maria and Baby in Gig and I on horseback out to Salinas. Found Mr. Lloyd more very polite. He spent the day going about with me. Said he had tried to get the Am. flag for the occasion. Mrs L. was not at all well. He showed me the line as wrought beyond - the now relinquish line.

We climbed about the rocks on the shore. Returning to house found Cally and Mr Marshall - they sat before dinner.

The wind - and, after a very pleasant day, out to town. Got back after dark. Baby as active & happy all the way.

Sat. Sept. 9/54.

Mr. Brewster of Ligua call for book school in English for a friend & Spanish for himself. He said he liked good read for his Ch - both Bogue's Magazine and Cinulos Para Niños - tracts too.

Said "I am a Rom. Catholic," "but know my right" - that he owned the etc. and w^d read them. He spoke in Open. and in Sept.

Grat. Henry went home with her Papa and sisters. The fear she will not return. It will be a great pity if she does not come any more;
for she has just got where she can begin to receive an education. Jane says he read his Bible every day. O may the Spirit of God lead her to know the Gospel savingly.

Geo. Bealway was there - for two times in Eng. Audience rather thin.

Eulogia was reading Rom. 2 Ch. and did "not understand;" so I read it once with her. After I prayed with her she says she feels strong in the purpose to serve God and be a Santifies she is pardoned. I ask if she ever feared she was not. She said, yes. I ask if she thought the Holy presence & love God always; She said yes - do you think it will always be easy; she said, no she did not. So I told her to wait on the Lord for strength.

Mon. Apr. 16/54.

Rode out with family to Salinas.

Slyds very polite. Mr. L. took me into his office show'd me his cigars and told me to help self.

All lunch together and then came into town. Marshall & wife with wife, Mrs. Bay, Fay, and Rafaela. Call Mr. L. & I rode in in 2 saddles. Came by line of Rail Road. He showed us where sea had carried work all away - Camp at Henderson's docks - said sure I. disclaimed some of it now & said it bad go

"How much better if nothing had been done without Mr Campbell's knowledge," or to that effect. Call my attention to the solidif of it as now constructed, with it certainly appears - said it had been one further already. Then how much 2 masons and gang of persons ^{had} done in make of stone basin water - about 12 ^{sq.} ft, and as many cubic - slow sure. Said at first he was told directions w not afford it - He replied they must "stand to dog with saddle" - not having muddled notions - took them away elsewhere - I have done better had I kept them - for he took hold to do them at once.

I am impatient, and impetuous and hating restraint to check me.

Writes on 439 - not finished even yet - go to bed too tired to think clear.

Sund's Day. Oc 8/54. ...

Rose before six, took Messengers went out with chapel notices.

Spoke with Tinsley. I said -

"I never see you at church".

"O no; I never go. I haven't got time"

"But you've got a son. I to Lane".

"O! I've been about the world a good deal. I know enough to take care of my self. Them things is all well enough for some folks, but I don't had 'em".

"Yes, but you believe J'es. Is't him?"

"Yes, I believe that".

"Did he live a good life?"

"Nun -

"He did in ³very good?"

"Yes he did in such things".

"Well he said he was the Son of God, from Heaven".

"Yes he thought so; but if he was he said at last "Let this cup pass from me", and if he was the Son of God why didn't he get rid of it? He went too far & then he c^d not go back and the Father him"

"I said, he meant to die when he came, I said so".

Some one now interrupted us and giving him a message of thanks me & a card I said "I hope you will come to Church."

"Will it be more than I can understand since I hear no more?"

I gave some to a young Engl.
