Two Germans.

Thursd. Nov. 7. 1854.

Allie is very low - swollen face, hands & feet. Blisters on stomach.
Des have put him on milk again.

Wed. Nov. 8.

Allie appears better somewhat. I wish & pray he may be spared, but to be a good man and to serve God.
I ask no higher honor for him than that he may be a Christian man and minister. If the Lord will my father may see him I ask no more. Perhaps he will take him away from earth for his wellfare & my increased grief.

Thursd. Nov. 9

Allie smiled in the morning.

Mr. Simpson sent to Bridges garden for milk for him. Very kind. Page has brot Petit and Pretot to see him - very attention has been shown by them - and great interest & friend.

To day swelling gone down and allie looks very thin. He suffers pain. Milk passes hard as chase - and has to be given esp.
Decoc. of Pear. Rte is used to day.

Alas! my sweet little boy is going down to the grave. I have hardly a hope of his life - Such a healthy, happy boy. I mourn.
But he belongs to God and I will Confide in Him - He may do as he will with allan. O may I meet him in Heaven myself.

I am engaged about buying a church lot. Society was formed on Tues. night.

So I go here with Alford. He will make out the writing. He is liberal. Had long talk with I was sent to Mr Blake on Sunday at the fugue meeting.

He spoke of it to night and made a general explanation I told him I was sorry for having said what I did and hoped he would forgive it.

Friday. Apr. 10. 1854.

Allie seems very bad, like death even, in the night. This morning revived some. Page & Petit ordered a preparation of iron with cod liver oil - and began at 1 p. m. He has seem' benefited of it - since - more active, more jovial, and more willing to retain food. Discharges not very bad. Mrs. Day she tries to be wise but finds it hard.

Land not yet purchased quite.
There is a censo for 125$ of Convent of San Augustin. Alhendi says Larcher be sent to pay that before the proper passes & so escape "injuria de terceras partes".

Wrote Hantland, Greene and Ritz to ask them to subscribe to Chapel Building.

Oct. Nov. 11, 1854.

Allie's stomach rejects the oil and iron. His face is at times such a picture of helpless pain; and then when it passes he looks so calm, and even tries to amuse himself, singing his little song or playing with something. The scenes of death as I went thro them with Johnny come up to my mind. Now I am to lose another sweet child. I wd be glad to have him remain; but he belongs to the Lord. He loan him to me, and in taking him takes his own. I submit to his right - I Confide in his sup^r. wisdom and love. All that skill & Care do has been done, I think, and now it is God's will that Allie learn us. God's will be done with mine and me.

I must now improve the affliction. God chastises to correct my faults. I have

1. allowed myself in a hasty and petulant temper. Hence I've begun and be guarded; & learn to suffer wrong if need be, and more than all never do wrong to others.

2. I have been careless in personal religion, and deficient in prayer as well as in study.

3. I have not made sufficient preparation as I ought. O God aid me to do better.

4. I have not made private efforts for the conversion of sinners; whom I know & and often meet with. Atkinson, Brown, G. Hobson, & many others, I have never spoken directly to them.

15. And then about the people of this Country. Are doing the work of God among them? I scarcely know what to do. Yet surely my communication might do more than have yet done.

Here then by the bed of my dying child let me give myself away to the Lord again. My child goes to Heaven.
I charge myself to meet him there.

8½ p.m. Allie has been very sick; his extremities grow cold.

10. p.m. He revives - took some broth - warmed his feet with bottle of water - broth passed from him undigested, as he drank it.

11 p. m. Allie is quiet now in bed with his mother. Lizzie and Cully both off to sit up with him; but Jane cannot part with him.
She says "it may be the last night I shall sleep with him, till we are in the grave". I go to bed putting my son in the hands of the Lord. Carry dear Saviour the Lamb in thy bosom.

12 o'clock gave him a mixture of Iron, 6 drops with sugar and water, omitting the oil. It came up at once wholly or in part. He wanted food - gave him rice water with Chicken boiled in it, and he slept till 3 - gave him more. He wanted more still, and took all there was.

London Day. Nov. 12. 1854.

Rose soon after 5. Allie has more strength and retains his food. at 6 gave him the iron - he threw up instantly. But soon took breath and retained it.

I went to bathe in order to get strength for the labours of the day. On the way near the C. House stones I lifted my heart to God, and put my child entirely at his disposal. Lord do with my child, whom thou givest me, as thou wilt. It hardly seems within the limits of expectation that he sh^d continue. The ste^r. is in from Panama.

Monday. Nov. 13.

Contrary to hope Allan is a little better. at 12 m. yest.

I told Jane to give 30 drops of murriated Tinct. of Iron without the Cod Liver oils. This he retain.
About 2 p. m. a most fearful thirst and heat in head. I took humbler of Cold Water & gave him a drop at a time for an hour; and put wet cloths on his head.
This relieved him. Lirrie kept it up. Jane followed.

Sat. Nov. 18. 1884.

Many enquiries on all hands about the Baby Great Symp-ty has been shown us.

Albion's stomach and bowels are improved. He is very feeble; and suffers from wind very much. Page gives Turpentine; injections of linseed with 12 drops;

and doses of Cast. Oil, tea Spoonful with 5 to 10 drops.

My hopes are raised a little. Lavin and Grandma are most helpful for Allie; Cally is about the house.

Sund's Day. Nov 19/54.

Morning Nov. 29 - Rev. b. 16. I had planned to rewrite it. Good audience.

Ev'g Nov. 16 - Rom. 8.9 hymn not sp^t of Acusky.

Wife went out this evening.

Call^d meeting for Thursday viz. ab^{ts} Pecuniary affairs of the Church.
Also said if any wish to have relig.
Communion Call on me or I will call on them.

Mon. Nov. 20. 1854.

Rose at 6^{1/2}. Went to blacking.

Allie had slept till midnight, but from that hour had waked often. Lizzie was holding him when I went in this morning. I slept in Sitting Room. He had been up most of the night. Gave him teasp. of Cast. oil and 10 drops of Srupentinas.

At 10 a. m. was hearing girls read. Lizzie came and said Jane wanted me.

I replied I could not come.

Jane came to Sitting room door and said I must come, I went supposing it was to prepare some medicine, when I find allie gasping, pale, growing cold.

I was so sorry for having said I could not come; and for being short in my answers. I told him so.

11. a. m. Dr. Cand. He looked inlined on my son. At noon he said "He is very low. I fear the glands are obstructed, so that he can't nourish. His stomach and bowels have been better quite now for a week; yet he don't come up."

Oh the Lord is taking him. Out into the dark of the future I hand my helpless little one to the Saviour. I trust in Him, that he will take care of my helpless son, in scenes where I cannot follow him now.

1 p. m. Albie has revived. Swallows better, and is warm. Am surpris' at the failing I have had that it was of no use to apply bottles of warm water to his feet when he seemed dying. Jan has done everything & twice he has improved and rallied.

It is hard for him to swallow.

6 p.m. & that afternoon was now really passing away. Dinner was on table, but Jan, mother, Lizzie, Cory and I felt unwilling to go from him. I lost his pulse at one time, and thinking no hope remained waited, almost wishing, to hear the closing breath. However again he revived - took food &c.
Catarrh and gizzards was all troubled him from the resistance of the wind, but broth did not.
So Jan gave that alone.

D. came in again, said, might continue thro night.

Jan lay down on bed
No. in Carrie's room Lizzie in sitting room. I am floor of our bedroom. Cannot sit up with Alice.

Tuesd. Nov. 21. 54.

Wardish. Lewis not called.
Alice can swallow enough food, tho not much.

He slept much thro the day, and taking broth & sleeping again.
No medicine. I think he is failing tho I can hardly tell why.

I have given him up once or twice, and when he has improved and I hoped he would live, it has been more hard to surrender him again. However my heart now is to say God may do what will glorify himself with dear little the Alice. If he takes him away I will submit & console.

Mrs Wood off to come and sit up with him. She came.

Mrs Richardson and Mrs Thos. J. Smith have come in often.

I slept in sitting room.

Wed. Nov. 22. 54.

At 2 a. m. wife called me to "see the last of our darling".
She held him. He O'Dwallow and took breath to the last.
I was taken very sick at stomach - something had eaten.
Had to lie down. Again Jame called. It was near 3 a. m.
Two minutes before his breath had grown short. I held his pulse - it failed - I laid my hand on his eyelids - his mouth opened a little and he was dead!

Mrs Wood & Cathy did all afterwards. Jane & I slept a while. I felt sick. At 4 I went to see him - Onk in sitting room and his body in it as if in a sweet sleep. Dear Baby - another - so healthy and happy - alas he is gone! Lutherus went to Mr Wm for an order I call on Apfelgren. Cathy placed some roses about his head - he looks very sweetly. Wife was sustain^d.
At night his Coffin came. I aided to place him in it. J. Holson the man Risco got Lutherus' beam to move at 8 p. m. Mr Marshall, Capt Gardner, Lutherus, Mr Minnie went up with me & Simpson.

Lord's Day. Nov. 26. 1854.

This morning preach no. 41, on 1 Oct. 3. 15 "Ready to give a reason".
Room well filled.

Mr Gregory call today his wife was distressed at having him come down to Sabh. Sch., and that it troubled him. He said others spoke of her that she ought to teach in the School etc - she was troubled at it - he told her not to care. I told him I knew Mr Robinson criticised Mrs G.
Prof Sharshy. He said his wife had never given her any cause for feeling unkind. I told him I knew it. I am to see Mrs G. in the week and get her to let him come down to S. School.

Eg Cho. 1 mo. 3.20 "If our hearts condemn us, God is greater". good audience. H. Cood, P. Whig and 3 daughters, Geo. Garland, Capt. W.
Eliot and wife, Goldfinch wife and Miss Horne, Chas. Gray and wife (Maria Teresa Delano).

Coming home at my door Cood said "Good bye, Doctor, God bless you". "If you are down my way come and see me". "I want to see you. Come down and see me".

I told him I w^d.

I had said to him this noon how badly the Mrs. Service sounded when read at Burial of some,
as M. T. Smith.

He said we must not judge.
I said, that's just what the Service does.

"But and ~~is~~ he charitable?"

"But if a man has given no ^{idea} how can we say we hope?"

He said he had felt sometimes that had better have been left out.

O! if a serious impression might be made on him!

Sund's Day Dec. 3. 1854.

Morning No 53. Heb. 12. 2. Altho and finishing.

Eg. No. 47. Matt. 6. 21. Whose treasure is most also.

Oct. 22 Continued from 3p.
back. My house was left so much agreeable.
I did not consciously murmur, but I think of what is said of Homer "Woe that man Childless". Family prayer this day was held in Alice's room where he lay in death.

And now he lies in the dark chapel - all alone.

D. Page & Petit examined his bowels. The stomach was well - first 3' of bowel three sacculi - next 3' in high inflammation, just beginning - and last 3' large bowel had ulcers that were healing, some had healed.

Nov. 23. Wedn. 1854.

At 9 a.m. went to funeral.
As Will not officiating I did not feel free to call on him, as I had sympathy in his affliction, & read a few verses & said I hoped I might take my child Job. 1. 21; Isa. 40. 11; Luke 18. 16.
I said little. At the grave I thanked all for their attendance and sympathy. My voice was choked and I could not articulate.

John's Coffin was in sight and Allie's was laid by the side of it. My sweet legs
- they never met - till they met in the grave! Maybe their happy spirits have met in the bright world. Farewell my Children.

Sat. Dec. 9. 1854.

Mr Campbell is here
yst. wife and I went to Rose late at 7 1/2.

Morning service - many - No. 442.

Rev. 318 "Buy of me gold"

Evening No 52. Rom 14. 17 by in H of G host.

Baptised a child to day of German father & Engl. mo. in the Chapel. And another of German who I not speak word of Engl. in my house. The father came alone with a friend or two, females; I told him the mo.

must be present. Tried to impress on them, in Spanish, that it was a vol. dedication to God.
I found they had no distinct perception of it. But I do not feel at liberty in such cases to refuse, when they say they are Christians themselves.

I have long for the aid of the H. Sp^s to accompany the word of God preached.

Mr Campbell was with us today twice.

Mr Heywoods little baby died last evg at 9 p. m. Just like Allie & Johnny.

Lord's Day. Dec. 17/54.

day for the word of God to have a saving power.

London Day. Dec. 24/87.

This morning Mr M. A. Williams preached - Rev 3.20 & stood at the door and knocks. He showed us the wounded glory of deists, as he that knocks; the wickedness of the hearts at which he knocks; and the means of doing it - general influences - Providences - Word - Counsel of Jesus - and Holy Spirit. It was a very good sermon. Chap. full.

Eg No. 443. Jno. 7. 46 'new man spoke like this man'. Good by audience. O that the word of God might have effect. We need a stronger influence. May the Holy Spirit come down on us. ✓

scriptions for Building Chapel

Rev. Laid, at parting, deacons wished to see me - appt Friday at 1 p.m.

Friday Jan 5. 1855.

At 1 p.m. met Dracous, Robinson, Linda and Gregory. They said they had been ask^d why the hour of 2 service was changed, and why to that hour (4 p.m.).

I ans^d hec. I did not think it safe to go over the road after dark. They had supposed I w^d come in town to stay over Sunday. Linda ask^d why I c^d not trust provid^{ce} to guard my family over Sunday. Rob.ⁿ said they had felt "severely treated" in nothing consult^d more. L. said in joining the Sociey. R. own I had consult^d him ab^t it.

L. said if I wished to devote myself to the ministry I ought to have taken counsel with them, and he that a suffrat^e I have been raised. G. said 6 p.m. w^d be the only hour that w^d give "peace" now. I consented to it for the present. They did not allow much for my convenience.

Sund's Day. Jan'y 7. 1855.

Wife in town. Finish a sermon two of close of sermon. Walk into town with Lizzie - arriv'd at 10 1/2.

Preach new disc. 445 Job 16/22 Approp. to New Year. It was good and well, listened to.

Audience was thin rather. Campbell was absent. Jas. was with us. Mrs and Grier were there.

P. M. At out - to visit hospital - time was short & I ret.

At 6 went to Chapel - few at first but more came in about 30 people in all.

Extempore - Matt. 18.3 on becoming like little children.

At 7 wife and I took a gig and rode to theatres with little Cornish. A. join' us and walk'd with us there - we get home at dusk.

I have some fear about being on the road late. Perhaps after a while I shall not care.

May the blessing of God's spirit attend the preaching.

May I be guided to make the best arrangement for preaching the word of God. Call Congⁿ for Tuesday Ev^g at home

Tuesd. Jan'y 9. 55.

Wrote at 1 p.m. I felt that my dracons did not use me well, but strone to act and feel right myself.

Paid some bills.

Sgn^d Accord with muller.

Visited Brn. Back. He is low.
Expresses some faint hope, but says is not clear. I read "Come unto me all ye weary". He listens: joyed with him.

8 p. m. Meeting I op'd it with prayer - and stated that 7 1/2 w give largest audience, but not many of our people - that I c'd not go over the road after dark tho', nor leave my family.

Jones spoke that 7 1/2 sh be the hour
- others go to theatre - ride out - or
at home.

Scott want'd same hour Blake that it best.

W. Livingstone spoke in tones as if he was not- cordial - S. School was main spring - then ministers re-conducted them.

Someone sug why I had gone out - to Lomas - I said to sustain anger, and yet have time for my min. duties.

Lin. May said again Ist. Lane laid the case before my congregation & that a support I have been raised.
Rob.ⁿ said there had not been confid.ⁿ Octo. me and my people - as might have been had I visited more and endeav^d myself to them - that they had known the min. had too much to do - and he ought have told them so - He said I had been ask^d to visit God fearing persons coming here, and had not, or the Congreg. might have been larger and able to support me.

Goldfinch told him if they knew I had too much work to do, they ought have relieved me - but that they had that Mr J. was sustaining so and they need not trouble themselves. This Robt. said was a mean thing, and that some present had given for that Chapel when they had but little to give.

Lindley said each one give triple what he did.

Goldf. said then the fault was not mine (but then you not doing it).

I said I w^d not have the blame laid on me of not having mentioned this to the Deacons, since I had twice referred to it; and more than that it was their duty to have off to sustain me if they felt they w^d I did not think.

My Deacons have impaired my confidence in them. R. and S. I conceive equivocated in in this matter, giving out that I had never bro't the matter to their knowledge, whereas I did speak at last - Dracoms meeting, of having my salary fixed however small, and R. with G. replied "you know do all we can, it must be very little"

Son' mor. ago they urged more visiting and I said I had no time for much visiting since I must make out my own supports of the school - this was to all 3.

Marshall said he had spoken to L. and G. both, and they had said the Min. ought to have 2000$, but he of the building now as the worst time to bring it forward, and it c^d not be done.

Hence when they implied that something might have been done had

I consulted with them - I conceived they did equivocate.

G. said it was clear Mr. J. was not yielded to anything else than 4 p.m.

At last - it was voted 4 1/2. The Sabb. Sch. was the great hindrance in the way.

Sat. Jan. 13. 55.

At home all day - finishing No. 444.

Wife in town. Very quiet.

On Wed. Call'd at Hospital - spoken seriously with two men - who list with attention.

Call'd at Mrs Harper's. She always speaks like a Christian. She ref'd to the complaints some make - was glad I had moved.

Call'd at Mrs Blakes - very busy papering walls.

Call'd at Mrs Woods - Lucy - did not see her; saw Mrs Minnes.

Yest. bade Campbell good bye
- told him approved his piece to on abt Rail Road.

He said if my Congⁿ broken with me his own & his Bros. Subscⁿ he wish me to dispose of as I think best - he promised to write, and show forth.

Jas. thinks of retg to Sta Rosa - and some care of Botica with Reid.
I said come any part of the way back, I w^d be glad.

He seem'd sad or silent yest. He said he was in love - Call'd that it somewhat else, but knew not what.
O if he might be comforted.

Son's Day. Jan'y 14/55.

Rose Inf. 7 - finish'd 444 - begun 2

Broh. conducted it, having begun as I got in.

4 1/2 preachers - about 40 persons present. Good attention.

Went at Carri's - walk out all the way. Jane rode to Atholens. Mo. rode all way with Alice and Harry.

Mon. Jan. 15th 55.

Rufino begins carp. work at 8 a. m., at 2 p. m. day; with a boy at 7 a. m. ditto - both found I have paid him one owed already; and prob. owe him for a day's time in getting lumber etc. already.

Sund. Day, Jan. 21. 55

Rode in to breakfast, on James' white horse - rough.

Went off at 9¹/₄ with Mr. Grier. Capt.
Hawthorn was very civil. At 10¹/₄ at Capstan began. Read Isa. 55. Praised Psalm Isa. 55. 8 My thoughts are not your thoughts. Very good attention.
After had finish officers were all very civil - some complimentary.
The appearance of the crew was excellent - never heard over a better.

Post and went to Chapel; in time for sermon. 'I and my Father are one'. Good sermon, but such subject demands the pen.
Mr Williams did well; invited him to come out on Friday evening and stay till Monday.

P. M. went to Sabbath School Spoke to Children - about the ^{greater} ~~base~~ of their giving their hearts to Christ, than for grown people.

4 1/2 preach 446; "All are yours" I got light on this passage, 1 Cor. 3.
21-3 in writing. Had it in hand weeks ago - could not see how the word is a curse - laid it by - thus time I saw clearly, it is in all the modes of his Contact with it as a means of preparing him for Heaven.

Calculation about cutting away the bank west of the house.

Wm MacIntosh said it was worth 40 to 50 ¢.

At a rough measurement, it is $3\frac{1}{2}$ ft high on average

26 " wide

$\begin{array}{r} 78 \\ 13 \\ \hline \end{array}$

9' 30 ft long

6370 solid feet. This is to be cut away for 46¢, which is about 8 mills the cubic foot. It consists of soil, loose stones and "gravel", or tramp gneiss - 21 cents solid material: this is about Rail Road pay, the Lloyd's contract at - 18¢.

Sunday Day. July 4. 1855 -

Wrote in after breakfast.

Mr. Blake's sermon Matt. 13. Last verse.

He sketches the position of Nazareth and their treatment of Jesus, and his leaves them very graphically: that he never ret'd to N. afterwards - then the Causes of unbelief (1) Men take the faults of Jesus as a ground of remains away from Christ. (2) A general dislike which does not amount to infidelity.

Christ may be led to forsake the soul.
And do none of his right works
there.

P. M. M. B. L. went to Sabbath School and made a few remarks. He appears a really good man.

he cd to find the matter out.

me a 1st stranger. She is better. Spoke of my being so far away from the

she had thought I ought to judge, but that others had complained.

Mr. Stuntz it is fair. His judgment has so far been high.

Call on Mrs. Riddell to day. She had come from Cag^o expecting to come to our house - and was so grieved not to be able
- she had seen there was good reason against it. I told her she should come if she wished to - that we did not wish to induce her to come. She wished to come, and asked the charge. I said we were taking her for nothing if we were able, but were not - said she knew it and did not wish it. I told her Mr. Stuntz had paid 20.
She was silent. I asked if that would suit her.
She said she would think it over and see if we means to support her & Alice - wished she had known this a mo. ago.
I her niece to remain in Cag^o - had seeing them & C^o do well enough.
I spoke with her again on her Ordig. State. She seems clonord in her hopes - speaks of having left God-d point to Jo^e and said take him as he is & for you as you are.

Promised to see her on Tuesday.

Saw Oswald already Cab. Told him that^o did not like the harness - that it never had been mention^d in the

He said the Cab. was better than those of the St. and Cheap at 24 1/2 or.; that the harness he sold at 1 1/2 or., but the extra was for the superior of the Cab.
Bry. he had told me 30 $ was the price.

Remarks good.

After He came in bef. 4 1/2, we pray'd tog.

A good conf^g came, tho fewer than I had hoped to see. I preached Miracles compared with others.

Room full - good attention from all. Eng. Chapl closed still.

Went to Am. Hosp.!

Conversed with Geo. B. Reynolds of St. Johns Nfld - fine youth - "never troubled much about relig."

Said that he w^d not like to lose his soul, that if he did not care it w^d be because he thought there was no such thing as Hell, and that was to contradict Christ; or else he was boasting of tomorrow, when he knew not what w^d come of it. He said he "had never sinned much, except drinking" - When I spoke of minor sins he said he had just done one of them, sewing for a friend on Sunday, and point to the work.

He seem'd very frank - when I rose to go, began to talk again as if he wish'd it to stay. Gave him a book "going man from home", and begged him to be a son.

Astorio Parker of Astoria N. Y. was in a nasty state of mind
- sailor - I beg'd him to act, and now he saith. Said he did pray sometimes, and want'd to be a kn; but the diffic. for his kind of life.

Wm Fowler of Guernsey - had always tried to be good - hoped he had repented.

Jos. Dyer, St Johns Aft - ship

Arab - pray that God did not send to answer him - had so often tried to be a Jew, and have drawn back / Comp^{rs} at sea. Eyes glint with tears. Read 5th Psa.
Pray with him.

Mrs. McKimney Cooper of Illinois - meant to be a Jew when got home - used diffies in the way - division, made game of etc - I said better her that than he lost.

Gave books & tracts to all these and to others - I have had a more pleas^t visit to the Hosp^l.

Mr Blaker preached this p.m.
25 people. "How escape if neglect so great salvation?"
Coming out with me afters.

He asks me to suggest any objects in his sermons or preaching - I did:
to condense a little - be familiar with Mrs. - drop a sort of transcendentalism of voice - and a caustic immolation when recapitulating ahead already finish.

He and wife & daughter came out to stay with us.

Monday March 12/55

Mr. J. P. P. went to day Writing No. 453. Authentically - in Paly & Landred. Paly better than ever before - ones all facts to L., style is his own.

L. appears very candid - so little of Pastoral, but he is not under the impress. of a man that thrust his victorious home on reasons. A wonderful work.

Speaking of women preaching at L. tonight

Wife says Anna, Deborah &c did encourage people of God - why
th. hom. not now?

Ans. says James did not app^rwom. to preach the Gospel.

Livestock of a young woman

Mon. March 19. 1855

Walked in before breakfast, bath in the Estero as I went - headache - Mr B. with me.

Went to Hospital with Mr Marshall, First spoke with Pro. Mc Kenney again. Still making excuses at difficulty of his a son among such people, and means to become an settling home, and to do the best he can. I told ^{him} the best thing he could do was to repent of all sin and return & had trespassing his Court.

Met ^{to} a dark man Johnson of Portsmouth N. H. - did not think him a son - nor know if he was sh^d be. I said but you do not want to go to W. M. No, he said. Then I urged him to seek forgiveness at once & he said. Could not read. List^d with some attention to come over these roads in the

To day at home all time writing on Barnon 453 I say I see Anthon's refers to 4 gospels. Butt clearly make out till time of Ignatius. Then the references to Gospels are very indistinct as books extant. It has to say app. to me hec. Quents were 20 recent :. the references to the records were less nec.
and so less frequent.

Mr and Mrs Blake with us.
Mrs Hill call on Jane .. she is at Galamond, not call on us, and still more not call on Mr Blake at all.

Advised Bl. to pay his passage note before going south. He says asked Geo. Thompson about it, who told him he had it not, and knew nothing when it was.

Bl. says when he first spoke to Th. about it, he spoke to him in a scornful manner - however he may have changed his tone after speaking to me.

Sund. Day. Mar. 18/55.

Reached 453 on Historic Evidence of Gen. Wm. tracing line upward from Euphraites. Excellent attention.

Responded for p. m. Took nap.

Gen 48. 18. "Face like a river."

Mr. Bl. walk out with me & his Son.
Says his Son is in a tender state of mind wishes me to speak with him. Father looks very tender - voiced Chas^d with emotion.

To day Mrs Harp's daughter baptized Margary Gregory.
Gregory & Robinson not at church this P. M. nor the Livingstons any of them - nor Halbes.

Monday 18. Resumed.

He was civil, yet rather wandered close personal words, gave him Paley's Evidences to read.

Baker of Down N. H.

Had been prof^d den - was ashamed & met decent people - I ask'd if he had made shipwreck of his den Chas. He said no, but all his clothes had been taken away by Indians & and told who goes nude

False name of Wells - given him since with Drugs in it. He had a hard stony to Wm - had been knocked down and beaten. Was not regular sailor, but a taylor. Said he pray.

Geo. Wilkinson of Nantucket, lost an eye thro' man of war's gun, of ship-said gun was the cause of his with them and of quarrelling with them. Meant never to see that any more. Urged him to turn over a new leaf in all respects. Wm said he did not know but that w^d be the best. He s^d he never had felt much about relig.

John Dador, did wish he was a W, but seem^d as if his prayers were not heard. Th^t he had more feelings than he used to have, but did not feel enough. Last visit home had seen his friends all dead, and that had made him think about it. Reflected that his throats w^d go off when he prayed to something else. His eyes fill^d up as he spoke. Said Chief impression had been made on him by a letter from our Aunt of his.

Gave him Jas. Moore. Aug^r. - Thank me very much for coming.

Another man in room with him from Penn. - meant to be a Sec when got home.

Geo. Reynolds - said he had that a good deal of what I had said to him. Had prayed. Still, had not sinned greatly. I told him any sin ag^t God was great, and exposed the soul to the pains of Hell. Urged him to pray as I did for a new Heart.

Another young man from Storer was glad of something to read.

See Engl. Hospital

Game tracts and books and Misssengers. All well re. all thank me.

Call'd on B^r Leeds with Mr Marshall - an Commodore, Mr Rev Taylor and Capt. Tatum. All very civil. Com. Murren ask if I meant to pass my life here. I told him, yes unless turned out in some way. He spoke of the hostile feeling to us in this Country.

He said Salter at Rio was on cold terms with Brit. and French ~~Chambers~~ - not saluted. My saw-boat on his arrival - he did not in return, nor had he called. Murren had found them Cordial - Frenchman had saluted

Am with 13 guns. It seems 11 guns on a Commodore's Salute in the A. and N. Navies.

Mr Taylor was cordial, some mannorism, insisted we sh^d stay to dine on board, but I declin^d.
Wanted to know if I was of Com^d.; and once or twice how long I had been here.

Capt. Tattall was civil.

Lieut. Nye show us about the ship - and was very polite.
They were preparing for a Ball at night. Com. asks if there was any use in inviting me. I told him I had forgot how to dance.
Doctors were com with flags, and the men painting crowns, flags etc. on the Orchs

Call of Mr S. M. Greene. after other conversations I told him, I had come to speak of Rel'g. with him, but hardly know how to begin.

He said he hardly knew either; but went on to tell me that ^{"as a"} Speculation he that he held the Curr'ly. but not as a sentiment

I said you know what I think the N. Est. teaches, do you hold that Speculating?

"I think I may say sincerely, I do." He added "but not as a sentiment." By that I found he meant "Sentiments", a thing felt, practically.

Said he "I am trying to feel it - and have been for some time"

I said "Well the Kingdom of Heaven in all its exercises is as a grain of mustard seed".

"Will he require you encourage me in that."

"Do you feel any conviction of sin?"

"I feel it very little, less than I wish to, but - some at times."

"Now I said take the law of God & pray for aid to apply that to your life."

I also said what one might be a man's position if he cry out to God for help - he will get it, provided he did desire to return unto him.

He said that alone was enough to compensate for my trouble in coming up the hill.

I also told him of my own experience in asking for my own consolation

3 Finally I told him there were 2 things for him to do -

- (1) To pray for the Holy Spirit, and
- (2) To Commence obedience at once - the very first gn that arose of obed. to the law of God, to submit and comply.

He thanked me. He said he was going on Thursday or Friday to Stgo.

I said I w^d come again before.
He wish I would: and when there he w^d write to me if he needed more counsel. I wrote a prayer for him, and off I pray with him. This he did not agree to; but after pausing a moment said he wish I w^d come on Thursday.

I came down the hill there and dined at Cath's, and then came home.
Jame was on the hill with Mrs Bl.

and all the girls; she had been fright & some knicks about her fate; and it was quite dark.

I saw Page in town; he insists that Jane should come in to town - don't like to ride over the road at night - may not get her in time - may come and not be needed.

This day I have been gratified and hope good my result from preaching the Gospel to individuals.

Tuesd. March 20, 1855.

Came out with Charles S. Blake.
Wants to be a deacon. I told him it w^d be hard, and yet, if his heart was changed, it w^d be easy. Urged him to pray for a new heart and to hold tantism too far gone for them - Better

All variations these.

Soon he ask'd if I ^{had} ~~any~~ ^{land} but are build'g in San Augustin

He told me the Archbp. had sent a note tho' sent^d of it to the clud, asking if we were building a chapel, & saying if so the laws w^d be enforced to stop it". I thought him for telling me. I spoke well of the Intend^t, that while valous in his views, he was I believe a generous man & w^d see it better for us to have our place of worship. He said he w^d keep me informed of the matter and of the answer sent to the note - and add^d "the Intend^t does not like it". "What"? "Why the Archbp. interfering about this - he did not know any thing about it". I said if it was stoppt, it must be discuss^d in the papers. He replied he hoped I w^d give it to them then, for it was a great shame.

I think how providential it was I met him - had I ridden up - or not seen the soldiers - I should not have spoken to him. Indeed I never spoke to him before, and walking behind him that day & away.

I mention it for the debt & said our only hope must be in God. So I proposed to pray about it & did. It caused a sensations, & felt more in the street.

Lindsey said afterwards "that's bad news sir, you say" - I said, "maybe we need to be afflicted".

Williamson asked who told me, I declined telling who lost it right Compromise time.

I dwell on the providence of meeting him - the note came yesterday only -

said it was a shame - and with go to Dr. Delatour who he knows will get unknown result to man.
He said Con esta intolerancia se cansa. He alluded to the Perisima Concepcion as a useless opinion - that w'd ruin the Church - that if many was for fm. Org. since then he no. was & so on up to Lucia & then was all.

I went - Saw Resco - told him my errand & how the license was so badly done. He told me how to amend it - men wounded it. I went to Barra who wrote it out & presented it for me.

While with Resco I spoke of what had been said that I was seeking to propagate my ideas. I said the Cath. Rel^y. I had not attack^d.
He had seen my Catechism - it was good - some things omitted.
He had rec^d several complaints ag^t me fr^m. Santiago - that I had Circulated Quodmos, Gard, &c I have, but not polemical - that on all occasions I did plead for toleration, and was sure no progress in moralif w^d be attain'd for the masses without liberal culture.

He said that is a very open question & ask'd how it was in my own country. - I said we had 2 causes of immoralif, Slavery and Europ. immigration; but that in our northern States where was most lib^{erty}
- then most moralif.

We parted better pleas'd with ea. other.

He ord^{er}ed my new petition to be pass'd to Com. de Policia.

On Sunday Jan. 23^d I stated the nature of affairs to a full Chapel.
Saying the mistake was ours, and the authorities had us at their mercy.

The blunder of the licence on part of Livingstone and Walker is the source of all.

We have reason to praise the Govt. and Rises for so readily letting us go on.

Consent to part with his wife

I put it on ground that theatres tend to immoraliz^e. He said he had derived great good in them, more than any where else. I said more than under the Gospel? He hesitated but even seem^d to say that. He said some one had spoken to his wife about his taking his he felt displeas^d at. He w^d not carried stories; as also that the Sac. had done wrong in the way of sland^ring Wms.

I urged him to give up the Theatre some stress is laid "them" on religion - that

Mis 2. es la de la Confesion - del Papa por haber puesto la penitencia en uso de pararse ordenando en la misma tres dias
- de la Virgen - de las pláticas de los padres - de los santos: -

I told her what had been my views, that we sh^d teach the Gospel as a rule of life, avoiding Controversy - that the story of the Pope was a mere event in history - that I did not think ^{without this} Confession had been spoken against ^{any} one occas. Maria had gone to Confess and had been told it was wrong to read the sc. (she said at once "si, sinnotas" and Mrs J. had said the priest was wrong acc. oppos^d to Denis - that abt^d the Virgin it is not he that she has a word agt^d her.

She said she had been told ano. Co-mission was coming to examine the school I said it wd be the best way - she sd

She was told I promised the Com^{rs} before to have a teacher of religion: I said, never;
she said she had replied that it'd not be so.
She added it'd be better no to teach any thing in religion at all - not even to read the Sc.
- that "esas explicaciones" she did not wish her ch^{rs} taught, and to remove them rather.
She said to me speaking she had ev. Confid.
as with a friend &c.

At this we were interrupted by Ellen coming in,
and Harry David with me I came home.

Her remarks were very sensible. She said ev. one has his religion - Dr. Est. has some good in it, as well as bad. That ch^{rs} taught one thing of their parents and ans. in School & not know what Est. to hold, and to "guardar sin ninguna".

Boo up town on grey horse - worse
