he sensitive - that I had not anything in many of the School - & put away religious each power at once. Counsel Leather's views that ministry is the sin against the Ho. Ghost: for years prayer in Dis-it & Presb. knew of it - but nothing was done - then.

past. wk. He began say<sup>g</sup> what I thot<sup>t</sup> about his sermon.

I told him they had been well rec<sup>d</sup> by the people & liked; were better than mine at his stage of study, and that by coming close to ~~set~~ know him fully I thot<sup>t</sup> he w<sup>d</sup> succeed in the work of the ministry well.

He had thot<sup>t</sup> w<sup>t</sup> he might not do more as a layman stirring up other laymen. Had thot<sup>t</sup> of Com<sup>g</sup> here but does not now feel much drawn to the place; feels that here almost ev<sup>ry</sup> one seems intent on making money. He had prayer together: and both felt tendous. I told him I did not wish him to come here, much as it wd please me, unless it were that here he cd secure st.

better than elsewhere.

But that I guess wd<sup>r</sup> in any place thus much more need<sup>d</sup> & scope for Ev. work.

At Sch<sup>l</sup>. Mr. Mackay spoke of Mary, Willy & David (a visitor) giving each <sup>of the 2</sup> a Bible in naming the school.
I spoke of my indebtedness to the school as a minister and as a parent, in benefits to all my children.

Mr Mackay's help has been steady & constant in this: and to him I feel indebted greatly.
